President's Message

*Rosemary Getsie,
2011-12 President*

"Membership has its privileges." If this statement is true of a credit card, it is certainly true of membership in the University Women's Club! The privileges accorded a UWC member are many and accessed in a number of ways. For instance:

Interest Groups

With 23 Interest Groups, there is literally something for everyone. "Interests" include hiking, needlecrafts, current events, and bridge. The groups meet at various times of the day and are small, large or something in between. You may join as many as your schedule permits. If by chance you can't find one that suits your needs, you may start your own. It only takes five like-minded women to form an interest group.

Lecture Luncheons

Program Chairperson, Jeannie Thompson, has labored well to put together a lineup of impressive speakers for this year's Lecture-Luncheon Series. After a tasty lunch in a venue suited to members and speakers alike, we have the privilege of sharing the specialized knowledge of experts in their fields. The Series of five can be purchased for $90 or individually at $18 each.

Scholarships

It is truly a privilege to be part of a robust scholarship program. Through the generosity of its members, UWC awarded in excess of $11,000 in scholarships last year. This amount is projected to increase this year despite ongoing economic challenges. The unique aspect of our scholarship program is the fact that we have the opportunity to put a face to the name of recipients. Each year the recipients are invited to meet and share their stories with us at the Annual Scholarship Luncheon. These exceptional individuals eagerly accept our invitation and inspire us with their resilience, passion, ambition, and talent.

In all that we do at the UWC, we hold true to the values and mission of the organization established 93 years ago. We are committed to providing our members with friendship, hospitality, and support of the university. Please join your long-standing, new and about-to-be new friends at the Membership Coffee on September 13. I promise that this will be a great way to learn about the privileges of UWC membership and have a delicious breakfast as well!

About Payments...from Jeannie Thompson

Could we make a few requests related to Membership payments and those for the Lecture Luncheons:

- Member checks for both Membership and Lecture Luncheon submissions will be sent to the UWC US PO Box this year. Because several people access this mailbox to retrieve mail, please MAKE SURE that we know WHAT your money is FOR so that the checks go only to the person responsible for those areas. Notation on both the outside of the envelope and on the checks themselves would be most effective. Envelope examples: "Attention: Membership" or "Attention: Lecture Luncheon."
- Timely payment for Lecture Luncheons— As in the past, please make sure to send in your Lecture Luncheon payments so that they arrive in our mailbox at least 7 days prior to the event specified. We need to be able to notify the caterers in a timely fashion, and, more importantly, we don't want to turn members away.
- Membership Coffee We look forward to seeing everyone at the free coffee which will be in the UMC Aspen Rooms the morning of September 13 at 9:30 a.m.

About Sponsorship Ads...from GeorgiAnne Campbell

Placing a Sponsorship Ad in the UWC Handbook/Directory is a very beneficial way for UWC members who own a business and/or would like to promote any business to make a donation to the club, receive recognition for the donation, and receive advertising in the directory. Also, sponsorship is not limited to just members, but is open to any business or organization that would like to advertise in the directory. There are $100 and $50 levels for placing ads in the UWC Handbook/Directory. At the $100 level, a half page ad is placed; at the $50 level, a quarter page ad is placed. Both levels receive mention in the UWC newsletter, MESSAGES.

So, if you or someone you know would like to participate, contact GeorgiAnne Campbell (303-499-2798; campbellgeorgie@yahoo.com). All Sponsorship Ad donations go toward raising funds for scholarships at the University of Colorado at Boulder. Submit your Sponsorship Ad information by October 15, 2011.

Sneak Previews of Upcoming Lecture Luncheons

Please join us for this year's great line up of speakers. The price of the luncheons remains the same as last year at $18; reserve the whole series for $90. Mail checks to UWC Attention: Lecture Luncheon, PO Box 18844, Boulder, CO 80308-1844. Please notate "Lecture Luncheon" on your check. Contact Virginia (303-955-1860; vstringi@comcast.net) with questions.

(Reservations and payment due November 1)

There is benefit in tailoring medicine to each gender. As an example, women suffering from heart attacks might have different, and sometimes milder, symptoms than men. One of the preeminent researchers on the Boulder campus, sponsored by the Howard Hughes Medical Institute (HHMI), Leslie will entertainingly describe her fascinating findings. If we're lucky, we may hear a bit about her work with pythons in relation to human cardiac therapeutics.

Leslie Leinwand is a CU Professor in the MCD Biology department.

December

Islam as a Media Spectacle

Nabil Echchaibi

Tuesday, December 13, 2011, 11:30 a.m.

University Memorial Center, Room 235

(Reservations and payment due December 6)

Have the media compounded a minor conflict with the debate around the building of a Muslim community center in lower Manhattan, or have they simply chronicled a rampant fear of Islam and Muslims in American society? How can we have a sensible and constructive conversation about the place of Muslims in America? Nabil is a scholar doing important and very interesting work.

Nabil Echchaibi is a CU Assistant Professor in the Journalism & Mass Communication Graduate School.

February

Kids, Cartoons and Cookie Consumption

Meg Campbell

Tuesday, February 14, 2012, 11:30 a.m.

University Memorial Center, Room 235

(Reservations and payment due February 7)

As written on the web in HealthDay: Seeing overweight people can cause you to choose unhealthy foods and to eat more of them unless you consciously focus on your health goals. Images of overweight people can affect the eating habits of children and can also thwart a diet, according to Meg's research. Through her work with children and adults, Meg delves into the psychological aspects of our relationship with food.

Meg Campbell is Associate Professor of Marketing in Leeds School of Business.

March

Through Soviet Jewish Eyes—Photography, War and the Holocaust

David Shneer

Tuesday, March 13, 2012, 11:30 a.m.

University Memorial Center, Room 235

(Reservations and payment due March 6)

David passionately tells the stories and highlights the work of an elite group of Soviet-Jewish photographers—never-before-published photographs from families, collectors, and private archives. These artists participated in a social project they believed in and with which they were emotionally and intellectually invested—they were charged by the Stalinist state to tell the visual story of the unprecedented horror we now call the Holocaust. Books for purchase and signing will be available.

David Shneer is a CU Associate Professor of History.

I RODE
THE BUS!

Do you love UWC events but hate the hassle of parking? Try taking the bus! It is easy and convenient once you know how, so here's the drill.

General Info about Riding the Bus

Bus stops are marked with a red sign that says "The Ride". You don't need to flag the bus down, just stand there looking like you are waiting for a bus.

It costs $2.25 for each trip if you are under age 65; $1.10 if you are 65 or older. You must have the correct fare as the bus driver cannot give you any change. You put your money into the fare collection box by the driver. If your trip is going to take more than one bus, you ask the driver for a transfer. When you get on the second bus, show the driver your transfer.

As you approach the stop where you want to get off, pull the cord above you or press the strip on a vertical support. This will produce a red sign at the front of the bus which says "Stop Requested".

What Bus Route to Take

If you are within walking distance of a bus route, you can go directly from home but don't give up if you're too far away. You can park your car in a free parking lot, and take the bus from there.

From anywhere in North Boulder near Broadway:

Park at Broadway and Quince in the lot by Lucky's Market. Walk out to Broadway, cross the street and look for the bus shelter with The Ride sign. Wait for the southbound Skip bus. In the middle of the day, the bus runs every 10 minutes. The bus will take you south on Broadway to the corner of Euclid, right across Broadway from the University Memorial Center. Pull the cord after you have passed the stop near College Avenue. On the way home, pull the cord after you pass Poplar Avenue.

From anywhere in South Boulder near Broadway:

Park at Table Mesa Shopping Center. Cross Broadway and look for the bus shelter and The Ride sign. Wait for the northbound Skip bus or Dash bus. In the middle of the day, the Skip runs every 10 minutes. The bus will take you north on Broadway to the corner of Euclid, right across Euclid from the University Memorial Center. Pull the cord after you have passed 17th Street.

From anywhere convenient to 29th Street Mall:

Park in the parking garage. Go to street level at the north end of the mall near Macy's. You will catch the Hop bus. There is a Hop that goes clockwise around the route and one that goes counterclockwise. To get to the University Memorial Center you will want to take the clockwise Hop because it will be quite a bit quicker. For the clockwise route go to the bus stop on the west side of the street very near the store called Black and White. During the middle of the day the bus runs every 7-10 minutes. It will take you along Canyon, Folsom and Colorado to Euclid and will let you off right in front of the University Memorial Center. Pull the cord after you turn the corner onto Euclid. To go back to the mall, catch the counterclockwise Hop on 16th Street (Euclid) on the west side of Broadway.

From your own home:

Use the Trip Planner at the RTD website <http://www.rtd-denver.com/>. Type in your address and the address you want to get to (Broadway and Euclid if you are going to the University Memorial Center) and fill in the rest of the required information. RTD will figure out the best bus route for you.

Membership Coffee

The Membership Coffee is coming up September 13, starting at 9:30 a.m. This is a good opportunity to try the bus and see how easy it is. We'll have some "I rode the bus!" stickers at the coffee so you can show off how ecologically green you are.

Meet Your Board

President: Rosemary Getsie is a retired industrial-organizational psychologist with a Ph.D. from CU. She is a "Boulder retreat," having moved here a second time from Tokyo, Japan. Married to a retired IBM employee, she has made good on the I've Been Moved acronym by living in a number of exotic and not-so-exotic places. She has two adult children, one granddaughter, a cat and a dog. Her interests include reading, playing competitive bridge, and doing anything outdoors. Being a member of UWC feeds her primary life focus, meeting and befriending people.

President-elect/Program Chair: Jeannie Thompson and her husband, Jack, returned in 2002 to Boulder, where they had both been undergraduates. It's been a good decision to come back. Jeannie continued her management and consulting career for a number of years but found that her real interest was in returning to the academic environment where she had spent much of her life and career. She put her energies into volunteer efforts with the University, becoming chair of the CU Foundation board and serving on a number of other school and college boards. Other highlights of her recent 'avocational' time in Boulder have been serving on the search committee that named Bruce Benson President, receiving an Alumni Recognition Award (2007), hiking with the UWC women, and being awarded the Margaret Willard Award (2010). The Thompsons love having their son, daughter-in-law and two "cutest ever" grandkids nearby--Jack, 4 and Bella, 3.

Email Communications: Kathleen Salzberg came to Boulder in 1967 to work at CU Institute of Arctic and Alpine Research. With an academic and work background in geography and school atlas publishing, she was managing editor of the international journal Arctic, Antarctic, and Alpine Research for 33 years until her retirement in 2002. A native of Scotland, she intended Boulder to be a stop off on her world tour, but met her husband Joel, a now-retired CU Denver English professor, in Boulder and settled in the best possible place. Her two Boulder-born children now live in the Northwest and the Northeast, providing opportunities to get back to the ocean and occasionally fit in some sailing. Kathleen has been a member of UWC since 1974 and active in the Evening Book Group; since her retirement has also been active in the Hiking and Winter Sports groups

Spotlight on... Bridge

Formed in September 2009, the Bridge Interest Group began as two groups and added another last year. Each group meets once a month to play Rubber Contract Bridge, the kind encountered in informal settings. Each group has regular members who play almost every month and substitute members who are asked to play when a regular member cannot. For play, tallies are used to determine partners for 3 or 4 rounds, and contract bridge or Chicago bridge scoring is used to determine the winner, who receives a small prize.

All our members, regular and substitute, have experience playing bridge. We have a wonderful blend of players who enjoy playing with other members who may play at another level of experience, and we are always trying to learn from playing. Some members are advanced players who have played bridge for many years. Other members, who played in the past, have found a group to play with again.

In addition to our three bridge groups, when there is interest, we have formed study groups. Our study groups address the level of study desired by the members, intermediate to advanced. Study group members decide when and how often to meet.

At the September Membership Coffee, we hope to learn if there is interest in forming another bridge group and in forming study groups.

Information for our current bridge groups is as follows:

Third Thursday group meets monthly at 10:30 a.m. to approximately 2:00 p.m. at the Eggcredible Café. There are 12 regular members for 3 tables and substitute members.

First Wednesday group meets monthly 1:00-3:00 p.m. at members' homes. There are 8 regular members for 2 tables and substitute members. Hostesses provide light refreshments.

Fourth Tuesday group, added last year, meets monthly 12:30-2:30 p.m. at members' homes. There are 8 regular members for 2 tables and substitute members. Hostesses provide light refreshments.

Bridge Interest Group Organizers are Val Havlick (303-494-0664; havlickv@colorado.edu) and Kay Dayem (303-834-0984; kdayem@colorado.edu).

Get to Know Some of Our New Members!

Joy Michalek

Joy has lived in the Boulder area for 23 years, though her hometown is Scottsbluff, NE and she lived in Chicago for 8 years prior to moving to Boulder. Joy worked at the CU Foundation for 15 years; nine years in the Law School Development Office, then in Central Administration and eventually in the Stewardship Office. She stopped working 8 years ago and enjoys her free time with gardening, cooking, reading, painting, camping, hiking and biking. Joy also enjoys traveling whenever possible.

Congratulations to Ginnie Ross

Long time UWC member Virginia Ross received the President's Award from Kathy Randall at the 2011 UWC Honors Reception in May. This award, bestowed annually, recognizes exemplary contributions to the University Women's Club. The recipient is selected by the current UWC President.

Ginnie Ross has been contributing to the success of the UWC for a remarkable 52 years – as a participant, as an Interest Group chair, and as a member of the UWC Executive Board. Many of our members recognize Ginnie by her ever present camera. From 2007-08 through 2010-11, she recorded UWC accomplishments and activities as UWC Historian. She kept our archives up to date and produced handsome albums for the record and for our enjoyment. Prior to her tenure as Historian, Ginnie served on the board as Publicity Chair.

For many years until 2010, Ginnie chaired the Tea and Travel Group. She arranged travelogue programs giving members a taste – both cultural and gustatory - of the area presented by the traveler. In 2010, along with co-chair Judy Wakefield, Ginnie launched the Needlecraft Group. Since last fall, the group has more than doubled in size and has become a forum for discussion – touching on everything from politics to current theater - as well as a meeting place for working on needlecraft projects and sharing skills. Ginnie's most current project is knitting mini dolls portraying the royal wedding of William and Kate! Ginnie also has participated for decades in the French Conversation Group.

We appreciate all the knowledge, skills and accomplishment Virginia Ross has brought to the University Women's Club.
