MEMBERSHIP TEA - SEPTEMBER

Our year got off to a good start with the annual Welcoming and Membership Tea held at the Koenig Alumni Center on September 24. New members were acquainted with the various activities offered by the Club and encouraged to sign-up to participate. A number of past presidents helped pour tea and punch and greeted the newcomers. The hostesses for the Tea were Mrs. Dayton McKean and Mrs. Leo Riethmayer.

If you know of someone who has not yet had the opportunity to join, please have them contact Mrs. Fred (Marion) Ramirez at 443-7216, or Mrs. Philip Cateora at 499-7659.

APOLOGIES . . . . . !!

This paragraph should be written in RED ink to show our embarrassment in omitting the TRAVEL GROUP from the list of Interest Groups in our invitation to become a member of the Club.

This group is one of the oldest and most popular of the Interest Groups averaging over 50 members. If travel is one of your loves, or if you find you must restrict your travels to those taken from your armchair, this is the place for you! Their well planned and fascinating programs create interest from month to month. For more details contact Mrs. R. S. (Helen) Wasley, 449-2614.

COMING UP IN OCTOBER

The University of Colorado Women's Club will be holding a luncheon at the Flatirons Country Club on Arapahoe Ave. on October 23. There will also be a performance by the Touring Theater of the University of Colorado. Tickets are $3.00. Send your reservations with your check and a self-addressed stamped envelope to Mrs. John (Connie) Macinko at 435 So. 38th St., or call her at 499-9198 for further information.

INVITATION FROM MEDICAL WIVES

On November 12, the C.U. Medical Wives have invited the members of our Club to be their guests at a potluck luncheon to be held in Humphrey's Lounge in the Medical Center. "Genetics & Society" will be the topic discussed by a panel consisting of Dr. Arthur Robinson, Professor of Biophysics & Pediatrics; Rev. Dana Wilbanks, Professor of Ethics at the Iliff School of Theology; and Donald K. Dain, Esq., lawyer.

Details involving transportation to Denver, etc. will be given in the next Newsletter. In the meantime, please call Mrs. S.E. Hodge at (494-2669) (or Mrs. W.A.E. (Peg) Skurnik at 494-2364 on or before October 30 should you plan to attend.

THE PRESIDENT'S HOLIDAY BALL

Don't forget to mark off Sat. evening December 7 on your calendar. That is the night of the President's Holiday Ball. Volunteers to assist with the plans will be welcome. Call Mrs. Dwayne (Janet) Nuzum - 444-5838.

Pancake Breakfast

The University of Colorado Women's Club this month presented a check to Mr. Ralph Ellsworth, head of Nor-lin Library, for the benefit of the library. The $619.03 check represented the profit made from the pancake breakfast sponsored by our club and the Friends of the Library at McDonald's in November. Nancy Cateora and Sue McMillan were chairmen of the event. Thank you's go to Joan Knaub for publicity, Olivia Briggs for posters, Phyllis Darnell and Marilyn Reed for tickets and to those who helped serve -- Gay Barnes, Nancy Cateora, Emma Slater, Sharon Morgan, Sue McMillan, Doris Ostwald, Sue Jordan, Monica Brown,
Mary Jean Willis, Nancy Kraushaar, Harold Walton, Jean Loeffler, Hans & Delores Thurnauer, and John Loeffler. Thanks also to all those who helped support the breakfast and made it such a success.
