

October Lecture DINNER
October 9, 2018, 6:00 p.m.
In the Glenn Miller Ballroom UMC
Helping People With Different Kinds of Minds Be Successful
Speaker: Dr. Temple Grandin

We are honored to have Dr. Temple Grandin present an evening lecture to the UWC.

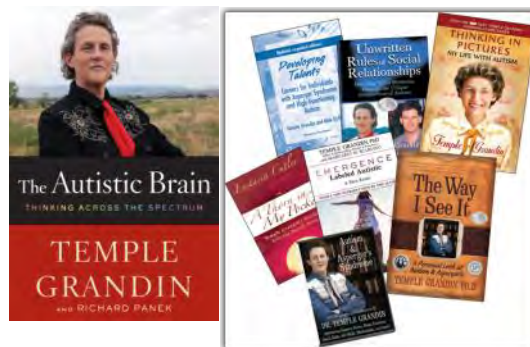

The doors open at 5:30 p.m. at the Glenn Miller Ballroom.
There will be a cash bar in addition to dinner.

Professor Temple Grandin is an American professor of animal science at Colorado State University, a consultant to the livestock industry on animal behavior, and an autism spokesperson. She is one of the first individuals on the autism spectrum to publicly share insights from her personal experience of autism. She invented the "hug box" device to calm those on the autism spectrum. In the 2010 Time 100, an annual list of the 100 most influential people in the world, she was named in the "Heroes" category. She was the subject of the Emmy- and Golden Globe-winning semi-biographical film Temple Grandin.

She is the author and/or subject of many books.

Dr. Grandin is well-known as an individual with autism, but she is equally distinguished by her work as a university professor and designer of humane animal handling facilities.

Come meet this amazing woman.

President's Message

"Life starts all over again when it gets crisp in the fall." F. Scott Fitzgerald

Yes, it's hard to believe that CU is back in session and it's already October. The University Women's Club calendar for the coming year is filled with exciting events and numerous Interest Group opportunities.

Our year kicked-off with our annual Fall Membership Coffee/Tea on September 11. We had a wonderful turn-out of UWC new and current members and their friends. Be sure to check-out all the photos in this issue of MESSAGES. I so enjoyed meeting and greeting our new members and welcoming back our current members. For our newer members, I hope you got a flavor for the many and varied activities/events we offer. I would be remiss if I did not thank everyone who helped plan and coordinate the Fall Membership event- a BIG THANK YOU to all.

We have a full calendar of interesting and stimulating lectures this year. I am especially excited about our October featured speaker Temple Grandin. My son and daughter-in-law are both veterinarians and they only were able to watch Temple Grandin taped lectures in Vet school. We are so fortunate and honored to have Temple Grandin speak to us "in person" at the October 9 Lecture Dinner (starts at 6:00 pm). I remember watching the 2010 HBO movie about her life and thinking what an incredible story she has to tell. If you haven't seen the HBO movie, Temple Grandin starring Claire Danes, I highly recommend it. (How many other movies score 100% on Rotten Tomatoes!)

And to all UWC members, give a thought to joining the UWC Board of Directors. The UWC Board is comprised of a group of multi-talented and skilled women, all of whom volunteer their time. Three of the UWC Board positions are elected (President, Secretary, Treasurer.) Karon Johnson is the chair of our nominating committee. Look for her article in this newsletter detailing the nomination process. However, the majority of the UWC Board positions are on a non-elected volunteer basis. Why not consider joining us? We have a lot of fun at our Board meetings. You can let President-Elect Merry Bullock know of your interest to serve on the Board next year.

If you have not already done so, I encourage you to pay your dues and generously donate to the UWC Scholarship Fund by October 15. This is the cutoff deadline to be included in the November electronic directory. Membership is also required to participate in UWC Interest Groups. The membership form can be found in this issue of MESSAGES and on the UWC website (boulderuwc.org)

We look forward to another fulfilling and fun year that meets the objectives stated in the UWC Constitution: To promote friendship among the members and to strengthen their bonds of common interest.

Here's to fun and friendship!

Arlene Gerwin, 2018-2019 President

Membership Dues

$35 annual dues are due by October 15. That is the cutoff deadline to be included in the November electronic directory. Please send your dues in early so that we can include you. Checks made out to UWC can be sent to P.O. Box 18844, Attn. UWC Membership, Boulder CO 80308-1844.

We encourage you to consider including your scholarship fund donation and increase your check amount accordingly. If you have questions regarding your UWC Membership please email Karen Neff, UWC Membership Chair at uwcmembershipchair@gmail.com. Please see the Membership Form on page 12.

Scholarship Chair's Message

It is Fall, students are returning to CU, and we are proudly kicking off the 2018-19 scholarship funding cycle. This year we hope to give six (or more!) non-traditional CU students scholarships to support their educational goals. Your giving is the backbone of the scholarship program, and we celebrate your generosity.

Please read more about the scholarship program and 2018 recipients at <http://boulderuwc.org/index.php/scholarships>.

Also, please note that you can make a special gift "In Memory Of" or "In Honor Of" someone, at any time (see Membership Form, page 12).

French Conversation Group – All Speaking Levels

We are one of two UWC French conversation groups; we are the one that is still accepting (and happily seeking) new members. We welcome members from all conversation levels in a supportive and social atmosphere.

Most of us fall somewhere in the range from “I took French in H.S. and want to get back into it” to “I can carry an (easy to moderate) conversation”. We are all helping each other along to improve our French. Currently, the conversations are informal – we may talk about travels, a recent movie, volunteer work or anything else that comes to mind. From time to time, we use more structured conversation starters such as short reading sessions or whatever else our creative members develop.

We meet at Panera Bread, 29th Street Mall, Boulder, every 2nd and 4th Wednesday of the month, from 10:00 to 11:30 AM. Bienvenue!

Beth Karpf, French Conversation Interest Group Chair

Theater Goers Interest Group

This group invites you to join us monthly for a local (matinee) play and optional brunch. The next production we are planning is this strangely named play, “LUNGS”, that we think will be exceptional, playing at a funky regional theater in Golden (Miner’s Alley) that we love. Join us on October 7. We invite you to sign up for our email list where you will get all the latest announcements!

LUNGS: The world is getting hotter, there’s unrest overseas—the seas themselves aren’t very calm—one couple is thinking about having a child. LUNGS is a smart and funny drama that follows a couple through the surprising lifecycle of their relationship as they grapple with questions of family and change, hope, betrayal, happenstance, and the terrible pain that you can only cause the people you love.

UWC Book Groups – Lots to Choose From!

UWC members are readers, no question about that. The Evening Book Group has been a popular interest group for decades, with the Afternoon Book Group not far behind. Several years ago, we added a “Small Book Group” and since that first foray, the small groups have proliferated – some still active, others having dissolved. So, what do we have on offer and how are they different?

Afternoon Book Group and Evening Book Group – these groups are traditional book groups, which always welcome new members. They read a mixture of fiction and non-fiction. Before discussion by the group, each book has a reviewer who provides background information relevant to the selection – information about the author, the setting, critical response to the work, whatever is important for deeper understanding of the book. The roster of members for each of these groups is large; attendance is usually in the teens.

The Afternoon Group meets on the fourth Tuesday at 1:30 p.m. in the homes of group members. The Evening Group meets on the second Thursday at 7:15 p.m. in the homes of group members.

The small groups are, by definition, “small,” so their membership is limited to the number of participants the group has determined is their maximum, but is around 8-12. Some of UWC’s groups are currently at their maximum but add members as a place becomes open.

Book Group 3 (BG3) was the first of the small groups. This group meets the second Wednesday at 10:00 a.m. and concentrates on discussion of current and classic novels. Each selection has a discussion leader who provides only a small amount of background so that the group can jump right into discussion. It is a group that requires commitment – attendance of all members is expected except when they are unable to attend. This group is currently full.

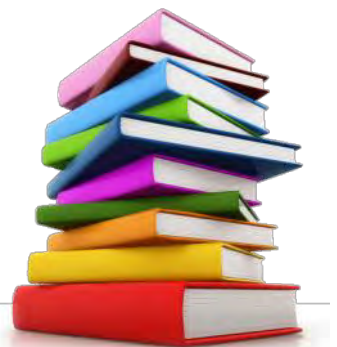

Biography Book Group reads (you guessed it) biographies and autobiographies. This group meets on the third Thursday at 1:30 p.m. They are currently seeking new members and also a person who can take over the chairmanship of the group.

Fiction/Nonfiction Group reads (you guessed it again) both fiction and non-fiction. This group meets the fourth Tuesday at 1:30 p.m. in members homes. They met their maximum at the Membership Tea.

Second Monday Group reads both fiction and non-fiction and meets the second Monday from 1:00 to 3:00 p.m. This group is currently full.

If one of the full small groups looks good to you, contact the chair and ask to be placed on a waiting list. See chairs’ names in the Interest Group section of MESSAGES.

If you are interested in starting a new small group, it takes only five UWC members (including someone willing to chair the group). Perhaps there is a particular type of book on which you would like to concentrate: classics, non-fiction, mystery, books by women, “Great Books,” short stories, you name it! If you want to start a new small group, and would like a little help doing so, contact Kathy Randall (katherineran@gmail.com).

Happy Reading to you all!
