February Lecture Luncheon
February 11, 2020, 11:30 a.m.
In the UMC Room 235

We Were There at the Beginning

Speaker: Mona Lambrecht
Curator of History and Collections
CU Heritage Center

Reservations & payment due January 28

Women were part of the founding of the CU from the initial donation of land, the first prep students, and the first woman professor. Discover the contributions, milestones, and progress women made in the first years of the university and into the early twentieth century.

Specializing in researching social history at the local level, Mona focuses on individuals and families and the contributions they made to their communities. She earned her Master's degree in Public History at Boston's Northeastern University and is currently the Curator of History and Collections at the CU Heritage Center.

In addition to her museum work, Mona has worked with several museums in Massachusetts, Denver, and Boulder. She was an Affiliate Professor of History at Metropolitan State University of Denver and published her first book, Boulder: 1859-1919 in 2008. Mona is currently working on a book about Boulder's beloved nineteenth-century photographer, Joseph Bevier and "Rocky Mountain Joe" Sturtevant.

President's Message

*Merry Bullock,

Welcome to 2020—a year of vision and insight (capturing the 20/20 vision motif) and a leap year! These images capture UWC as we begin our 101st year of being an organization—clearsighted, and moving forward!

If you were to ask a random group of UWC members what the club is and what it stands for you might get a variety of answers – a place to make friends, to engage in the life of the mind (lectures, books, bridge), body (dance, hiking, snowshoeing, biking, even golf!), imagination (readers theater, movies, plays, gardens) skills (needlecraft, languages) or adventure (on the road), or a place to promote service (scholarships). But I think you would find unanimity in the pride with which members view the UWC—for its welcoming nature, interesting activities, and commitment to supporting students.

We are also moving forward as an organization—we are becoming more electronically savvy, with the ability to sign up and pay online for membership, all UWC activities, and donations (no more stamps and checks to mail!) This has not been easy—we are still learning to make the forms clear and efficient and payment seamless—but thanks to all the activity chairs and our UWC Treasurer, we are persisting!

What have we been doing and what is to come?

December, usually a quiet month in the UWC, had our Birthday Party. The City of Boulder declared December 12, 2019 (100 years after the first UWC meeting in 1919) as UWC day, and around 80 UWC members gathered to celebrate. See a summary and some photos at <http://boulderuwc.org/index.php/uwc-turns-100/>

In January we began distribution of the just-published Celebrating 100 years 1919-2019 – UWC's centennial book, produced by a dedicated committee headed by Frieda Holley. Thanks to the generosity of many sponsors (and hard work of Caryl Kassoy and Joyce Spencer in finding those sponsors), this book will be distributed to all UWC members as a special membership bonus! January also brings our 3rd Lecture Luncheon – with the story of Lucile Berkeley Buchanan Jones, who graduated from CU in 1918.

We are happy to announce the slate for Board elections—Tamera Van Spriell for President-Elect, Ellen Bell for Secretary-Elect, and Kathy Herder for Treasurer-Elect. The election will be held at the March Lecture Luncheon, and additional candidates may be nominated from the floor.

Meanwhile, your Board has been planning some great activities for the rest of the year. These include: February 12, 2020 – 4th Lecture Luncheon on the CU Heritage Center; March 15 (Sunday) – The Marriage of Figaro – opera brunch and opera; April 21 (Tuesday) – The scholarship luncheon with presentation of the 2020 scholarship recipients and the 2020 Margaret Willard Awardee; and May 15, 2020 – the end of the centennial GALA bash – this will be a fun evening of entertainment, laughter, and friendship. Thanks to all the volunteers who make the UWC sing and who contribute to our club lives!

I look forward to seeing you all at UWC's upcoming events and encourage you to consider volunteering with the University Women's Club for the up- coming 2020-2021 season. If you have any suggestions, ideas, or comments please email me at merrybullock@mac.com with UWC in the subject line!

Merry

Scholarship Donations

UWC has a long and proud tradition of awarding scholarships to our non-traditional students at CU who have had their college studies interrupted, and so many of our members have indicated they feel so very good about being part of this effort. We want to take this opportunity to give a heartfelt thanks to all of you who donated to the Scholarship Fund by making a special contribution to accompany your Membership dues. The list below includes those who made a donation in addition to the $5 included in the dues. Again, thank you all so much for your generosity!

Margaret Riddle, Scholarship Chair

Donors to this Year's Scholarship Fund between October 22 and December 31 , 2019

Allen	Jane	Johnson	Sandra
Bullock	Merry	Johnson, M.D.	Kathy
Charbonneau	Lauren	Katz	Susan
Dangelo	Mary Ann	McClanahan	Mary
Davis	Tessa	Spencer	Joyce
Grundmann	Maryann	Woodruff	Sherry
Hutchings	Louise

Donors have contributed more than the amount included in annual dues.

Please note that donations received in January will be acknowledged in the next newsletter.

Scholarship Luncheon – April 2020

The Spring Scholarship Luncheon will be Tuesday, April 21. We have a different venue—the new building (“The Canyons Center”) at Frasier! It's a great opportunity to celebrate the 2020 scholarship winners and hear their stirring personal stories. To support their efforts, please donate as generously as you can to the Scholarship Fund. Registration form on page 16.

Margaret Willard Award

Margaret Willard was the first president of the Faculty Women's Club, which became our University Women's Club. Each year we present the Margaret Willard Award to someone who exercises initiative in her endeavors and in doing so brings honor to all women and to our University. Please submit a nomination (form on page 15) due March 1, 2020. Please contact Kathleen with questions.

Kathleen Peterson, Chair MWA, kathleenp333@gmail.com .

Nominating Committee Report

The Nominating Committee, consisting of Janet Brewer Chair, Karen Diamond, and Frieda Holley has presented the following slate of officers. The UWC Board approved the slate at the November Board Meeting. The membership will vote on the officers at the March 10, 2020 luncheon.

President-Elect 2020-21 (to serve as President 2021-22)

Tamera Van Spriell

Tamera (Tam) has been a member of the University Women's Club for eight years and has held Board positions for six of those years. She was chair of the Opera Brunch for two years, co-chair of the Scholarship Luncheon with Linda Nordberg for two years and co-chair of the Interest Groups again with Linda for two years.

She retired from a 20-year career with Merck & Co., Inc. in clinical quality assurance where she traveled domestically and internationally auditing research studies conducted in support of Merck's clinical trials. Data from these trials ultimately supported new drug applications sent to the FDA.

She is eager to become more fully engaged with the UWC Board in a broader capacity.

Treasurer-Elect 2020-21 (to serve as Treasurer 2021-22)

Kathy Herder

Kathy Herder has thirty years of experience in accounting, human resources, purchasing, and office administration. She has worked in small, mid-size, and large construction, engineering and service-oriented companies at all levels of management. Her most recent positions were as Controller of a national US company, prior to relocating to Singapore in 2007, then as Controller for The American Chamber of Commerce in Singapore from 2008-2012. She served as an executive committee member for financial and governance issues for aidha, a not for profit organization providing financial education for women migrant workers in Singapore.

Kathy is our current Treasurer and Treasurer-Elect.

Secretary-Elect 2020-21 (to serve as Secretary- 2021-22)

Karen Bell

Karen is a registered nurse (RN) and was the Clinical Nurse Specialist/Educator for the Nephrology Department at University of Colorado Health. She and her husband have been in Boulder 1974-77 and 1983-present. They have two children (Fairview grads) who each have two children and live in NYC and Charleston, SC. She travels frequently and volunteers for EFAA, OSMP and the National Kidney Foundation. She sings with the Boulder Chorale, has served on their board, and is currently on the grants committee. She joined UWC about 3 years ago at the invitation of two friends from the chorale. Initially she attended only the lecture/luncheon meetings and has since enjoyed travels with "On the Road Again" and meetings with the Garden Group. She is a strong advocate of the scholarship program that UWC supports and considers the interest groups a delight. She looks forward to serving as Secretary-Elect.

UWC Centennial Book

By now you all know we are having a celebratory year for the 100th anniversary of the UWC.

Our Centennial Book is published and will be given (no charge) to each current UWC member!!! In it you will find a wonderful history of our club from the first “Faculty Women’s Club” meeting on December 12, 1919 to the present. Distribution of the book has begun and will continue for the next several months.

UWC Centennial Gala – Friday, May 15, 2020

The Centennial Gala will celebrate our history. As a fitting finale to the Centennial Year celebrations, we invite you all, and your favorite guests, to attend the Gala Evening, planned to begin at 5:30 p.m. on May 15, 2020 in the UMC Glenn Miller Ballroom. Tickets will be available in the spring. It will be fun, festive, and will include:

- a cocktail hour, with a cash bar and non-alcoholic beverages, plus hors d’oeuvres
- a sit-down dinner (with a choice from 3 main-entrées)
- a brief performance (featuring “Margaret Willard”, “Helen Carpenter” and other notable UWC women)

Margaret Willard

Helen Carpenter

- music - on the piano, and later in the evening from members of the Thompson Jazz Ensemble who are remaining on campus for us although CU Boulder will have completed the academic year. THANK YOU to Jeanne and Jack Thompson for endowing the CU Jazz studies program and making this exciting entertainment part of our special evening
- a “nod” to our past presidents, Margaret Willard Award winners, and others
- a “Happy Centennial Birthday” cake

The dinner will have assigned seating, in tables of eight. If you just have one person with whom you wish to sit, that is not a problem. We will have a committee to help you find a table. Meanwhile, ask your friends to join you.

Cocktail attire is suggested (black tie not required!)

The registration form will be in the March issue of MESSAGES. Meanwhile, please mark the date on your 2020 calendar, and begin to think about your guests to invite.

Caryl Kassooy and Joyce Spencer
UWC Gala Co-Chairs

UWC's 100th Birthday – Thursday, December 12, 2019

Awaiting the Toast to 100 years!

Ruby Rendon &
Christina Inkpen

UWC is 100 years old. UWC members celebrated with a dessert party held at CU's LASP Science Center. The program featured welcomes, a reading of the Boulder City Council declaration of December 12, 2019 as UWC Day, and remarks by Christina Inkpen, from the CU scholarship office, and from Ruby Rendon, recipient of the UWC scholarship for non-traditional students. The History Centennial Committee also unveiled the UWC 100th Anniversary Book, which will be distributed to all UWC members. it details a history of UWC and little-known facts and anecdotes about our shared past.

CELEBRATING THE UNIVERSITY WOMEN'S CLUB 100 YEARS

The University Women's Club of Boulder, Colorado, was started on December 12, 1919, when Mrs. George Norlin, wife of President Norlin, hosted a meeting of University of Colorado faculty wives and women faculty and suggested creating an organization for faculty wives and female faculty members to promote their friendships and strengthen their bonds of common interest. The concept was endorsed, and an informal club was formed, which was formalized with a constitution in 1924. The original name of the Club was the Faculty Women's Club. The name was changed in 1973. Today the Club is open to any woman who is a member or friend of the University.

Although the Club had and still has many social activities, it is not just a social club. Its members want to be and are involved in worthy causes. The majority of those causes are in support of the University, but the Club has also assisted the Boulder community.

From 1932 to 1937 the Club provided funds to purchase milk for undernourished children in Boulder. In the late 1940s and early 1950s, the Club's Social Service Committee provided a variety of services for hospitals. For example, it made hospital gowns, surgical bandages, curtains for the hospital, and dolls for the Tuberculosis Ward of Denver General Hospital.

A frequent community service was baking cookies. Members started making cookies for Fitzsimons Hospital in 1959. By 1975 they were making three dozen cookies a month for Meals on Wheels, an activity they continued for twenty-five years.

UWC members have volunteered at many of the cultural organizations in Boulder. They have dedicated their time to the Women of the West Museum, the Boulder Museum of History, Historic Boulder, the Colorado Music Festival, and the Colorado Shakespeare Festival.

Because funding for the University of Colorado at Boulder has been so low, the Club has undertaken activities to raise funds for various projects. In the 1980s Club members wrote and published The Colorado Cookbook. Over 70,000 copies were sold, raising over $350,000 for CU libraries. They also volunteered their time at the CU libraries serving as bookfinders.

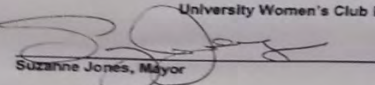

For over thirty years members served as volunteer staff at the Wardenburg Student Health Center in addition to raising money to purchase needed equipment.

Building renovations have also been supported. The Club raised funds for the renovation of Macky Auditorium and helped save Cottage No. 1, now the Hazel Gates Woodruff Cottage, which was one of the original residences for female CU students.

The University Women's Club's main service activity today is raising money for scholarships for nontraditional students who have had a break in their education. The Club started awarding scholarships in 1982 and to date has awarded over $300,000 to 100 students helping them achieve their goal of a college education. Some of the money for scholarships is raised through fashion shows that feature Boulder stores.

The City Council of the City of Boulder congratulates the University Women's Club of Boulder on achieving its 100th birthday and declares December 12, 2019, as

University Women's Club Day
