In 2007, Aimee went on a dangerous assignment as a reporter in a Ugandan refugee camp that ended up changing the course of her life and many others. She learned about the plights of some of the neediest people in the world. The end result of her risky choice was surprising and took a completely different turn from what she would have ever expected.

President's Message

As the days get shorter, I hope the brightness of friends who surround you and your loved ones bring you joy.

Our membership is over 300 again this year. In November, Kathy Terrill was elected as Secretary-Elect for 2015-16. She will serve as secretary next year.

We have Board positions available next year that involve events planning, working with figures or records, communicating with folks, and recognizing accomplishments. Our Board has a lot of fun together. Janet Brewer, our President-Elect, who will serve in 2016-17 will be seeking new members to join us next year. Please let her know if this is something you'd like to consider or learn more. (Janet's email: dtbjhb@aol.com).

Both our October and November Lecture Luncheons were very well subscribed successes. Both speakers were outstanding. In November we tried a new venue of the Glenn Miller Ballroom at the UMC.

The December luncheon will have a "cap" on the number of available seats, so please note the December 1 deadline for RECEIPT of your check and reservation and send in your check early so you can get one of the remaining seats to hear Aimee Heckel, an award-winning columnist for Boulder's Daily Camera.

This issue of MESSAGES covers December and January. The first Lecture Luncheon of the new year will be February 9.

As the year wraps up and taxes are due, I hope you will consider a donation to the scholarship fund. We have supported three to five non-traditional students in the past few years who are at least 24 years of age with 2 years of study toward a bachelor's degree. Our scholarship winners are seeking to finish their undergraduate studies at the University of Colorado Boulder.

We will be trying something new in December to increase our scholarship fund. If you'd like to bring a check with your end-of-year tax deductible donation (marked "donation" and made out to UWC), we will be asking for the checks to be deposited in the same bags as our name tags at the December 8 Lecture Luncheon. What a great way to ring in the New Year!

Have a great set of holidays!

Diana King

President 2015-16

UWC Scholarship Donations—Be Ready to "Bag Your Check"

What a great time of year for FUN and FUNDING (our scholarship efforts). Now it will be easier than ever to help our CU scholars by dropping your check for the scholarship fund into the "name tag" bags on the tables at the next lecture luncheons.

As you know, tuition is currently ten times what it was when UWC first started giving scholarships in 1983 and you probably saw the Daily Camera headline recently that said, "Big Tuition Increases Grow Likely".

Our donations for this year are running slightly ahead of last year at this point, and we currently have about 37% of our members contributing to our effort. We know we can do better and feel great being a part of this worthwhile endeavor while we are enjoying all the groups and activities that UWC sponsors.

Don't forget that you can designate your donation to be given in someone's memory or to mark a special occasion. (Note donation form Page 13).

Thanks so much to those of you who have contributed at this point! Your generosity is very much appreciated! We can all take advantage of this easier way to contribute at upcoming luncheons whether we have already contributed or not!

New Member Wine and Cheese Reception November 1

The New Member reception was held at the home of UWC President, Diana King, on Sunday afternoon, November 1, 2015. Eighteen Board members and 30 new members who attended—perhaps a record number for this event. Board members explained their jobs and new members introduced themselves and spoke of “their passions”.

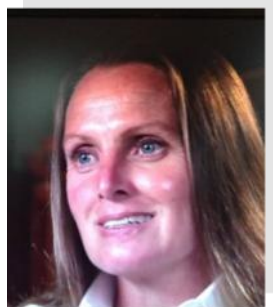

Upcoming Lecture Luncheons

The price of the luncheons is $22 per person, per luncheon. Make checks payable to "UWC" and note "Lecture Luncheon" in the memo. Please send payment or questions to: Janet Kern, Attention: UWC Lecture Luncheon, 2725 Overlook Drive Broomfield, CO 80020 or 720 887-3417. Please do not combine lecture lunch payments with dues payments. Lecture Luncheon Registration Form is on Page 14.

Previous Lecture Luncheons—October 2015

Previous Lecture Luncheons— November 2015

Dr. Elizabeth Fenn, Pulitzer Prize (History) winner 2015 for her book Encounters at the Heart of the World: A History of the Mandan People, spoke in November about her research and book.

The luncheon was held in the Glenn Miller Center Ballroom. Over 140 members and their guests attended.

The Mandan tribes lived in North Dakota.

Interest Groups—Theater Goers

November was a brilliant month for Theater Goers. The Theater Goers attended two performances.

The first was The 39 Steps, presented and directed by the students of CU. Comedy is hard to do, but the four performers nailed every line. Amongst them they played several roles with minimum props. We laughed and enjoyed every minute of this Free Performance. This performance was truly a testament to the talent of CU students in the Theater Arts Department.

The second performance was The Few presented by BETC at the Dairy Center. The performance was excellent but this is not a "feel good" play. It was troubling and grim.

The two theater groups have now been combined, and we are looking forward to hearing your suggestions for future performances. If you have an idea, contact Annie Russell, Kathleen Newton, or Gail Moyes. (See contact information under Interest Groups.)

Tell Me More... About what goes into our planning for our Lecture Luncheons

Planning for the five Lecture Luncheons is one of the primary responsibilities of the UWC Program Chair and her committee. Planning for the next year's Lecture Luncheons begins in the spring when the Program Chair is named. We are lucky to be in a community with a large pool of excellent speakers with interesting topics. The chair collects suggestions from UWC board and members, articles in the Daily Camera, personal knowledge, and proposals from previous years. She tries to include representatives from many fields and from both the University and the larger Boulder community.

Some UWC members have questioned the price for attending our Lecture Luncheons. Our Lecture Luncheons are not a fund-raising activity for UWC. The UWC Annual Budget sets the Program Committee's income to be equal to expenditures.

The food served at our Lecture Luncheons is not the only cost we must consider. In addition to the basic catering costs (food and drink, special meals, catering staff, table linens), we must cover the audio-visual equipment rental costs, hourly wages of AV technical staff, and the rental charges for podium and lectern, entry and display tables, easels, and coat racks. Our budget does not allow for payment to our speakers; they are all volunteers receiving only their meals, the meals of their guests, and our heartfelt thanks. Because UWC is considered a part of the University community, the rental costs for the room and tables and chairs at UMC are waived. When circumstances require the use of an outside venue, we must pay a room rental fee which greatly increases our costs.

We must provide our caterer with accurate counts of total expected attendance including exact numbers of the special meals. This is why we require advance reservations and advance orders for special meals. Some extra places are set – a few more than our expected attendance – not for walk-in guests, but so that late-comers can easily find a place to sit.

The Program Committee meets with our caterer to select menus. We try to pick interesting and varied luncheon choices. We also take note of our members' preferences. While many of us found the beef stew in October to be absolutely delicious, there were many others who chose not to eat it at all. So beef stew is off the menu for the future. We also know that our members enjoy the salads and take smaller portions of entrées, so we have requested additional salad to be available on the buffet, cutting back a bit on the entrée.

We learn as we go. We apologize for the long line at the November Lecture Luncheon. As Diana King noted, we are victims of our own success. For any future luncheons where our guest count is high, we will have two buffet lines, each serving on two sides. We have also changed the meeting venue to the Glenn Miller Central Ballroom for February and March to provide us with extra needed space. December's Lecture Luncheon must be held in Room 235 as the ballroom is unavailable. Seating will be somewhat limited, so be sure to get your reservation in early or we may reach capacity before your request is received.

Regardless of how carefully we plan, things do occasionally go awry. Our lines were too long in November, occasionally a speaker has to cancel and be replaced at the last minute, perhaps we run out of dessert, or there is a mix up in someone's reservation listing. The Program Committee and Hospitality do their best to make things right, and we all appreciate the patience and understanding of our members.

Interest Groups—Bicycling

Both UWC biking groups just finished their seasons after six whole months of pedaling in and around Boulder. Sharon Howrey started our forays about seven years ago then handed the leadership over to our intrepid leader, Mary Greenwald.

Twice a week, with just a few interludes for her international travel, Mary sends us an email detailing the rides for the week. We use a very simple online response program to let her know who can make it for any given outing and then rendezvous at the appointed time. What is particularly appealing to anyone who likes to ride bicycles is that there are two groups available.

If you are just getting into riding you can go on Wednesday mornings with the Easy Riders who start gently in the spring and work up to ten (usually flat) miles on bike paths with lots of time to talk and stop for coffee after the ride.

If you have been riding for a while and prefer more mileage, the Thursday group usually goes about 20 miles and still has time to chat and stop for coffee.

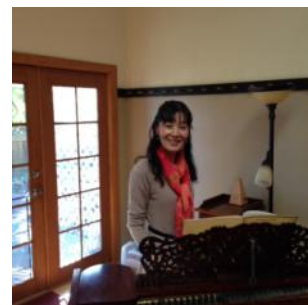

We have been very fortunate to have Carol Saunders invite us to her Frisco condo the last few summers to do some high country challenges. Because of the opportunities afforded over the years by our weekly outings, a few of us even rode from Frisco to Copper Mountain and then on up to Vail Pass this summer! We really can choose our own adventure with Mary in the lead!

One other thing that made this a particularly interesting season is that Barbara Hau is producing a documentary about our group. She shot lots of video this summer and will have the final product ready to show next spring.

If you would like to receive information about our riding which will resume in May, feel free to contact Mary Greenwald. We are always happy to have new riders and we never leave anyone behind. There is always someone riding sweep (behind everyone else) to make sure no one gets lost and we have an amazing safety record! Jump on your bike and join us! (Note that biking group meets May—October.)

This is an opportunity to support and celebrate the UWC scholarship winners, to share a scrumptious lunch and lively conversation with friends and to enjoy seeing the latest spring fashions from one of our favorite clothiers, Chico's.

Watch future UWC MESSAGES for more detailed information regarding this popular event.

Scholarship Donation—Tax Planning

As year-end approaches and thoughts of planning our tax strategy emerge, we are all asked to make donations to benefit local organizations. Why not put the University Women's Club Scholarship Fund on the top of your list of beneficiaries? This fund provides you with the opportunity to make a better life for a deserving student who is dedicated to achieving his or her education goals.

You now have the opportunity to make your donation as a tribute "in honor of" or "in memory of" a deserving friend or loved one; how about the gift for someone who has everything? The honoree (or family) will be notified of the gift and the donor will be recognized in MESSAGES. Please see donation form on page 13.

Donations of $50 or greater will receive a letter for tax purposes.

Dialogues of the Carmelites grapples with such timeless human emotions as fear, despair, and faith. It is a dark, intense opera based on the persecution of nuns at the convent at Compiègne during the French Revolution.

Reservation forms will be printed in subsequent MESSAGES newsletters.

Margaret Willard Award

Margaret Willard began her career at CU as an English instructor, wife of an history professor, and became the first president of the Faculty Wives' Club, which has evolved into a more encompassing group, our University Women's Club.

Though the original group liked to chat and sip tea, they grew in involvement in philanthropic matters. According to Sylvia Pettem, a Boulder local historian, these included providing eye-glasses and books to needy students, milk funds for schools, implementing student loans, and more.

The social aspects of their lives turned more and more to helping others as the world progressed through the Great Depression and World War II. By 1957, they added fund-raising and expanded the philanthropic work by providing financial scholarships for women, non-traditional females, to help them to continue their education. We continue this tradition and recently have included men for scholarship consideration.

Since 1993, the UWC has presented the Margaret Willard to a woman or women who have exemplified the traits of our predecessors, and in doing so honor all women.

The University Women's Club presents the Margaret Willard Award annually at the spring Honors Reception. The woman receiving the award must fulfill some or all of the following criteria:

- Demonstrate outstanding work in her field of endeavor
- Enhance the quality of life for women on the Boulder campus and/or in the Boulder community
- Be an exceptional role model
- Elevate women's performance
- Bring honor to all women and to the University/Boulder community through her accomplishments

There have been 36 previous recipients, including Patricia Limerick, Val Havlick, Carlen Penfold, Ruth M. Wright, Claudine Garby, and Ceal Barry. There is a complete list in the UWC Handbook, which was distributed electronically.

All our honorees are exemplary role models who exercise initiative in their endeavors and in doing so bring honor to all women and to our University.

Please submit a nomination (form on page 15) by March 1.

Honors Reception—May 10, 2016

The Honors Reception will be held on May 10, 2016, at the Koenig Alumni Center on the CU campus.

The Margaret Willard Awardee will be presented, the new UWC President will be handed the gavel, roses will be given to past Margaret Willard awardees, past Presidents, and past Presidents' awardees.

Hors d'oeuvres and beverages will be served. This is a FREE social activity for UWC members.

Dialogues of the Carmelites

Sung in English

Francis Poulenc's dark, intense 1957 opera—based on the persecution of nuns at the convent at Compiègne during the French Revolution—fearlessly grapples with such timeless human emotions as fear, despair and faith. "As rich as a vintage port, the opera delivers a soft and melodic score that undulates with (dark) and complex themes ... as tragically current as (they are) old."
