President's Message

What a beautiful Fall season we've been enjoying! The New Member Coffee in September was delightful, and it was great fun to meet new friends and to renew old acquaintances. We were inspired by the appearance of UWC Scholarship recipient, Julianne Bourgeois, who expressed gratitude for the assistance our organization has given to her. Nancy Liggett had representatives from the UWC Interest Groups stationed at tables to answer questions and recruit new participants. Membership dues, contributions to the Scholarship Fund, and reservations for our Lecture Events were also collected.

According to Membership Chair, Virginia Stringi, we currently have 214 members registered, of whom 21 are new this year. We're also off to a good start with approximately $6,000 in donations to our Scholarship Fund.

I very much look forward to seeing many of you at our first Lecture Event, held in the Glenn Miller Ballroom on October 18 at 5:30 p.m. Our speaker, Dr. Huntington Potter, will discuss Alzheimer's Disease, which has touched the lives of so many people. He will explain the current status of research, the potential for new ways of diagnosing the disease, and the possibility of new drug treatments. In addition, he will be accompanied by members of his staff who will assist in sharing information regarding the Anschutz Medical Campus and the resources available for both patients and family members affected by Alzheimer's Disease.

Our November Lecture Luncheon will be held on Tuesday, November 1, 2016, at 11:30 a.m. in UMC Room 235. Our speaker that day will be Rick George, CU's Athletic Director. It is unusual to have two Lecture events so close together; however, we have done the best we could to accommodate the constraints of CU venues' availabilities.

Our capable Board of Directors has met three times to date, and each person is shouldering her part of the responsibility that is necessary to keep our organization running smoothly.

At this time, the Nominating Committee is finalizing its recommendations for the 2017-2018 "elect" positions (President-elect, Secretary-elect, and Treasurer-elect) who will actively serve in office during 2018-2019. The names of the nominees and the date of the election will be published in a future issue of MESSAGES.

Continue to enjoy the Fall season!

Janet Brewer, President UWC.

Parking Issues

Please note that the Euclid parking garage is closed for parking until mid-January due to construction. There will be paid parking in lot #204 across Euclid Street, but this lot is much smaller.

Car pooling or public transportation are recommended options. See page 10 for bus information.

Scholarship Donation Recognition

We just want to remind everyone that if you have donated to the Scholarship Fund your name tag will have a little mortarboard and scroll icon on it as our way of thanking you for your contribution. The stamp is the same for everyone who donates, with no distinction for amounts.

Here are a few more comments we've heard from you regarding contributions:

- "I've always told my children it's better to give than to receive. I have to live it for myself."
- "I remember how important a few extra dollars were for me when I was trying to get through my undergraduate studies. I'm happy to help."
- "I'm just so impressed by the caliber of students to whom we give our scholarship funds!"

Scholarship Committee

"Bookies" and Bikers Step Up for Scholarship Fund

Both the Wednesday Morning Book Group, headed by Kathy Randall, and the Thursday Bike Group, led by Mary Greenwald and Gail Smith, have each had 90% of their members contribute to the Scholarship Fund so far this year! Yeah! We are certainly hoping this is a trend that other groups want to emulate! We are not counting money collected in this effort. We are counting percentage of donors! Very simply we would like for each interest group to see if they can match these efforts.

Please remember that one of the Scholarship Committee's goals this year is to get as many members to contribute as possible. Only half of our 350 members have contributed for the past two years. Only fifty percent? We can do better!

Any amount will be gratefully and graciously accepted! It doesn't have to be a large amount because together we are powerful and can help change more lives by giving our scholars a second chance. And all the money you share is awarded directly to CU in our students' names for their tuition next fall.

It's hard at this point in the year to determine exact numbers regarding contributions because we are getting contributions and membership dues every day, but we can say we know we are definitely ahead of last year's sharing both with number of members who have contributed and total amount that has been contributed. Hope to have more specifics to share at the first lecture dinner.

Congratulations to the Bookies and the Bikers for stepping up and helping to change our students' lives! Thank you so much!

Becky Palmer, Scholarship Chair

Tell Me More—About Deborah Jin

UWC joins her family and the scientific community in mourning the loss of physicist Deborah Jin, who died of cancer on September 15, 2016. Dr. Jin, who is the daughter of UWC member Shirley Jin, was our Lecture Luncheon speaker on October 8, 2013, entertaining and educating us with the topic “Fun With Ultracold Atoms.”

Dr. Jin was considered a world leader in the exotic states of matter called ultracold quantum gases. Professor Deborah Jin and her team invented an ingenious method of cooling molecules down to near absolute zero, the lowest possible temperature, which has the effect of slowing the molecules down. In fact, they slow down enough for researchers to actually see what goes on during chemical reactions. The study of ultracold molecules could lead to new precision-measurement tools, new methods for quantum computing and help us better understand materials that are essential to technology.

Dr. Jin received her undergraduate degree in physics from Princeton University before earning her doctorate from the University of Chicago. She was a 20 year employee of the National Institute of Standards and Technology (NIST) and JILA, a joint institute of NIST and CU, where she was an adjunct professor.

Dr. Jin was the recipient of numerous awards, including the 2013 “For Women in Science” award presented by the L’Oreal Foundation and UNESCO, Benjamin Franklin Medal in Physics, the Isaac Newton Medal of Institute of Physics, the Comstock Prize in Physics, and a MacArthur Fellowship genius award with a no-strings-attached grant of $500,000. In 2005 she became the youngest woman ever elected to the National Academy of Sciences, and this past year was mentioned as a potential candidate for the Nobel Prize in physics (which cannot be awarded posthumously).

William Phillips, an NIST colleague stated, “Debbie, quite simply, changed cold atom physics in wonderful and lasting ways whose importance cannot be overstated. Her pioneering of degenerate Fermi gases, paired Fermi condensates, the observation of the BCS-BEC crossover, and so much more, enriched the field and all of us.” (See <https://www.aps.org/publications/apsnews/updates/jin.cfm>.)

Tom O’Brian, her NIST supervisor stated, “Debbie was an incredible scientist, outstanding mentor, valued friend, and loving spouse and mother. Her passing leaves a void at JILA, in the worldwide scientific community, and in the hearts of her family and friends that cannot be filled. Our deepest sympathies and thoughts are with Debbie’s family, and her friends and colleagues at JILA and across the world.” (See: <https://www.nist.gov/news-events/news/2016/09/prominent-nist-and-jila-physicist-deborah-jin-passes-away>.)

CU Boulder Chancellor Philip DiStefano said, “Deborah Jin was the definition of world-class faculty. The international scientific community has lost a giant, and our campus has lost a mentor to young scientists and an inspiration to female scientists. She will be deeply missed in many quarters. Our thoughts and prayers go out to her family.”

UWC extends its deepest sympathies to member Shirley Jin and the rest of Deborah Jin’s family.

Mark your calendars on April 18, 2017 for the Annual Spring Scholarship Luncheon to be held at the Boulder Country Club.

This is our opportunity to celebrate the 2017 scholarship winners and to hear personal accounts of their heartwarming journeys from challenges to achievements.

We'll also enjoy a sumptuous meal and enjoy lively conversation with old and new friends. The culmination of this popular event is a fashion show presented by Changes in Latitude.

Opera Brunch - Coming in March 2016

Save the date March 19, 2017, for the Opera Brunch and opera: Mozart's amusing and tender The Magic Flute.

Brunch will begin at 11:30 a.m. at the University Memorial Center followed by the opera at 2 p.m. in Macky Auditorium.

This opera allegorically portrays the education of mankind from chaos (Serpent) through colorful and fantastical characters, representing an evolution from religious superstition (Queen) to rational enlightenment (Sarasto) by trial and error (Papageno and Tamino).

Reservation forms and more information will be available in forthcoming MESSAGES.

Interest Groups News

New Book Group forming: Book Group - Classics (“The Hot 100”)

Back in the ‘90s the Modern Library ranked the “20th-century’s great English-language novels in order of greatness.” Familiar names such as Henry James, Graham Greene, and Vladimir Nabokov were included, as well as some less familiar names: Max Beerbohm, Lawrence Durrell, and Nathanael West.

I wonder whether anyone might be interested in reading some of the “Hot 100”, one per month that we would choose from the list. I think the books would make for interesting discussion, starting from why they were chosen and what makes them great.

If you are interested, please contact Ruth Fowler, fowlerrk44@gmail.com or 724-433-8099.

Theater Goers Group

Theater Goers began their 2016/17 season with two events. In September we visited the new Dairy Center for Performing Arts and saw RIPCORD presented by the BETC. In October we attended MOMIX, a CU Presents event at the Macky Auditorium. This performance had an outstanding pre-show talk.

On November 20 2:00 p.m., we are looking forward to seeing TUESDAYS WITH MORRIE at the Longmont Theater.

An old man and a young man share life’s greatest lessons. In the twilight of his life, Morrie Schwartz is contacted by a former student, Mitch Albom. Their rekindled relationship turns into one final class: lessons in how to live. Based on the true story and best-selling memoir, this stage adaptation is a magical chronicle of their time together and the gentle, irrevocable impact of their Tuesday sessions.

We welcome new members to join us for this occasion. Contact Gail Moyes (303-786-9142) to get on our mailing list.

Consider Taking the Bus

Unless you are carpooling and sharing the cost of parking, it may be more cost effective to take the bus. Several bus routes, including the SKIP, the 204, and the DASH, stop on Broadway very close to the University Memorial Center (UMC). Other buses, including the STAMPEDE and the HOP, stop on 18th Street just behind UMC.

You can figure out the best route from your house by using the RTD Trip Planner

<http://www.rtd-denver.com/GoogleTripPlanner.shtml>. You enter the address from which you are starting (your house), enter the address at which you want to end (Broadway and Euclid Ave, Boulder) and the time at which you want to arrive. Click “Plan Your Trip” and RTD will figure out your choice of routes, including any transfers you have to make.

Some bus stops have shelters, many bus stops have benches, and all bus stops are marked by a red and white sign that lists all routes that stop at that location.

If there is no easy bus route from your house, you can start at a Park and Ride or plan some shopping at the 29th Street Mall before or after the UWC event and park there. The HOP is an easy ride from the mall and runs about every 10 minutes. Catch the clockwise bus on 29th Street just across from Macy’s entrance. It will take you to 18th Street behind UMC. When you return, take the counter-clockwise bus from the east side of 18th Street. The HOP goes in a loop, so either direction will get you there, but it is a shorter route on the south side of the loop.

The one-way fare on the bus is $2.60 but for Seniors it is only $1.30. You need to pay with the exact amount or use a ticket from a 10 ride booklet, which you buy at the bus station ($23.50 regular; $11.75

Senior). If you are riding 2 different buses, be sure to ask for a transfer, which you show the driver on the second bus. If you are lucky enough to have an EcoPass, you ride for free.
