University Women's Club

September 1990

Dear Members,

Fall Greetings! Yes, it's that time of year again.

The first University Women's Club (UWC) meeting is the annual Fall Membership Tea on September 11th (11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. in Koenig). Members have received invitations by mail, but please remember to invite any newcomers or friends who might enjoy getting to know us.

The stated purposes of the UWC are to promote friendship among members, to develop bonds of common interest, and to encourage service within the University community.

This year I would like to focus on the University as a community, and on women in the community in particular. There are several ways I plan to do this. One way is through a lecture/luncheon series that will feature "Women in Education" at CU-Boulder. As a club we support the education of women through our scholarship fund, and I am interested in learning more about the research and creative work of women in the CU community. The first lecture/luncheon will be held on October 16th at the University Club, and Doris Havice, Professor Emeritus of Religion, is the featured speaker.

Another way I plan to focus on the University as a community is through The Winter Party, scheduled for Saturday, December 1st in the UMC Ballroom. This evening event of holiday desserts and ballroom dancing will be an enjoyable way for us to meet with other members of the University community.

There are two new additions to the Club that will also work toward this idea. One is a Newcomers Group. Dora Emery and Gertie Phelps are planning several events for new members.

If you have the name of a newcomer please call Dora (494-7119) or Gert (499-1718). The other is a "telephone tree," organized by Heather Southwick, as a way for us to keep in touch with each other.

I'm looking forward to an active year.

Sincerely,

Marilee

Scholarship Update

The University Women's Club Scholarship at the University of Colorado at Boulder was established in 1982 to aid outstanding women students who are over 24 years old and are returning to CU after a break in their college education. It has served as a focus for fundraising activity and a way for the UWC to offer tangible support to younger women.

Scholarships for women returning to school are critically needed. The University Women's Club Scholarship has been deeply appreciated by those students who have received it. These women also see it as a tremendous boost to their morale as they continue the difficult task of study often mixed with responsibilities of family and job.

To date, a total of 16 scholarships totalling over $10,000 have been awarded. This is an average of $625 per scholarship. Students from a variety of disciplines have received this financial aid.

With the success and hard work of our spring fashion show fundraising event this year, we were able to award three scholarships. A $1000 scholarship was awarded to a graduate student in Communication Disorders and Speech Science. Two $625 scholarships were also awarded, one to a graduate student working toward a Master of Science in Education, and one to an undergraduate student pursuing a dual degree in Mathematics and Music.

We salute their dedication and hard work and are pleased to encourage them with our scholarships.

Dear Members,

Fall has definitely arrived in Boulder, and the events for the school year have begun. These include our meetings, of course, and the Membership Tea, which was well attended on a beautiful, sunny day. For Interest Groups getting together now, this newsletter has a special column with information regarding meetings as well as a list of those in charge.

All newcomers are welcome to join the Newcomers Group, which holds its first meeting on October 10th. For more information, call Dora Emery, 494-7119, or Gertie Phelps, 499-1718.

The first Lecture/Luncheon is October 16th. During this series we will hear from a variety of women involved in education on the CU-Boulder campus. The featured speaker on October 16th is Dr. Doris Havice, Professor Emeritus of Religious Studies. Her talk is entitled "Old Age: What's Good About It." (For more information, see page 2 of this newsletter.)

Plans for the December 1st Winter Party are rapidly progressing. I hope many of you will be able to attend this event that is intended to promote friendship between members of the CU-Boulder community.

Sincerely,
Marilee Dunn

UWC Service Groups

Two of our Project Service Groups have specific needs right now. This fall the Blood Bank drive will be held October 29, 30, and 31 in the UMC Glen Miller Ballroom. Volunteers are needed for three-hour stints to help in these areas: 1) registration of blood donors, 2) escorting donors to the recovery room, and 3) assisting in the recovery room.

The Student Health Services needs help in the gynecology department, assisting in outpatient birth control and gynecology. On-going help is needed Monday through Thursday afternoons and it's preferred that you work a two-hour shift (either 1-3 p.m. or 3-5 p.m.). An orientation is available.

If you can volunteer, please call Ethel Pankove, Projects Chairperson, mornings, at 494-0670.

Thank You, Thank You, Thank You to Heather Southwick and the following members of her wonderful "telephone tree!" Heather's major undertaking means that all of our members will be telephoned during the year as a way for us to keep in touch with our community as well as to remind members about upcoming meetings.

So, many thanks to: Mary Baughn, Betty Bonde, Norma Bowes, Jean Clark, Charlotte Corbridge, Esther deOnis, Alice Doyle, Norma Ekstrand, Louise Grimes, Mary Heath, Mary Jane Husbands, Libby Lipstreu, Jean Loeffler, Ruby Marr, Louise McAllister, Jennifer Miller, Janet Nuzum, Marilyn Peltzer, Ros Pfaff, Marion Ramirez, Judith Ramsay, Ura Reithmayer, Maria Rogers, Erika Runnells, Anne Turner, Robin Warner, and Florence White.

Update from

Friends of Libraries - Boulder

Norlin Library needs help! As most of you know, the reference collection at Norlin Library has been seriously affected by mold contamination. The department is currently closed and all volumes have been moved off-campus to a dry, storage area for treatment. As soon as the reference area has been decontaminated and the books dried out, all those volumes must be reshelfed as quickly as possible. This is a labor intensive project that James Williams, Dean of Libraries, would like you to help with.

It is hoped that the problems can be solved by mid-October. A reshelfing party is being planned. Members of the University Women's Club will be contacted by Friends of the Libraries-Boulder to assist with the reshelfing as soon as a date and time have been assigned. I hope that many of you will be able to respond.

On a lighter note, Friends of the Libraries-Boulder is holding an "Italian Wine Tasting Party" at Fiske Planetarium on October 10, 1990 from 6:30 to 9:30 p.m. to benefit the restoration and/or replacement of reference books adversely affected by the mold contamination. In addition to wine and cheese tastings, there will be an ongoing silent auction and the raffle of a trip for two to Santa Fe. Tickets for the wine tasting are $15 and for the raffle $2 each or 3 for $5. For tickets and information, call Nancy Cateora (499-7659), Jean Loeffler (494-5058), or the Friends office (492-8275).

Artist Series Be a volunteer for the concerts by offering transportation and assisting at the receptions, dinners, and special events with a chance to meet the artists.

Blood Bank Drives Blood bank drives are held twice a year at the University Memorial Center (UMC) and many volunteers are needed for the success of this project. We can help serve refreshments to blood donors and assist in other areas as needed.

CU Heritage Center Assist in daily activities such as researching, cataloging artifacts, hosting special events, and acting as museum guides.

Campus Libraries All libraries on campus need volunteers for checking out books as well as in specialized projects. Some of our members are very active in the bookfinders' group.

Campus Tours Meet visitors from around the world (and get your exercise as well) when you show them our lovely campus. This is a good way to introduce our University to the public.

Meals on Wheels This national organization takes meals to people unable to cook for themselves. Share some of your favorite recipes by baking cookies once a month for this group.

Student Health Services The staff at Wardenburg can use assistance in a variety of areas.

Cookbook Project Norlin Library receives all proceeds from the sale of the highly successful "Colorado Cook Book." You can help to promote, market, and do clerical work for this project. The co-chairs of the Cookbook Project are: Nancy Cateora (499-7659) and Sheryl Kuempel (494-6370).

November 1990

Dear Members,

I'm very pleased to announce that the University Women's Club has received donations from Chancellor James Corbridge and Vice-Chancellor for Academic Affairs and Dean of Faculties Bruce Ekstrand toward the costs of The Winter Party. This event is intended to promote the feeling of community on the CU-Boulder campus, and these donations are a wonderful vote of confidence toward that goal.

Invitations for The Winter Party are being sent to members of the University Women's Club and the Retired Faculty Association. Since this party is for members and their guests, please invite your friends to join us for this lovely occasion. Tables will be reserved for eight people, so you can set up your own table if you'd like by noting this on your reservation. The party will feature French pastries and champagne as well as a ten-piece orchestra playing big band music and promises to be a grand celebration.

We have a number of new members this year. A successful newcomers meeting took place on October 10th at Dora Emery's house, hosted by Dora Emery and Gertie Phelps. Welcome to our new members! Tuesday Lecture/Luncheon Series Features Women in Education at CU—Boulder

This lecture series highlights women in education at the University of Colorado. The speakers have been invited to discuss their work with us as a way for women within the university community to become better acquainted with each other. The luncheon setting allows time for members of the University Women's Club to meet with each other informally.

The first Lecture/Luncheon, held on October 16th, featured Dr. Doris Havice, Professor Emeritus of Religious Studies, as the speaker. Her challenging talk was well received by the thirty-eight women in attendance. A question and answer period followed the lecture.

The speaker for Tuesday, November 13, 1990 is Ceal Barry, head coach for the University of Colorado women's basketball program at the University Club, 972 Broadway, from 11:45 a.m. to 1:30 p.m.

This is Ms. Barry's eighth season as head coach. The Lady Buffs have had winning seasons for the past three years. Ms. Barry was named Big Eight Coach of the Year at the conclusion of the 1988-89 basketball season.

In addition to coaching at CU-Boulder, Ms. Barry has conducted the Ceal Barry Basketball Camp for the past eight summers.

Ms. Barry is a native of Louisville, Kentucky and a 1977 graduate of the University of Kentucky. As a student at Kentucky, she played basketball and field hockey.

Project Update— Help Needed for Meals on Wheels

Meals on Wheels is a popular and worthwhile project in which University women participate. Meals are received by 150 individuals who are house-bound either by illness or because they are elderly and unable to get around. For this project, four volunteers per month bake three dozen cookies each. We are asked to omit nuts and not make the cookies too chewy. Each volunteer delivers the cookies marked "Meals on Wheels" to the Senior Center at 909 Arapahoe on the first Wednesday of each month.

We now have seven volunteers. Our thanks to Marcella Diepenbrock, Virginia Gore, Beverly Irons, Barbara Marr, Susan Pfretzchner, Nancy Rost, and Dot O'Sullivan for signing up.

More volunteers are needed, however. We need one volunteer for November, three for December, two for January, three for February, two for March, three for April, and two for May. If you can spare the time to provide cookies for this worthy program, please call Ethel Pankove at 494-0670 to sign up.

December 1990-January 1991

Dear Members,

Be sure to check the calendar information for all of the December and January activities as this newsletter covers both months. The Investments Group has an interesting program for December 12th.

The Lecture/Luncheon Series is going very well. The November event was well attended. Questions following Coach Ceal Barry's talk were endless. Luncheon attendees also had the opportunity to meet with four of the girls on the basketball team. I'm looking forward to our January 22nd Lecture/Luncheon with guest speaker Professor Patricia Limerick.

The excitement mounts as the Winter Party takes place in several days time. I want to thank Eloise Pelton and Ellen Weverka for the design concept of the decorations and Anita VanZeghbroeck, and Gail Wagner, and Eloise for their hard work on creating the centerpieces. Thank you also to Ann Hayes who has created – and donated – a very unique slide presentation of the Hans Christian Anderson fairy tale "The Snow Queen." In addition, Loretta Campbell, an active member of the Art Forum, has designed and created a fantastical sculpture to be used as the centerpiece at the party and has donated the piece to be auctioned off as a way to raise money for the UWC Scholarship Fund.

Thank you to Marilyn Peltzer who has been busy collecting the reservations and checks for the party.

I'd like to repeat my thanks to Chancellor James Corbridge and Vice-Chancellor Bruce Ekstrand for their generous financial contributions toward this event.

Happy Holidays!

Patricia Limerick to Speak at Tuesday Lecture/Luncheon Series

On January 22nd, the third Tuesday Lecture/Luncheon will take place at 11:45 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. in the Garden Room of the University Club. Patricia Limerick, Associate Professor of History, will be the guest speaker.

Professor Limerick's book entitled The Legacy of Conquest, which was published in 1987 by W.W. Norton and Company, has received much attention for its portrayal of the American West in a non-idealized manner, based on more recent information. In it, she confronts the western stereotype with the western experience.

For more information about Prof. Limerick's lecture, see page two of this newsletter.

Silent Auction to be Held for UWC Scholarship Fund

At the Winter Party, a silent auction will be held for the centerpiece, a wonderful paper mache sculpture of faeries and elves held together in a tree shape by a fanciful metal ribbon. The sculpture can be suspended from the ceiling, set on a table, or split in half into wall sconces. Really! Just wait 'til you see it. Thanks to Heather Southwick for organizing the silent auction, and Laura King for assisting her. Proceeds from the auction will go to the UWC Scholarship Fund.

University Women's Club

Dear Members,

The last Lecture/Luncheon takes place on March 12th at the University Club. The featured speaker is Fine Arts Professor Barbara Jo Revelle. There is more information about this on page two of this newsletter. I would like to congratulate Prof. Cordelia Candelaria, who spoke at our February Lecture/Luncheon, on her recent appointment to the Oxford University Press Advisory Board for its project, Oxford Companion to Women's Writing in the United States, 1990-92.

The time for our Spring Fashion Show is rapidly approaching. The committee is under way, having met with the representative from Saks Fifth Avenue in February. Karen Diamond and Edith Dell'Apa are the co-chairs; and committee members are: Eloise Pelton, Joan Mikulas, Peggy Miller, Anita Van Zeghbroeck, Vinita Sturgeon, Lisa Andresen, Mary Littman, Beverly Irons, and myself. We look forward to seeing you and your friends on April 29th.

The UWC Board continues to work on the revision of the UWC Constitution. A committee headed by Claudine Garby and Jennifer Miller met this summer and updated the constitution. The Board hopes to conclude this work soon. The revised constitution will need to be approved by the UWC membership. Members will be alerted about the process through MSages.

For an end-of-the-year event, I have planned a light luncheon for members of the UWC to take place immediately following the annual Tri-Board meeting on May 7th. The purpose of this luncheon is many-fold: it's to welcome the incoming UWC board; to applaud the faithful, hard-working members of the outgoing UWC board; to thank our fashion show committee; to honor UWC members who are retiring this year; to thank our interest group chairs; and to meet our scholarship recipient(s). All UWC members are invited to attend this luncheon. Reservations are necessary; please call me at 449-1055 if you plan to attend. The luncheon will be held from 11:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. at the University Residence at 3600 Caddo Parkway. There are parking spaces for only thirty cars, so you'll need to car pool. Mark your calendars now!

UWC members will vote on the nominations for the 1992-93 Board at the March 12th Lecture Luncheon. Many thanks to the members of this year's nominating committee: Marilyn Peltzer, Penny Kisslinger, Rachel Homer, Laura King, and Heather Southwick.

Lecture/Luncheon Series

Associate Professor Barbara Jo Revelle is the featured speaker for our last event in the UWC Lecture/Luncheon Series. Professor Revelle is the Division Director of Photography in the Fine Arts Department at CU-Boulder. Her art involves photography, filmmaking, and photo-related installations. For our lecture, she will discuss how she moved from her previous work that involved photography at a very personal level to her current work as a public artist.

Prof. Revelle will also discuss a very large tile wall she recently designed that pictorially describes the people's history of Colorado. This public art piece contains images of 168 people—84 of whom are women—from the history of Colorado. Entitled "A Colorado Panorama: A People's History of Colorado," the wall ~~was~~ permanently installed at the Denver Convention Center in January. A book discussing the people portrayed was written and published to accompany this public art piece.

April 1991

Dear Members,

The nominations for the UWC board for 1992-93 were unanimously approved at the general club meeting held during the March 12th Lecture/Luncheon. Congratulations to our board-elect: President-Elect Eloise Pelton, Secretary-Elect Imelda Hermes, and Treasurer-Elect Alice Doyle!

We have just learned that the "University Residence" will be under renovation the entire month of May and therefore is no longer available for us to meet in on May 7th.

As an alternative, Koenig Alumni Center was an obvious choice. It is not available at noon on May 7th, but it is available from 4 to 6 p.m., so we have reserved it for that time.

All UWC members are invited for a general club meeting and tea. The purpose of this tea is many-fold: it's to welcome the incoming UWC board; to applaud the faithful, hard-working members of the outgoing UWC board; to thank our fashion show committee; to honor UWC members who are retiring this year; to thank our interest group chairs; and to meet our scholarship recipient(s). We will also vote on the revised UWC Constitution and By-Laws at this meeting.

The Tri-Board will meet earlier also on May 7th.

This year we are very pleased that the fashion show will be presented by Saks Fifth Avenue. Entitled "Fashion Forecast '91," the show promises to be filled with sophisticated tips on what's new as well as lots of bright new colors and a special vignette on the fashion classic Coco Chanel. Saks Fifth Avenue of Cherry Creek, Denver, has promised us a show to beat all shows! We are well on our way to a sell-out.

April 29th is the big day. Please tell all your friends about Fashion Forecast '91, and make your reservations as soon as possible. Many of us are planning a table for eight as a way to invite people.

Remember that proceeds from this event benefit the University Women's Club Scholarship for Women. We need your support for this worthy cause.

Parking and bus shuttle transportation will be provided (as part of the cost of the ticket) from Williams Village Parking Lot, located approximately 100 yards southeast of the intersection of Baseline Road and 30th Street. Shuttle service will begin at 10:30 a.m. and run every ten minutes until noon.

Contact Beverly Irons, 449-6560 or myself, Karen Diamond, 939-8656 for reservations or information.

Reminder of End-of-Year Reports

This notice is to remind all Interest Group Chairs and all UWC Board members that, according to the UWC constitution, a report is due of your or your group's activities for the 1990-91 academic year. This year these reports are due on May 7th at our final meeting. The incoming board members and new chairpeople use these reports to plan for next year. The reports should be in triplicate, again as according to the constitution, so copies can be distributed to the appropriate people.

This series of MSages, the UWC newsletter, will conclude with the May 1991 issue. If you have something you would like included in the May 1991 newsletter, please send it (typed) to: Anna Catalana, MSages Newsletter Editor, 929 Maxwell Ave., Rear Apt., Boulder, CO 80304, or call Anna Catalana at 938-1691 no later than the 15th of April.

Notice of Intention to Amend the UWC Constitution and By-laws

The changes suggested by the committee for the UWC Constitution and By-Laws have been approved by the UWC Board. Copies of the amended constitution and by-laws will be distributed to UWC members during the month of April.

The UWC Board has spent some time on these revisions this year. Most of the suggested changes are to clarify what is already standard practice or to update the language used.

Marilyn Peltzer will be distributing the copies of the constitution and by-laws. If you have questions about any of the changes, please call constitution revision committee members Claudine Garby or Jennifer Miller.

A vote to approve the newly revised UWC Constitution will be held at the general club meeting on May 7, 1991 at 5 p.m. at Koenig Alumni Center.

University Women's Club

May 1991

Dear Members,

This is the last issue of MSages for this academic year. It seems that this year has gone by very quickly!

The last club meeting, the "Honors Tea," will take place on May 7th at Koenig from 4 to 6 p.m., with a general meeting to be held at 5 p.m. An agenda of this meeting is on page two of this newsletter. Members of our club who are retiring or whose husband is retiring will be recognized at this tea. They include: Lisa Andresen (Svein), Fran Dickinson (Arthur), Betty Gardner (Ed), and Virginia Gore. We will vote on the revised UWC Constitution and By-Laws at this meeting. The changes suggested by the committee for the UWC Constitution and By-Laws have been approved by the UWC Board. If you have questions about any of the changes, please call constitution revision committee members Claudine Garby or Jennifer Miller. Thanks to Marilyn Peltzer for distributing copies of the updated UWC Constitution to our membership. Also at this tea, end of the year reports are due. Each committee chairperson and each group leader is responsible for writing up a brief report summarizing their groups activities for the year. They should be prepared in triplicate for distribution at this meeting. It's also a good opportunity for the outgoing and ingoing chairs to meet and talk. (One reason the UWC runs so smoothly is that these annual reports are written and passed along.)

Karen and Edith – the fashion show was wonderfully elegant! Thank you for all your work as co-chairs. Thank you to Eloise Pelton for the design concept of both the table decorations and the program, and Beverly Irons for receiving the ticket requests and arranging the seating for the 350 people who attended. And thanks to all the other hardworking members of the fashion show committee – Lisa Andresen, Mary Littman, Joan Lee Mikulas, Peggy Miller, Vinita Sturgeon, and Anita Van Zeghbroeck.

The UWC Scholarship was awarded this year to Johnna Tipton, who will be a senior in chemical engineering next year. Scholarship committee members were Rhoda Nozik, Beverly Irons, and Rachel Homer, Chair.

In summary, I want to let you know that I have very much enjoyed my role in the University Women's Club this year, and thank you all for your generous support and encouragement.

Marilee Dunn, UWC President 1990-91

Spring Fashion Show Notes

350 people attended this annual event held in the Glen Miller Ballroom at the University Memorial Center. Our Honorary
President, Mary Baughn, was able to attend, as well as our scholarship recipient and two of the speakers from the Lecture/Luncheon Series—Dr. Doris Havice and Head Coach Ceal Barry. Saks Fifth Avenue of Cherry Creek was represented by the store's General Manager, Larry Buchanan. W. W. W.

The fashion show included fashion commentary
by Saks' representatives, Alice Vickers and Rosie Waters. These women were responsible for deciding to do the show, as well as producing it. We are very grateful to them for their time and energy in making the show happen and Saks' generous donation of this fashion show at no cost to our group. As you may know, this is the only show Saks Fifth Avenue is presenting in Boulder this year.

At any rate, the fashion show committee is very pleased to report the great success of the show.
