

October Lecture DINNER
October 18, 2016 5:30 p.m.
In the Glenn Miller Ballroom

Alzheimer's Disease: Pursuing the Cure at CU/Anschutz
Speaker: Huntington Potter PhD

Join us for an evening lecture with Huntington Potter PhD. The doors open at 5:30 p.m. at the Glenn Miller Ballroom. There will be a cash bar in addition to dinner. We are hoping you will bring a guest.

Dr. Huntington Potter is Professor of Neurology and the Director of the Rocky Mountain Alzheimer's Disease Center at the University of Colorado Anschutz Medical Center. He recently joined CU after studying, researching, and teaching for 30 years at Harvard University. Dr. Potter has authored over 100 scientific articles and books and has received numerous awards for his work, with a special emphasis on the relationship between Alzheimer's disease (AD) and Down's syndrome.

During his lecture, Dr. Potter will address the current status of AD research, the potential for new ways of diagnosing the disease, and the possibility of new drug treatments. He will also discuss the comprehensive Alzheimer's disease center being developed on the Anschutz Medical Campus and the available resources for both patients and family members affected by this devastating disease.

The new AD center is the only one in Colorado serving a 1,000-mile radius of Denver, including the Boulder community.

President's Message

Janet Brewer

As you read this edition of MESSAGES, the University Women's Club has recently enjoyed (or will do so soon) our Fall Membership Coffee. I wish to thank everyone who helped to plan and implement this occasion.

Many of you have paid your dues, made scholarship donations, and have investigated our varied interest groups. If you have not already done so, please pay your dues soon (send them to UWC Membership, PO Box 18844, Boulder, CO 80308-1844) for inclusion of your name and contact information in the Directory. Payment of dues is also required for participation in our interest groups. Scholarship donations are welcome at any time!

This year's lectures promise to be excellent. Please note that there are two changes to our normal scheduling of these events: The first lecture will be held on Tuesday, October 18, in the UMC Glen Miller Ballroom beginning at 5:30 p.m. (Yes, it's a dinner, not a luncheon!). There will be a cash bar available that evening. We also have had to move our November luncheon to Tuesday, November 1, due to scheduling conflicts with the University. The November 1st Lecture Luncheon will be at 11:30 a.m. in UMC Room 235.

We have also had changes to the composition of the Board. Unfortunately, Phylliss Stenger and Dr. Patricia Meinhardt have submitted resignations due to unforeseen scheduling conflicts. Both did considerable work in fulfilling their responsibilities to date – Phylliss as Opera Brunch Chair, and Patricia as Program Co-chair – and we thank them. Going forward Julianne Cassady will assume the position of Opera Brunch Chair, and Mary Huffman will take on sole responsibility as Program Chair.

The University Women's Club is administered by a multi-talented Board of Directors, all of whom volunteer their time and skills. As was described in the September issue of MESSAGES, three of the positions are elected (president, secretary, and treasurer) while the majority of the Board is recruited and appointed by the president from year to year.

The continued vitality of UWC depends upon the willingness of qualified individuals to step up to the plate and serve. In an organization as large as ours, it is tempting to assume that "someone else" will do the job. Please do not succumb to this philosophy! The nominating committee is currently seeking candidates for next year's elective positions. There is more detailed information in an accompanying brief article in this month's issue of MESSAGES. See page 4.

Welcome back! We eagerly anticipate a full and fulfilling year of activity and friendship.

Parking Issues

Parking at CU this year is going to be a challenge. The University is planning to work on the Euclid Parking Structure. What does this mean to you? The $43 million construction work was supposed to start in August and was supposed to last through January 1, 2017, but for anyone who has endured a remodel in their home, you know that deadlines are just a target which can move.

We will make every attempt to update you to the progress on the campus construction, but plan for extra time and be forewarned. While Euclid is under construction, there will be alternative parking in lot #204 adjacent to the current parking structure. Also the street meters will be available, but they are limited to two hours.

We always recommend carpooling as a way to attend our events on campus.

We also recommend taking the bus. RTD has a very reliable transit system, with several routes that will bring you to, or near to, the UMC. Please see page 7 for more details on the buses.

Mary Huffman

Scholarship Chair's Message

Be A Part of Our Proud UWC Heritage

It is so great to be part of the proud traditions of University Women's Club!

Over the course of 35 years we have provided $229,000 to give a second chance to our scholarship winners who might otherwise have never received a college degree. Right now our five winners for this year are attending classes this semester using the $24,000 we gave them last spring! I hope you were among the people at the awards luncheon so that you were able to hear their stories and meet them!

Many of you have had the privilege and challenge of raising your own children. You know we can easily get lost in the minutiae of getting their shoes tied, their teeth brushed and their lunches made from day to day, but lose sight sometimes of our ultimate goals. That is a little like UWC. We are here to have lots of fun with our friends and make new ones, but we have an opportunity to do more. Our scholars have each had a major road block appear on their way to a formal education. One of our main goals is to give our scholars a second chance at a college degree. To that end we need to refocus ourselves.

WE NEED FOR EVERY MEMBER TO DONATE SOMETHING TO THE SCHOLARSHIP FUND NOW MORE THAN EVER.

Brooks Christensen, aspiring physicist, almost a concert master pianist, and one of our winners this spring, reminded us that with great power comes great responsibility. Women of this era have had so many more opportunities and rewards than our predecessors. Please be a part of our proud UWC tradition and share your good fortune with our students. Together we are so powerful!

Membership Dues

$30 annual dues are due now. Please send your dues in asap so that we can include you in the Directory and so you will not be removed from our mailing list. Checks made out to UWC can be sent to P.O. Box 18844, Attn. Membership, Boulder CO 80308-1844.

We encourage you to consider including your scholarship fund donation and increase your check amount accordingly. Dues can also be paid at the Membership Coffee on Tuesday, September 20 at 9:30 a.m. at UMC Room 235. If you have questions regarding your UWC Membership please email Virginia Stringi, UWC Membership Chair at uwcmembershipchair@gmail.com. Please see the Membership Form on page 12.

UWC Nominations for 2017-18

This year's Nominating Committee is comprised of Kathy Randall (chair), Frieda Holley, and Mary Greenwald. The committee's task is to select nominees for President-elect, Secretary-elect, and Treasurer-elect for the program year 2017-18.

If you would like to be considered for one of these positions, or would like to suggest someone for one of the positions, please contact any of the committee members (katherineran@gmail.com, holleyf@msudenver.edu, m.b.greenwald@comcast.net) by the end of September.

Tell Me More—About Boulder Bees

At last March's Lecture Luncheon, Dr Alexandra Rose introduced us to fascinating facts about bees, of which there are almost 1000 species in the Boulder area, and to The Bees' Needs, a citizen science project focusing on our native bees and wasps. She emphasized the importance of bees as indispensable pollinators and protectors of the ecosystem and the danger of their decline.

September has been Pollinator Appreciation Month, but it is not too late to celebrate: The Bee Boulder Festival takes place on Saturday, September 24 from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. at Central Park. This will be a family affair with lots of activities and entertainment for the grandkids as well as an educational component a propos of the beauty and importance of pollinators and how we can all support and protect them.

As individuals there are several simple steps we can take to help the bees, even if we are not involved in Dr Rose's study:

Provide pollen and nectar for food. Native plants are best for this as they coevolved with the native bees. See information about native pollinators and native plants here: <https://www-static.bouldercolorado.gov/docs/native-pollinators-native-plants-1-201407021611.pdf> and a list of native plants here: <https://www-static.bouldercolorado.gov/docs/native-plant-list-1-201407021645.pdf>

Ensure bees have nesting sites. Pollinator bees mostly nest alone in holes, sandy ground, brush piles, logs, twigs. Reduce mulching, mowing or tilling uncultivated areas.

Avoid insecticides and herbicides, especially those containing neonicotinoids. These systemic insecticides are taken into the vascular systems of plants so that they are poisonous for bees long after they have been applied. When purchasing plants, ask if they have been treated with neonicotinoids. See a list of neonicotinoids here: <http://www.xerces.org/wings-magazine/neonicotinoids-in-your-garden/>

The CU Museum of Natural History, at which Dr Rose is the Citizen Science Coordinator, houses a collection of approximately 600,000 insects and arachnids. Bees (hymenoptera) are one of the strengths of the collection. Visit the museum on campus any day except University holidays.

Spring Scholarship Luncheon - April 18, 2017

Circle your calendars on April 18, 2017 for the Annual Spring Scholarship Luncheon to be held at the Boulder Country Club.

This is a great opportunity to celebrate the 2017 scholarship winners and to hear personal accounts of their heart-warming journeys through challenges to achievements. We'll also enjoy a delicious lunch as we converse with old and new friends. The culmination of this popular event is a fashion show presented by a local retailer.

Be sure to watch future UWC MESSAGES for more detailed information regarding this much anticipated springtime affair.

Opera Brunch - Coming in March 2016

Save the date March 19, 2017, for the Opera Brunch and opera: Mozart's amusing and tender The Magic Flute.

This opera allegorically portrays the education of mankind from chaos (Serpent) through colorful and fantastical characters, representing an evolution from religious superstition (Queen) to rational enlightenment (Sarasto) by trial and error (Papageno and Tamino).

Reservation forms and more information will be available in forthcoming MESSAGES.

Interest Group News

The Music Group celebrated the 90th birthday of one of their own, Jane Byers, at their September gathering.

Congratulations Jane!

Scholarship Donation Recognition

Any member who donates to the scholarship fund will find a black and gold mortar board and scroll on her name tag. We want everyone to know that you care about our scholarship winners and want to be a part of our proud UWC tradition of giving carefully chosen and deserving scholars a second chance.

At our luncheons we will be providing a minute or two for anyone at the table who has a mortar board on her name tag to tell why she contributed. Here are some thoughts from members that may resonate with your own thinking:

- “Someone helped me when I had nothing. I want to give back.”
- “I am so touched by the stories I hear every year that I feel compelled to help these students.”
- “I love this organization and am really proud to continue its traditions as much as I possibly can.”

Parking Options for UMC

Consider Taking the Bus

Unless you are carpooling and sharing the cost of parking, it may be more cost effective to take the bus. Several bus routes, including the SKIP, the 204, and the DASH, stop on Broadway very close to the University Memorial Center (UMC). Other buses, including the STAMPEDE and the HOP, stop on 18th Street just behind UMC.

You can figure out the best route from your house by using the RTD Trip Planner <http://www.rtd-denver.com/GoogleTripPlanner.shtml>. You enter the address from which you are starting (your house), enter the address at which you want to end (Broadway and Euclid Ave, Boulder) and the time at which you want to arrive. Click “Plan Your Trip” and RTD will figure out your choice of routes including any transfers you have to make. Some bus stops have shelters, many bus stops have benches, and all bus stops are marked by a red and white sign that lists all routes that stop at that location.

If there is no easy bus route from your house, you can start at a Park and Ride or plan some shopping at the 29th Street Mall before or after the UWC event and park there. The HOP is an easy ride from the mall and runs about every 10 minutes. Catch the clockwise bus on 29th Street just across from Macy’s entrance. It will take you to 18th Street behind UMC. When you return, take the counter-clockwise bus from the east side of 18th Street. The HOP goes in a loop, so either direction will get you there, but it is a shorter route on the south side of the loop.

The one-way fare on the bus is $2.60 but for Seniors it is only $1.30. You need to pay with the exact amount or use a ticket from a 10 ride booklet which you buy at the bus station ($23.50 regular; $11.75 Senior). If you are riding 2 different buses, be sure to ask for a transfer, which you show the driver on the second bus. If you are lucky enough to have an EcoPass, you ride for free.

If you are still a little nervous about riding the bus, see RTD’s six steps for “How To Ride Bus” here: <http://www.rtd-denver.com/HowToRideBus.shtml> or find Kathy Randall at a UWC event and ask her for the scoop. She rides the bus a lot.

Special Accomplishments—Caryl Kasso

Dairy Center Honors

On September 10, the Boulder community saluted individuals whose lifetime commitment to the arts has made a major contribution to life in Boulder. Modeled after the popular Kennedy Center Honors, each Honoree was honored with a surprise live performance.

The Dairy Center 2016 class of Honorees were: Ami Dayan, Sally Elliott, Thomas Morgan, Noel Hefty, David Fulker, and Caryl Kasso .

Caryl received the “Humanitarian and Arts Supporter” award. According to the article in the Daily Camera:

“Kasso has been supporting local music for decades. She served on the then-American Symphony Orchestra League and is currently chair of CU's American Music Research Center's advisory board. She has also been highly involved with the Colorado Music Festival and Center for Musical Arts, has hosted dozens of visiting artists in her home and started the Young People's Concert for kids.

Her list of work as an art activist goes on. She was also a member of the original committee that investigated turning the Watts-Hardy Dairy into an arts center back in 1991.”

Caryl was the UWC President in 1995-96, a recipient of the President's Award in 1999-2000, and a Margaret Willard award recipient in 2005-06. She has been a member of the UWC since 1969.

Margaret Willard Award

Margaret Willard began her career at CU as an English instructor, wife of an history professor, and became the first president of the Faculty Wives' Club, which has evolved into a more encompassing group, our University Women's Club. Though the original group liked to chat and sip tea, they grew in involvement in philanthropic matters.

By 1957, the group added fund-raising and expanded the philanthropic work by providing financial loans for women, to help them to continue their education. In 1982 the UWC began to give scholarships to nontraditional females. We continue this tradition and recently have included men for scholarship consideration. Since 1993, the UWC has presented the Margaret Willard to a woman or women who have exemplified the traits of our predecessors, and in doing so honor all women.

The University Women's Club presents the Margaret Willard Award annually at the spring Honors Reception. The woman receiving the award must fulfill some or all of the following criteria:

- Demonstrate outstanding work in her field of endeavor
- Enhance the quality of life for women on the Boulder campus and/or in the Boulder community
- Be an exceptional role model
- Elevate women's performance
- Bring honor to all women and to the University/Boulder community through her accomplishments

All our honorees are exemplary role models who exercise initiative in their endeavors and in doing so bring honor to all women and to our University.

Please submit a nomination (form on page 14) by March 1. Please ask for assistance, if you like.
