President's Message

The end of summer marks the beginning of UWC's year – and what a year it will be! 2019-20 is UWC's 100th anniversary – our activities of the year, from luncheon topics to an end of the year gala, will celebrate the centennial.

Our year will begin with the annual Fall Membership Tea on Tuesday, September 10th from 2:00-4:00 pm when we greet old and new members, sign up for interest groups and lecture luncheons, and have an opportunity to hear about plans for the year. This is an opportunity for members to bring friends and neighbors who may be interested in joining UWC and participating in its many programs. At the tea, you may renew your membership, sign up for lecture luncheons, and contribute to UWC's scholarship effort that supports the education of non-traditional students who have returned to CU to complete their studies.

Last year our members' generous donations allowed us to give over $25,000 to six deserving undergraduates. Please try to join this effort by including a donation for scholarships along with your dues. (Donations may also be made throughout the year.) You will be so proud to have helped such amazing students reach their education goals.

The five Lecture Luncheons (October, November, January, February, March) will give UWC members and guests an exciting centennial overview of our environment (CU Museum of Natural History: Window to the Past; A Door to the Future), the climate (Climate of Colorado over the Last 100 years, at NCAR), CU's social history in the year UWC was founded (The Story of Lucile B. B. Jones, the First Black Woman to Graduate from CU, 1919), CU's Heritage Center (We Were There at the Beginning), and our region of the country (Women and the West). Because prices keep going up, the Board decided to increase the price for lecture luncheons to $25 to cover costs. This is the first increase in five years.

Our centennial year will begin and end with two celebratory events. The first is publication of a Centennial book that highlights who we were and what we did over a century of activities, with fascinating stories gleaned from the CU archives and UWC members. This book will be a membership benefit for all – and ready in the fall. The second event is the May Gala – an event-filled UWC centennial birthday party for UWC members and guests. It's still in the planning stages but already promises to be a special evening of music, theater, and celebration.

This year UWC is going to explore online registration and payment for membership dues and lecture luncheons. You can renew your membership and pay your dues via PayPal or credit card – please see the link of UWC's home web page: <http://boulderuwc.org>. We hope to have lecture luncheon registration online by the time of the Member Tea.

2019-20 will be a vibrant year, driven by the engagement of your Board members, Interest Group chairs, and special event coordinators. It is a privilege for me, as 2019-20 President, to work with and learn from them and you, the UWC members. I am looking forward to seeing you all at UWC events and online!

Merry Bullock, UWC President, 2019-20

Centennial Gala – SAVE THE DATE!

As a finale to the UWC Centennial year, a committee has been working on a “Gala,” a plated dinner with some fun entertainment, in the Glenn Miller Ballroom. More details will be provided in future newsletters. Be sure to mark the date – Friday, May 15, 2020 starting at 5:30 p.m.

Scholarships

In this, our Centennial year, we wish a warm welcome to all our new members and to our many returning members! Since its founding, a goal of the UWC has been service to the university and the community. Since 1982, this has included providing scholarships to non-traditional students, who have had their college studies interrupted. The recipients tell their stories at our Spring Scholarship Luncheon, and these individuals are always remarkable for the resilience, passion, and talent they display. These stories inspire us to redouble our efforts to increase the amounts we are able to provide for our Scholarship Fund.

It is your donations that make the Scholarship Fund possible. These can accompany your membership dues checks, lecture luncheon registrations, or can be made by donating online (boulderuwc.org) or sending a check in the mail. You can additionally support UWC just when buying groceries! That’s right, King Soopers will now donate 5% of all purchases to the UWC directly through your loyalty card! Instructions about how to enroll your loyalty card in this program are laid out on the UWC website (see above). You can also hear more about this at the Fall Membership Coffee, where we hope to see you all. Let’s all work together to make this a banner year for scholarships!

Margaret Riddle, Scholarship Chair.
