March Lecture Luncheon Beneath the Sands of Tarawa: Searching for My Grandfather in Body, History, and Spirit

Clay Evans

Tuesday, March 10, 2015, 11:30 a.m. University Memorial Center, Room 235, Boulder

(Reservations and payment due IN HAND by March 2.)

Clay Evans grew up in Boulder and received his college degree from the University of California, Santa Cruz. He has been a professional writer and editor for 25 years, having worked for such publications as the Los Angeles Times, Orange County Register, and the Daily Camera. He also has published hundreds of articles in publications such as the Princeton Alumni Weekly, the Santa Fe New Mexican, the Denver Post, Marathon and Beyond, New Mexico Magazine, the Coloradan, and others. Currently, Clay is the Director of Communications for CU PRESENTS.

Clay Evans worked as a cowboy in the 80's and wrote a book about those experiences. He is a science-fiction geek, runner, and animal freak. (The list goes on and on.) He lives in Niwot, Colorado, with his wife, three dogs, and three cats. His stepson is a senior engineering student at CU.

Clay is the only living grandson of Marine 1st Lt. Alexander Bonnyman, Jr., who was posthumously awarded the Medal of Honor after he was killed in action on the tiny central Pacific atoll of Tarawa on Nov. 22, 1943. Clay is nearing completion on a book about his grandfather's life and legacy. The book also includes Clay's findings during his recent travels to Tarawa.

Alexander "Sonny" Bonnyman, Jr. (May 2, 1910 - November 22, 1943) was a United States Marine Corps officer who was killed in action at Betio, Tarawa, during World War II. A combat engineer, he received the Medal of Honor, Purple Heart, Presidential Unit Citation, Asiatic-Pacific Campaign Medal with three Bronze Stars and the World War II Victory Medal posthumously for his actions during the strategically important assault on a Japanese bombproof shelter during the Battle of Tarawa.

In 2010 a team from the Joint POW/MIA Accounting Command (JPAC) began a recovery mission on Tarawa in hopes of locating the mass graves and identifying the remains of Bonnyman and other missing Americans. # President's Message

The first lecture luncheon of 2015 had a record turnout for Patty Limerick. We filled UMC Room 235. Dr. Limerick's talk injected humor into the serious subject of Hydraulic Fracturing. She "walked the balance beam," trying not to lean pro or con on the issue.

To see upcoming events on FrackingSENSE, featured by the Center of the American West, you can go to <http://centerwest.org/>. For a glossary on the topic, see <http://centerwest.org/projects/energy/glossary>.

Our final lecture luncheon will be on March 10, in UMC 235 with Clay Evans.

Please Note: Due to special circumstances, you MUST have your check IN KAREN DIAMOND'S HANDS no later than Monday March 2. Please see the March luncheon registration form. This is just a day earlier than the previously announced due date, but in order for Karen to complete all the details for the luncheon (checks to the bank, name tags ready, special diet requests handled), this is the last day your registration can be accepted. Try to mail your check at least a week ahead of March 2 to be sure.

On the afternoon of the Limerick Luncheon, Patty Ludke and I were invited to take a tour of the $4.2 million renovated Glenn Miller Ballroom, updated catering facilities, and the partially renovated Aspen Rooms.

Stage and screen in ballroom

Center ballroom from corner

Center ballroom, including stage

The ballroom can be partitioned into three sections. The East and the West ballrooms have about the same capacity as UMC 235. The center ballroom is quite large. The AV, lighting, and air temperature controls are impressive. The Ballroom was dedicated in 1953 and was in great need of this upgrade.

We hope to see you at the Opera (March), the April Scholarship Luncheon, and/or the Honors Tea (May).

Joyce J. Spencer

Opera and Brunch - REMINDER

For all who have registered for the annual Opera Brunch (March 15, 2015), the meal will be served beginning at 11:30 a.m. in the Aspen Room at the University Memorial Center. Following lunch, Maestro Nicholas Carthy will speak to the group about the upcoming performance. We will then make our way to Macky Auditorium for the 2:00 p.m. matinee of CU Opera's presentation of Mozart's Così fan tutte (Thus Do They All, or the School for Lovers) is an Italian-language opera buffa.

Mozart's witty opera buffa follows 24 hours in the lives of two beautiful sisters whose scandalous infidelities make for a comic romp that was considered too hot for audiences even in the early 20th century.

Great repertoire, lavish scenery, amazing voices, and outstanding value--these are the hallmarks of the Eklund Opera Program (formerly CU Opera). Director Leigh Holman and Music Director Nicholas Carthy bring you the best of classical and contemporary opera.

Congratulations to Next Year's Officers

At the Lecture Luncheon on February 10, the UWC voted to accept all the nominees put forward by the nominating committee. Our officers for the 2015-2016 year will be:

Janet Brewer - President-Elect

Barbara Colby - Secretary-Elect

Arlene Gerwin - Treasurer-Elect

Congratulations and thanks go to these candidates for their willingness to serve. Many thanks also to the Nominating Committee:

Jeannie Thompson, Chair, Mary Anna Dunn, Diana King, Carol Saunders, and Pat Thompson.

In Memoriam

Marlyn K. Spelman, a UWC member for nearly 20 years, passed away on December 27, 2014. Marlyn grew up in Washington D.C. and Missoula, Montana. She worked as a copywriter and reporter until marrying James Spelman of Smithville, Missouri. After Jim received his law degree, the Spelmans moved to Boulder in August 1960, where Marlyn enrolled at the University of Colorado and completed a Bachelor's Degree, a Phi Beta Kappa key, a doctoral fellowship, and a Ph.D. in English Literature.

Marlyn became a faculty member at Mesa State College when the Spelmans moved to Grand Junction in 1975. After retiring, Marlyn Spelman returned to Boulder, where she enjoyed the UWC and participated in a number of civic activities, including volunteering at the Chautauqua gift shop and serving as president of the Boulder Opera Buffs. As a member of the UWC family and as a contributing member of the Boulder community, she will be missed by many.

Please Note

If you would like to give a donation in remembrance or in honor of someone, please know that there is a form for donation to scholarships on page 11. You can also access that form on the Internet at <http://boulderuwc.org/wp-content/uploads/locations-pics/2009/12/2014/09/SCHOLARSHIP-DONATION-FORM.pdf>.

Tell Me More ...About How We Select Scholarship Winners

This column, conceived of and written by Kathy Randall, provides our readers with current news about people and topics from our past UWC events, speakers, and scholarship winners. We'll answer "What's happening now with ..." or "How does the story continue?" or "Have you heard the latest about ..."

One of the most rewarding positions in the University Women's Club administration is serving on the Scholarship Committee. We have the privilege of selecting the remarkable students who will receive the UWC Scholarships.

The first step is made by the students themselves. Through the CU financial aid website they select the scholarships for which they wish to be considered. To be eligible to apply for a UWC scholarship, the individual must:

- be a Colorado resident
- be at least 24 years of age
- be working on his or her first undergraduate degree
- have completed at least 12 semester hours at CU-Boulder with a 3.0 GPA or better
- plan to enroll for at least 9 credit hours for both semesters of the scholarship year.

The student completes a general scholarship application that includes a resume detailing:

- Activities and Memberships
- Community Service/Volunteer Activities
- Education History (high school, other colleges or training programs)
- Honors and Awards
- Work Experience

and an essay, which varies from year to year but is something on the order of "Tell us about one or more instances when you felt a sense of accomplishment and discuss how or why it was significant. You may include examples from any aspect of your life such as academic, extra-curricular, community service, family, or work."

In mid March the Scholarship Committee receives the information for those students who meet our requirements and who have selected the UWC Scholarship as one for which they wish to be considered. The Committee then considers the resume and essay the student has completed, and additional information from the financial aid office, which includes:

- the expected family financial contribution based on the FAFSA (Free Application for Federal Student Aid)
- the number of semester hours completed
- the student's GPA

Each member of the Scholarship Committee individually reviews the information about the scholarship applicants and rates them, using a spreadsheet and following predetermined guidelines, on qualities such as the GPA, financial need, service, initiative, leadership, writing and communication skills, and more elusive qualities such as potential, goals, altruism and other factors. The committee then meets as a group to make the final selection of our winners. The committee members discuss the candidates that have earned the highest ratings, and a consensus is reached on the candidates who best represent the qualities UWC hopes to find in their scholarship winners.

How many scholarship winners we select and how much scholarship money each will receive depends upon you. Scholarship money comes from current donations from our members and earnings from our Foundation Endowment Account, which is funded by donations from our members. Our goal this year is to meet or exceed last year's scholarship total of $20,000 distributed among four students. Our scholarship winners are amazing individuals. Our winners are so grateful for how we've changed their lives, and we are so proud of them.

Is there a topic, a speaker, an issue, or a scholarship winner that you know from UWC events or MESSAGES which calls out for an update? Do you have insider knowledge of one of our previous topics, speakers, issues, or scholarship winners that would be interesting to others? If so, please contact Kathy Randall (katherineran@gmail.com) for further "Tell Me More..." columns.

UWC Scholarship Luncheon

Celebrate the Present and Embrace the Future with Our UWC Scholars!

Now that you know how we select our scholarship students – it is time to meet them!

Please join us for the 58th Annual UWC Scholarship Luncheon, April 21, at the Boulder Country Club. This event is one of our favorites – good food, good friends and good fun. Meet the students, enjoy the companionship of old friends, and learn the latest summer fashion options from local favorite, Fresh Produce (you, too, can be fashionable!).

Ten dollars of your $40 lunch is donated to the UWC Scholarship fund. Please consider adding a bit more to that when you register given that it costs $26,000 for a Colorado student to attend CU for an academic year (more to follow on the cost of attending CU-Boulder next month). $10, $20 ....or more will be put to good use.

Register by April 14. Sign up for the luncheon at the March Lecture Luncheon (Clay Evans) or print the enclosed flyer (on page 9) and send to Karon Johnson or phone/email Karon: 303-499-5056, Karon.johnson@colorado.edu.

Save the Date - Annual Honors Reception

You are invited...

to the annual Honors Reception, Tuesday May 12, 2015 from 3-5 pm at Koenig Alumni Center. We will honor past UWC presidents, previous President's Award winners, previous Margaret Willard Award winners, and present the 2015 Margaret Willard Award winner. The new UWC President will be installed, and the outgoing president thanked for her service. Great food and drinks for all!

The Margaret Willard Award

Are you wondering what the Margaret Willard Award is? Here's the scoop:

Margaret Willard began her career at CU as an English Instructor, wife of an history professor, and became the first president of the Faculty Wives' Club, which has evolved into a more encompassing group, our University Women's Club. Though the original group liked to chat and sip tea, they grew in involvement in philanthropic matters. According to Sylvia Pettem, a Boulder local historian, these included providing eye-glasses and books to needy students, milk funds for schools, implementing student loans, and more.

The social aspects of their lives turned more and more to helping others as the world progressed through the Great Depression and World War 2. By 1957, they added fund raising and expanded the philanthropic work by providing financial scholarships for women, non-traditional females, who would not otherwise have been able to continue their education. We continue this tradition and recently have included men for scholarship consideration. Now UWC has grown to include interest and service groups and accept all women whether they have a CU association or not.

Since 1993, the UWC has presented the Margaret Willard to a woman or women who have exemplified the traits of our predecessors, and in doing so honor all women. There have been 35 previous recipients, including Patricia Limerick, Val Havlick, Carlen Penfold, Ruth M. Wright, Claudine Garby, and Ceal Barry. All our honorees are exemplary role models who exercise initiative in their endeavors and in doing so bring honor to all women and to our University. Please submit a nomination (form on page 10) by March 1.
