UNIVERSITY OF COLORADO
WOMEN'S CLUB - BOULDER

September 1983

With rapid change all around us, some things do remain the same - The University Women's Club annual membership tea, for instance, scheduled for WEDNESDAY, 21 SEPT., 1 to 4 p.m., in KOENIG ALUMNI CENTER.

Another unchanging item: Dues, which remain at $5.00 per year.

The Executive Board and I invite all university affiliated women who are wives of faculty, faculty women or staff women to join our club, and we extend a special welcome to newcomers to the university. We are a service and social organization which proudly presents two scholarships annually as well as financial aid to women students, and we do volunteer work on campus and in the community.

Each month, we provide social and cultural programs for our members, and we also enjoy small group get-togethers via the Special Interest Groups listed in this invitation. New friends can be made and lasting friends continued. Come "look us over" at our membership tea Sept. 21st. The membership form and minimal $5.00 dues will be collected at the tea. Deadline for joining is Oct. 3rd so we may include your name, address and telephone number in our club directory.

There was much ado at Koenig Alumni Center September 21st, the day of our annual Membership Tea. Why the sheer curtains in the doorways? And who added the ponderous desk next to the tea table? These were some of the props for the filming of an ABC-TV movie which also contributed to the limited parking in the general area of the Center. We're sorry some of you had to drive around - and around - before finally finding a space to park. But we had a fine turnout and were especially happy to welcome so many newcomers and retirees.

There also was a lot of activity and lively chatter around the Interest Groups' sign-up table and we hope that all of the groups will get underway this month.

In the coming weeks, we will be working on the membership directory which will be in the mail to all members in late October.

Thanks to all of you who helped make the Tea a success, and to our talented harpist, Leah Middlemiss of the Music Library staff.

INTERESTED IN GOLD?

Join us at the Boulderado Hotel when Doris Schneider of Design Sphere Jewelry talks to us on "Ways to Recycle Old Gold." Bring your old gold rings, etc. Doris will discuss recycling with you. Linda Toomre, handweaver and hand-knitter

Fume Scurry, Batik and Japanese finishes

Gale Zurwinkle, designer of elegant and folksy garments.

We've passed the 200 mark in membership and hopefully, the final count will bring us up to 250 or so! There are 19 active Interest Groups, with largest memberships in the Book Discussion, Hiking, Travel and French Conversation groups. And a new group in the languages' area - German - is being started with much enthusiasm.

Our members who do volunteer work on an on-going basis from year to year have been joined by several new volunteers. We are proud of them, and thankful for the time and effort they spend in helping out at Norlin Library, the Wardenburg Student Health Center, as on-call volunteers for Recording for the Blind, to name some of the projects. We could use about three more names on the cookies' donation list for the Meals on Wheels program for the elderly in Boulder. Call Sue McMillan, our Special Projects'Chairman - 444-2926.

Mark your calendar for our next Big Event - a show of fashions designed and created by local artists using handwoven fabrics - Nov. 10th at Koenig Alumni Center.

January, 1984

This January issue of MSages opens what may be called the most active half of our club year. The two-month break of December and January was inactive only insofar as Board meetings and programs were concerned. Our many and varied Interest Groups continued to meet as usual during these busy months.

I hope you all had a happy holiday season and wish you the best of health and happiness in the new year, which leads us to a reminder that you mark your calendars for our next program - on Monday evening, February 6, when we will learn "practical ways to take charge of our own health and happiness" as presented by the Human Performance Laboratory of the University (see details elsewhere in this newsletter).

Edith Dell'Apa
PRESIDENT

The February board meeting will be open to all members in order to discuss and vote on a purposed change to Article 4, Section 1 of our bylaws. It presently reads: Any member desiring to bring guests to a regular meeting of the club shall pay 50¢ for each guest to the treasurer or assistant treasurer on the day of the meeting. The proposed change will read: Guests are welcome at any regular meeting at an appropriate charge to help defray expenses. The open board meeting will be on February 15 at 10:00 a.m.. Call Marilyn Peltzer (499-1454) or Betty Fischer (447-0147) for details and to make a reservation.

Enter Carlson from the west (main) entrance and look to the left for signs indicating the direction of the Human Performance Lab. Wine and cheese will be served. Please call Libby Lipstreu (442-0734) or Peg Skurnik (494-2364) by February 1 to make your reservation.

CALL FOR HOSTESSES

April will bring us together for a progressive dinner. Nancy Hodge, our social chairman, needs several members to be hostesses in their homes for part of this event. Please contact Nancy(494-2669) if you are interested.

Our February program on "Practical Ways to Take Charge of Our Own Health and Happiness" is still being talked about. Several husbands and other guests joined us for the exceptional program presented on-site in the lab itself by professors, professional staff and students of the Human Performance Laboratory. The program, available at the reduced fee of $175, can be covered by the university's Prudential insurance program, or as part of the routine payroll deductions. Call Mary Hewes at 492-5362 for further information.

We're breaking tradition and including men's wear in our annual Spring Luncheon and Fashion Show on Tuesday, March 20. You'll recognize our male models as they come from offices and classrooms of the university. Members of our club will model the women's fashions.

This is our BIG EVENT and only fundraiser for the year with proceeds going to our Scholarship Fund. It has been a tradition with many of our members to use this occasion to entertain their friends. We hope you will again get tables of friends together and also spread the word about our luncheon and show which promise to be a lot of fun in the name of a good cause.

Anything can happen - weatherwise, in Colorado - in March and April, and this year is no exception. Our Spring luncheon and fashion show March 20th managed to happen between snowstorms and, from all reports, was an enjoyable affair -- from the delicious lunch, (menu for which was planned by our own talented Rosemary Tedesco with recipes from the Colorado Cook Book) well-prepared and attractively served by the University Food Services, to the fine modelling of our university men and women. The pots of geraniums from the home of Sue Peterson, who was in charge of decorations, added beautiful color to the already colorful Spring fashions.

NEXT ON OUR CLUB CALENDAR: The Progressive Dinner on Friday, April 27. The progression begins and ends at Mountain Shadows Clubhouse as arranged by co-hostesses, Mary Jane Husbands and Jane Schettler. In between, members are divided into groups and dine in other members' homes. Please help open your homes for the dinner segment (deadline for offering your home is Apr. 16). The food is prepared and donated by the dinner guests. More details on the dinner are elsewhere in this newsletter.

PROGRESSIVE DINNER - FRIDAY, APRIL 27

A festive evening of good food and friendship is being planned for you and your husband or guest. Hors d'oeuvres and beverages will be served at Mountain Shadows Clubhouse at 6:30 P.M.. At 8:00 guests will travel to the home of your host and hostess for the evening where main course and salad will be enjoyed until 9:30 P.M.. We will reassemble at the Mountain Shadows Clubhouse for dessert, coffee and tea. You may park on Bradley or Chambers Drive.

Please call your reservations to Mary Jane Husbands, 494-2478, by Friday, April 20. An early response would be helpful for those offering their homes. Your only cost for this evening of fine fellowship will be a contribution of food to be assigned when reservations are made. Directions for reaching Mountain Shadows Clubhouse will be given if needed at this time also.

PLAN AHEAD

The luncheon will honor retirees. It will be on Thursday, May 10, at the Manor penthouse, 1055 Adams Circle at 12:00 noon. Historian Dr. Chico will be the speaker: "Sorcerers to Sex Symbols: 4000 Years of Hats." This will be a salad and dessert luncheon. When making your reservation, please indicate whether you will bring a salad or desert (to serve eight). Call Helen Wasley (449-2614) or Mary Baughn (443-5228) by Monday, May 7, for your reservation.

TRAVEL GROUP

You are invited to attend the last meeting of the travel group and enjoy the wonders of Singapore as presented by Trudi Peper. This meeting will be at the University Club at 7:30 P.M. on May 5. A well-known lecturer, art historian, teacher and museum curator will be speaker for our annual retirees' luncheon May 10th at Golden West Manor penthouse. Dr. Beverly Chico, currently program coordinator for the City of Lakewood's Belmar Museum, will bring some of her famous hats from her extensive collection and tell us their historical significance as it pertains to women in history. Her topic is "From Sorcerers to Sex Symbols."

The luncheon, followed by the tri-boards' meeting at the home of Edna Weber, winds down our club year. Executive boards of this year, next year's under the presidency of Ellie Pollack, and year '85-'86 with Norma Schattke as president, come together on Wednesday, May 16. We ask that all reports, in triplicate, be handed in at that time. If you can't make this meeting, please give your report to someone who will be attending as it is a valuable record for our books and as a guide to your successor.

The awarding of the scholarships to two women students on the Boulder campus and the $1,000. gift for a chair for Macky Auditorium (the latter gift in two phases with a special fund-raiser to be held for this effort next club year) is the "crowning glory" of a very happy year as your president. I've worked with many of you in various capacities over the 20 years as a member of UWC, but having the opportunity to serve as president is a rare and rewarding experience. My most profound thanks to the Executive Board and the many others for their help and support throughout the year.

TWO SCHOLARSHIPS AWARDED

This year's profits from the annual fashion show, which was held on March 20, will fund two $500 scholarships at C.U. for women who interrupted and are now continuing their education. This is administered through the Office of Financial Aid with assistance of the C.U. Foundation. Twenty-five applications were submitted.

The winners are Cheryl Crosby and Nancy Dawson. Cheryl Crosby will be a senior in religious studies. She has been a nurse for five years at Cedar House, a division of the Mental Health Center of Boulder County. While completing her undergraduate degree, she plans to continue her job as well as her family responsibilities. She states her interests are to serve the world community and feels the areas of greatest need are the Third World countries. She hopes to seek a Master of International Public Health degree, specializing in maternal and child health.

Nancy Dawson is presently a graduate student in journalism. She received a Bachelor's degree in sociology from C.U. in 1972. Her varied experiences of the past twelve years include leader in neighborhood improvement projects in Philadelphia, coordinator for local food co-op, leader of women's workshops, teacher of G.E.D. classes and other activities in a women's center. She returned to Boulder in 1980 and taught English as a second language in the schools as well as at the San Juan del Centro housing project. She has published in the C.U. Daily, Boulder County Courant, and the Friends Journal. Her goal is to write about the minority cultures in the U.S..

Our congratulations to Nancy Dawson and Cheryl Crosby!

RETIREES' LUNCHEON

Our May program will honor retirees. It will be held on Thursday, May 10, at the Golden West Manor penthouse, 1055 Adams Circle at 12:00 Noon. Historian Dr. Beverly Chico will be the speaker: "Sorcerers to Sex Symbols: 4000 Years of Hats." Each person attending will be asked to bring either a salad or desert to serve eight -- PLEASE INCLUDE A SERVING SPOON. Call Helen Wasley (499-2614) or Mary Baughn (443-5228) by Monday, May 7, to make your reservation. Plenty of parking is available to the west of the building. Please enter the building through the northeast door.

WOMEN'S CLUB PLEDGES $1000 FOR MACKY CHAIR

The Women's Club board voted strong approval for the Macky Renovation by pledging $1000 to "purchase" a chair in the renovated building. A brass plaque with the name of our organization will be mounted on our chair somewhere at the front of the auditorium. It was felt Macky plays a large part in the cultural lives of students, faculty, and citizens of Boulder and the board wanted to take part in this project.

TRAVEL GROUP

You are invited to attend the last meeting of the travel group and enjoy the wonders of Singapore as presented by Trudi Peper. This meeting will be at the University Club at 7:30 P.M. on May 5.
