Dr. James Done is a climate scientist at the National Center for Atmospheric Research (NCAR), Boulder Colorado. He joined NCAR 14 years ago after completing a Ph.D. in atmospheric science at the University of Reading in the UK.

As research lead for NCAR's Capacity Center for Climate and Weather Extremes Dr. Done works with stakeholders from the energy, water, and insurance sectors to understand future weather and climate impacts.

Please note:

THIS LECTURE LUNCHEON IS NOW AT CAPACITY

No further registrations can be accepted. Sorry.

The lunch will be at the NCAR Cafeteria 11:30 a.m. to 12:15 p.m.
12:30 to 1:30—Talk by Dr. Done in NCAR Auditorium (limit 120 persons).
1:30 till 2:00 p.m.+ individuals may wander through exhibits.

NOTE: From the parking lot to the main door is up a hill. Plan accordingly.

Special meals are available and must be requested in advance: gluten-free or vegetarian options are available. We have limited room capacity for many of our lectures this year.

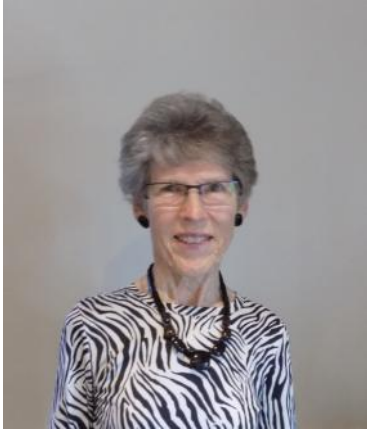

Please use the form on page 14 for the lecture luncheon registrations. Especially include the date, name, and type of SPECIAL MEAL (Gluten-Free or Vegetarian), if one is needed. The special meals are carefully counted out by the catering service. If you did not sign up for one, it may not be available for you. Those who signed up will have a special sticker on their nametag. Sorry but only GF and Vegetarian diets are included per our catering service.

President's Message

Interest Groups are a vital part of the University Women's Club. We now have 26 groups, which, after some research, I believe is more than ever before. Granted seven of them are book groups and not unique activities, but it is still an impressive number of groups. The first Interest Group, whose existence was recorded in 1937, was a Drama Group that evidently gave performances for the entire Club. That group may have morphed into a Play Reading Group in 2002, and now we have two Readers' Theatre Groups.

A Newcomer's Group was started in the early 1940s and lasted until the 1970s. For a time it had officers and a program of its own. It was not connected to Boulder Newcomers Club.

Some groups that existed in the 1950s remain active today: the Garden Group, Music Group, and Bridge Group. Groups that existed in the 1960s that still continue today in some form are book groups, Needlecraft (sometimes listed as Sewing or Sewing, Knitting, Handicrafts), Out to Lunch (originally called International Foods and whose members cooked recipes from around the world, then listed as International Out to Lunch when they started to go to restaurants), and Walking. By the 1980s there were both Hiking and Walking groups as well as a French Conversation group. Hiking and French continue.

A Travel Group, the forerunner of Tea and Travel, existed from the 1960s until 2014. An Investments Group existed from at least 1981 to around 2012. Other groups that met for many years but no longer exist are Writing and Authorship, Art Forum, and Antiques. The latter two may have been absorbed by On the Road Again as they went to various places to see exhibits. Wine Tasting, Tennis, and German existed in the 1980s and 1990s.

I gleaned much of the above history from reading old MESSAGES and from our 75th Anniversary booklet From Year to Year. Kathleen Newton has agreed to head up the project of writing up the Club's history for our Centennial. If you are interested in participating, please let her know, Kathleen\_n@comcast.net or 720-548-8661. If you have information about past Interest Groups and changes, please let me or Kathleen know. We should collect that information as part of our history.

Our current Interest Group chairs, Tamera Van Spriell and Linda Nordberg, suggested that the Club purchase liability insurance in case an unfortunate event happened at an Interest Group activity, such as a fall when hiking or biking, and the Club was subsequently sued. After some investigation and deliberation, the Board voted to purchase liability insurance, which will provide general liability coverage for all members of the Club when they are engaged in Club activities. If you have any questions about the insurance, please contact me. The Board is now discussing the issue of having members sign waivers. If you have an opinion about waivers, please let a Board member know.

Frieda Holley
UWC President

UMC Lecture Luncheons—Limited Capacity

The UMC is a busy place. The Glenn Miller Ballroom is especially popular. Our Program Chair gave a priority to keeping our lecture luncheons on Tuesdays. There was no availability for November at UMC for a Tuesday luncheon, so she found a speaker and a facility (see page 1) that could handle our normal number of members who attend. Alas, the topic is a "hot" one, and the number of registrations reached the capacity early.

Note that the three lecture luncheons in 2018 are in UMC 235, which also has a limited capacity. It might be wise to get your registrations in early for them.

Scholarship Co-Chairs' Message

The Scholarship Committee is happy to report that you, our members, have graciously donated nearly $7000 already to the fund that supports our scholarship winners! We're off to a good start in reaching and even surpassing last year's donations!

Hanna Tat

We hope that you were able to hear Hanna Tat, one of our scholarship recipients from last year speak at the UWC dinner on October 10! She was effusive in her gratitude for our help with her education. Having graduated from Ho Chi Minh High School in Vietnam and come to our country nine years ago Hanna has overcome even more challenges than most of our students in her quest to get a college degree. She was most impressive.

Did you know that UWC has about 30 new members? The UWC membership has tended to hover around 350 members from year to year. The Scholarship Committee of course admits to a certain (not-so-objective?) viewpoint about the importance of our scholarship mission. Could our scholarship success have some bearing on our membership numbers? We have begun to wonder if more women are finding out that we do have a very worthwhile mission. Maybe they're joining us because they share our goal of helping more students to graduate with degrees from the University of Colorado. We are hoping it is so!

As always, the Scholarship Committee thanks you for your gracious commitment to our students and their continued success. Spread the word! We are moving forward together and our students are benefitting from our efforts every day!

Becky Palmer and Merry Bullock Scholarship Co-Chairs

Membership Dues

$35 annual dues are past due. The cutoff deadline to be included in this year's electronic Directory and to receive MESSAGES has been extended—slightly. Please send your dues in today so that we can include you. Please use the Membership Form on page 13. Checks made out to UWC can be sent to P.O. Box 18844, Attn. UWC Membership, Boulder CO 80308-1844.

We encourage you to consider including an additional scholarship fund donation with your membership dues (which include a small $5 donation) and increasing your check amount accordingly. If you have questions regarding your UWC Membership please email Karen Neff, UWC Membership Chair, at uwcmembershipchair@gmail.com.

Please see the Membership Form on page 13.

Margaret Willard Award

The University Women's Club presents the Margaret Willard Award annually at the spring Honors Reception. The woman receiving the award must fulfill some or all of the following criteria:

- Demonstrate outstanding work in her field of endeavor
- Enhance the quality of life for women on the Boulder campus and/or in the Boulder community
- Be an exceptional role model
- Elevate women's performance
- Bring honor to all women and to the University/Boulder community through her accomplishments

All our honorees are exemplary role models who exercise initiative in their endeavors and in doing so bring honor to all women and to our University. Please submit a nomination (form on page 15 and also on the UWC website) by March 1, 2018. Please contact Patty Ludke with questions (pattycake.21@juno.com).

Scholarship Donations

Many THANKS to all of you who donated to the Scholarship Fund by making a special contribution to accompany your membership dues after our Membership Tea, and before the end of September. The list below includes those who donated in addition to the $5 included in the dues. The list also includes those who donated along with the Lecture Luncheon check(s). You are the best!

Tell Me More—about Book Recommendations from our UWC Book Groups

A couple of years ago we published a list of books recommended by some of our book groups. We've been asked for a reprise. Following are some favorite fictional works recommended by our groups from last year's selections. Next month we'll publish some non-fiction selections. See the May 2015 issue of MESSAGES for the previous list. Remarks come mostly from the Boulder Public Library Catalog.

A Spool of Blue Thread by Anne Tyler

Here are four generations of Whitshanks. Brimming with all the insight, humor, and generosity of spirit that are the hallmarks of Anne Tyler's work, A Spool of Blue Thread tells a poignant yet unsentimental story in praise of family in all its emotional complexity.

Brave New World by Aldous Huxley

Huxley's story shows a futuristic World State where all emotion, love, art, and human individuality have been replaced by social stability. An ominous warning to the world's population, this literary classic makes us think.

Flight Behavior by Barbara Kingsolver

Kingsolver's riveting story concerns a young wife and mother on a failing farm in rural Tennessee who experiences something she cannot explain, and how her discovery energizes various competing factions--religious leaders, climate scientists, environmentalists, politicians--trapping her in the center of the conflict and ultimately opening up her world.

Homegoing by Yaa Gyasi

Homegoing begins with the story of two half-sisters, separated by forces beyond their control: one sold into slavery, the other married to a British slaver. It traces the generations of family who follow, as their destinies lead them through two continents and three hundred years of history, as the legacy of slavery is fully revealed in light of the present day.

Indian Summer by William Dean Howells

Written in 1886, this is one of the most charming and memorable romantic comedies in American literature. It tells of a season in the life of three gifted and well-meaning people against the backdrop of Florence. The brilliance of their repartee, and the accumulating burden of their mutual misunderstandings make for a comedy of errors that is as winning as it is wise.

Me Before You by JoJo Moyes

A woman takes a badly needed job working for ex-Master of the Universe Will Traynor, who is wheelchair bound after an accident. Will is acerbic, moody, bossy--but soon his happiness means more to Lou than she expected. When she learns that Will has shocking plans of his own, she sets out to show him that life is still worth living.

Pompeii by Robert Harris

When the aqueduct that brings fresh water to thousands of people around the bay of Naples fails, Roman engineer Marius Primus heads to the slopes of Mount Vesuvius to investigate, only to come face to face with an impending catastrophe.

The Amazing Adventures of Kavalier and Clay by Michael Chabon

The tragicomic adventures of a couple of boy geniuses reveal much about what happened to America in the middle of the twentieth century. This is a superb novel with epic sweep, spanning continents and eras.

The Handmaid's Tale by Margaret Atwood

Set in the near future, this describes a monotheocracy that has reacted to social unrest and a sharply declining birthrate by reverting to, and going beyond, the repressive intolerance of the original Puritans. Funny, unexpected, horrifying, and altogether convincing.

The Storied Life of A J Fikry: A Novel by Gabrielle Zevin

This novel has humor, romance, a touch of suspense, but most of all love--love of books and bookish people and, really, all of humanity in its imperfect glory.

Spring Scholarship Luncheon - April 17, 2018

Circle your calendars on April 17, 2018 for the Annual Spring Scholarship Luncheon to be held at the Boulder Country Club. This is a great opportunity to celebrate the 2018 scholarship winners and to hear personal accounts of their heart-warming journeys through challenges to achievements.

We'll also enjoy a delicious lunch as we converse with old and new friends. The culmination of this popular event is a fashion show presented by a local retailer. Be sure to watch future UWC MESSAGES for more detailed information regarding this much anticipated event.

Opera Brunch - March 18, 2018

The Demon Barber of Fleet Street pays a visit to CU Boulder for the first time ever. Save the date March 18, 2018, for the Opera Brunch and opera.

Stephen Sondheim's wildly popular opera/musical Sweeney Todd transports audiences to Victorian London, where a long-exiled haircutter and a struggling baker conspire for revenge ... and delicious meat pies.

This story of obsession comes to us from urban legend via the Victorian popular fiction known as "penny dreadfuls".

Reservation forms and more information will be available in forthcoming MESSAGES. Contact: Kathryn Terrill (303-530-9438).

UWC Nominations for 2017-18

This year's Nominating Committee is chaired by Carrol Kalafus and consists of Carrol, Janet Evans, Arlene Gerwin, Lois Linsky, and Virginia Stringi. The committee's task is to select nominees for President-elect, Secretary-elect, and Treasurer-elect for the program year 2018-19.

By directive of the UWC Constitution, the UWC Executive Board consists of the president, the president-elect, secretary, secretary-elect, treasurer, treasurer-elect, the chairs of each of the UWC committees, and the outgoing president. The "elect" positions move into the position proper the year after they were voted into the elect position.

If you would like to be considered for a UWC Board position, please contact Carrol (carrol.kalafus@colorado.edu).

UWC Website

In case you have not yet "visited," you may want to become familiar with the University Women's Club website. It is boulderuwc.org

Current and past issues of MESSAGES can be found there, plus details about our interest groups, registration forms, a form to nominate a Margaret Willard Award recipient, details of our 2017-18 Lecture Luncheons, a list of our current UWC Board members, and many fine photos of our members in action!

Also, under "Registration Forms & More" you will find the booklet made for our 75th Anniversary called "From year to year." (Be patient after clicking on it as it takes a minute to appear.) The booklet is a 44-page document full of interesting history of the club from 1919 to 1994. More of UWC's History can be found under "About Us".

Dr. Lon Abbott Lecture Dinner—October 10, 2017

On Tuesday October 10, 2017, the first Lecture Event (a dinner) was held in the Glenn Miller Ballroom at UMC. The room was filled with about 130 guests who came to listen to the talk about “A Brief Geological History of Colorado: How Did the Flatirons Form?”. The history started many millions of years ago when Colorado had a beach! The transformation of what we now know as continents underwent many phases of being under water, being connected as land masses, and finally being what we know as them today.
