University Women's Club

September 1991

Dear Members,

What happened to summer? Hope you had a wonderful one! Welcome back! And a special welcome to our new University President Judith Albino who, incidentally, is honorary president of UWC, and she will be a special guest at our annual Fall Membership Tea.

The tea on September 10th is our first activity for 1991-92. Invitations have been mailed to members by Tea Chair Rhoda Nozik. However, I hope you take the initiative of personally inviting any newcomers or friends who might enjoy joining UWC.

Article II of our constitution lists these objectives: To promote friendship among the members, to strengthen their bonds of common interests, to provide assistance to the University, and to promote service to the community through UWC's service projects. Thus, our theme for this year will be "Expanding Our Horizons." This would be a good time to take stock of where we women are, what we have accomplished, and what we can do.

I am planning to continue the excellent work of my predecessor, Marilee Dunn, in focusing on the University "as a community," and on "women in the community." The lecture/luncheon series will resume October 8 in the UMC Aspen Room (please note change of location). Everyone had a grand time at the Winter Party and many asked us to continue it this year, so we will! It was reminiscent of the old "President's Ball," which was held for many years when funding was available. It was a treat to be with old friends from the many departments.

The Newcomers' Group will also be continued this year and will be chaired by Dora Emery. I urge you to call Dora (494-7119) if you know the name of a newcomer. So we can maintain contact with one another, Heather Southwick will continue the "Telephone Tree," a hefty task and one which has been done valiantly by Heather and her committee.

We have two new groups this fall: the University Dance Club, chaired by new member Jean Black and the Culture Vultures (watch for their sign-up sheet at the Membership Tea). The Dance Club was one of our interest groups in the past, and is now returning. Welcome back! Culture Vultures plan to attend theater, musicals and other cultural events together. Members who need a ride or can share the driving to UWC events can sign up for this suggested service also at the Tea.

The UWC Board and chairpersons have been working hard to prepare another year of activities and service. My heartfelt thanks to ALL of you who work so willingly and graciously. I'm looking forward to another exciting year.

Sincerely,

*Claudine Garby
UWC President, 1991-92*

MEMBERSHIP TEA

UWC welcomes old and new members at its annual fall tea, Tuesday, September 10, at Koenig, from 11:30 am to 1:30 pm. Enjoy tea and piano music by Mary Heath, and sign up for interest groups and projects.

MEET OUR PRESIDENT . . .

When Claudine Garby takes the reins of UWC this fall, she adds one more honor to the Garby family University of Colorado legacy. She is the wife of the late Dr. Louis Garby, who was a professor in aerospace engineering for 30 years; all four of her children are C.U. alums, as are a daughter-in-law and son-in-law, and she herself received her Ph.D. in Education Administration from CU in 1974.

Claudine has been a UWC member for a total of 32 years. We have seen more of her the past two years since she retired as Director of Elementary Education in the St. Vrain Valley School District. She maintained her membership throughout her demanding professional career which includes a school principalship for 10 years. Before that, she was in and out of school since 1947, either furthering her own education, or working in education. (Her Master's degree was earned at the University of Michigan.)

Claudine is a pioneer in the teaching field. She started teaching in a one-room country school west of Jackson, Michigan, Kindergarten to 8th grade, with her oldest student only two-and-a-half years younger than she. She was there at the crack of dawn, to start the fire! "We had an outside water pump and an outside john," she says. Her student and/or teaching experiences span 42 years, with only 11 years "off" to raise a family.

A totally different career is her current one, of three years -- that of Businesswoman! She and her son, Gage, founded Senetics, Inc., which sells a product based on her late husband's patent. "Counter Cap" is a medical bottle cap that records the number of times people take their medicine and is sold at Safeway, King Soopers, and Payless Drug Stores.

Michigan is still in her blood -- Claudine misses the lakes and boating. She loves to travel, is an avid reader, and enjoys the theater and going to symphonies.

Dear U.W.C. Friends,

I was delighted to see so many members at our lovely tea September 10. It was great to hear our president, Dr. Albino, and to chat with her. Many thanks to Rhoda Nozik who did an excellent job in organizing the event, and to our pianist, Mary Heath, for her background music.

Dr. Anne Costain, Acting Assistant Vice-Chancellor for Research, will be the featured speaker for our first lecture/luncheon on October 8 in the UMC Aspen Room (across from the Glenn Miller Ballroom). Dr. Costain's topic will be, "What Women Want: The Changing Agenda of the Women's Movement" -- right in line with our theme of "Expanding Our Horizons" (for more information, see Page 2).

It's a pleasure to be able to report that we were able to award three scholarships this summer. We are hoping to budget for more for next May!

Hope you signed up for at least one Service Project, as well as an Interest Group. Please peruse the October Calendar to jot down what's available and dates. Also, make sure you reserve December 20 for our Winter Party. All university employees (faculty and staff) and their guests are welcome. Later editions of MSages will have more on this.

Don't forget to send in your dues to Karen Diamond. Deadline for having your name in our Directory is October 8. The membership form is repeated in this issue for your convenience.

Sincerely,

Claudine Garby
UWC President, 1991-92

KUDOS & LOADS OF THANKS.....

To.....RHODA NOZIK who single-handedly took care of all arrangements for our successful Membership Tea at Koenig Alumni Center September 10. The invitations were attractive, the food was delicious, and workers were on hand at various posts to greet guests, etc.

Over 100 women attended the tea. Dr. Judith Albino, CU President and UWC Honorary President, spoke briefly, outlining three "Themes for C.U.": (1) a need for developing new models to improve undergraduate education; (2) an objective of enhancing a learning community, and (3) a desire to improve relations in business and industry.

To.....DORIS GOODRICH for the great Interest Group Table at the Membership Tea. Distinctive signs were used for each Interest Group with representatives of each group on hand to assist with sign-ups. (Doris is Interest Groups chair for 1991-92.)

Four new groups were formed: Dance, Interior Design, German, and Culture Vultures.

To.....THE FOLLOWING MEMBERS WHO DONATED MONEY TO THE C.U. LIBRARY AND/OR TOWARD OUR SCHOLARSHIP FUND:

SERIES TO EXAMINE EVOLVING ROLES OF WOMEN

By Eloise Pelton
Program Chair

In our lecture series this year, we will embark on an examination of the evolving roles of women in modern society and in doing so, develop a clear perspective of where we have arrived in this last decade of the 20th Century. The resources available to us in pursuing this mission are so rich that we shall continue with the program focus at least through Spring of 1993. That will bring us right up to the beginning of the UWC Diamond Jubilee! It is fitting that we enter a celebration of our own 75-year history with a heightened awareness of the road we have travelled and insights into the miles ahead.

The 1991-92 lecture-luncheon season will begin October 8 with the laying of a foundation of understanding by Dr. Anne Costain, CU Professor of Political Science and Acting Assistant Vice-Chancellor for Research. Dr. Costain is a President's Teaching Scholar and winner of the SOAR award for teaching excellence given by undergraduate students, and recently received a grant from the National Science Foundation to study the women's movement. She will address the topic "What Women Want: The Changing Agenda of the Women's Movement."

The series continues November 12 with a view of the position of women and women studies at CU in a dual presentation by Dr. Marcia Westkott, Director of Women Studies, and Dr. Roberta Flexer of the Math Education Department. On February 11, Dr. Dorothea El-Mallakh will discuss the status of women today in the countries of North Africa and the Middle East. The first season of this "women's inquiry" will conclude on March 10 with a panel discussion by women who are leaders in the community of Boulder.

PARKING ON CAMPUS

Transportation Chair Mame Irwin informs us that CU Parking Management's policy this academic year dictates no reserved parking spaces for any group. The good news is that there are 415 new spaces in the newly rebuilt lot east of the UMC (and across from the University Club) -- at $1 an hour. The former visitor's parking spaces are no longer in the lot next to the University Club. This lot is now a "permit only" parking area.

Mame tells us that Parking Management will work with UWC for possible Fashion Show parking and shuttle service.

MEET OUR SECRETARY . . .

Marcia Elwood, UWC Secretary 1991-92, has been a Staff Assistant in Aerospace Engineering since April 1986 and has been with the University for 11 years.

Both Marcia and her husband, Ken, are a rare species! They are NATIVE COLORADANS who moved to Boulder 20 years ago from a ranch in Northeastern Colorado. "We have six children ^{AND} six grandchildren between us," says Marcia (includes "grandchildren" in her list of hobbies!). Their Schnauzer, Willie, is also "family."

Marcia has been a member of UWC since 1984; she is a bridge player, and loves to knit and to sew.

UWC AWARDS THREE SCHOLARSHIPS

The University Women's Club was able to give three scholarships of $500 each this academic year due to the success of our only fund-raising event, the Spring Fashion Show. To date, 19 scholarships totalling $11,500 have been awarded to deserving students, and recipients this year are: Johnna B. Tipton, Elizabeth Kellogg, and Sharon Trumpeter.

The Scholarship Fund was established in 1982 to aid outstanding women students who are over 24 years old and are returning to C.U. after a break in their college education. It has served as a focus for fund-raising activity and a way for the Club to offer tangible support to younger women.

Not only have the scholarships been much appreciated by the students, but these women see it as a tremendous boost to their morale as they continue the difficult task of study often mixed with responsibilities of family and job.

We salute their dedication and hard work, and are happy and proud to encourage them with our modest scholarship!

Scholarship Chair

Dear U.W.C. Friends,

The lecture/luncheon 8 October was just great! Forty-four members heard Dr. Anne Costain give a stimulating talk on "The Changing Agenda of the Women's Movement." Thanks are due Program Chair Eloise Pelton and her committee for this lovely luncheon.

The Newcomers' group, chaired by Dora Emery, is off to a wonderful start. We welcome all newcomers and hope they are "feeling at home" now.

The Winter Party is hard at work on our December 20th "Golden Gala," and work on the new directory, in the capable hands of Karen Diamond, is nearing completion.

Your Executive Board has met three times now (next meeting is 5 November). They have been coordinating service projects and schedules for interest groups, programs, and lecture/luncheons. They carefully oversee the use of the club's monies, while focusing on our goals of donations to the scholarship and library funds. Several of you have already contributed to these two funds (see October MSages); recent donors are Dot O'Sullivan, Frances Nakosteen, Barbara Klemme, Irma Weers, Anne Turner and Stephanie Greenberg. Thanks to all of you ...

I'm looking forward to our next luncheon on November 12th and our Winter Party, December 20th. See you there!

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

Betty Bonde, Service Projects Chair, telephone: 443-1767, is appealing to members to help with our various projects as response for volunteers has been poor this year so far. "It would be an excellent way to affirm our theme for this year, Expanding Our Horizons," says Betty.

Betty McCorkle, 492-2073, Volunteer Coordinator, Wardenburg, feels that an older, more mature person would be especially helpful and comforting to students coming to Wardenburg with personal needs.

The Office of Student Disabilities needs people to work with the blind.

Call Betty for projects still in need of volunteers.

LECTURE/LUNCHEON SERIES CONTINUES

The next lecture/luncheon, Tuesday, November 12, at 11:30 (note earlier start), will provide us the rare opportunity of hearing a dual presentation by two noted C.U. professors.

Dr. Marcia Westcott, director of Women Studies, Sociology professor, and author of the book, "The Feminist Legacy of Karen Horney," will discuss the status of women's issues at the University of Colorado, and "Women at CU: How Are We Doing?"

From Dr. Roberta Flexer, Associate Professor of Math. Education, we'll learn what kind of pressure CU women faculty and women staff members are putting on administration to bring about a more equitable status for women.

A report from the U.S. Department of Labor has concluded that the University of Colorado at Boulder violated three minor provisions of federal policies against discrimination. However, five separate discrimination complaints filed by CU-Boulder faculty members more than a year ago have been rejected, officials have confirmed.

A COLLAGE OF MUSICAL THEATER

The theater holds 240 people -- the entertainment will be free and refreshments will be served. This promises to be an enjoyable program and it is hoped we show our appreciation to Dr. Jackson and these talented young people by our presence.

A GOLDEN GALA Friday, December 20, 1991, 8:00 - 11:00 p.m., Glenn Miller Ballroom

Mark your calendars and invite your friends to join the University Women's Club at our second annual Winter Party!

The October 2nd meeting of the Winter Party was a lively get-together. We all agreed that this party should sparkle, glitter, and shine with a golden glow. Invitations will be mailed in early December and the cost will again be $10 per person for a wine and dessert buffet. Music for listening and dancing will be provided by the John Williams Orchestra. Special thanks to all the committee members (listed below) who are busy tending to the many details that ensure a grand evening. We will need volunteers, especially men, to help with the decorating on Friday. There are no special skills required, just a willingness to roll up your sleeves and lend a hand. Please contact any committee member if you can help.

MEET OUR TREASURER

16 years Marilyn Peltzer has been a UWC member, she has served in a variety of positions from the two current ones of Treasurer and Fashion Show co-chair, to that of Interest Group and Mailing chairperson. Twice holding the latter two positions in the past also attests to her dedication and hard work for UWC.

A graduate of St. Mary's College, South Bend, Indiana, with a B.S. Degree in Medical Technology, Marilyn is a native of Michigan where her mother, two sisters and their families reside. Her father was a civil engineer for the Michigan State Highway Department and Indiana Toll Road. She attributes her love of travel to her father's involvement with bridges (he was chief soils engineer for the Mackinac Bridge). "I think I've been over every bridge in Michigan at some time in my life," she says.

Marilyn's husband, Robert, who works for Martin Marietta Aerospace, Denver, was co-principal investigator and project engineer of Voyager Planetary Radio Astronomy Science Team at CU, going to Martin Marietta when Voyager I & II were launched and his part of the project was completed. Her CU affiliation includes her ongoing part-time work in the Registrar's office. The Peltzer's son, Gerry, earned a B.S. Degree at CU in Aerospace Engineering and is currently a graduate student at the University of Wisconsin. Their daughter, Kathy, is a senior in Metallurgy and Material Science Engineering at Colorado School of Mines.

The Peltzer family, including their dog, have done extensive traveling and camping, via their camper and van.

"For the Voyager launch trip, we visited 23 states, Washington, D.C. and Canada," Marilyn recalls. As a family, they have visited 45 states, and covered a distance of 43,000 miles.

Marilyn loves to cook (dessert-making is her favorite), and enjoys symphonies, especially CU's Mahlerfest.

Dear UWC Members:

The Happy Season is upon us! Hope you had a pleasant Thanksgiving. Make sure you add our December and January events to your calendar in BIG RED LETTERS!

Our Winter Party will be a Golden Gala indeed! It is on December 20th, from 8:00 to 11:00 pm, and will be in the UMC Ballroom. It will include dancing, wine and desserts. The price is the same as last year ($10 per person). I hope you're getting a table together right now. Chancellor James Corbridge and Vice-Chancellor Bruce Ekstrand have again made a generous contribution to help defray our expenses. I am delighted with their helpfulness. Thanks, Jim and Bruce. And let's all thank Eloise Pelton and Karen Diamond and their committee!

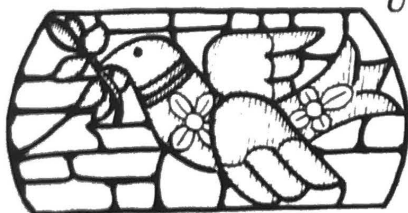

A great way to start the new year is to come to the exciting Music Program to be held January 17th from 7:00 to 9:00 pm in the Music Theater. Music students and Professor Dennis Jackson will be entertaining us and there will be refreshments afterwards. January 17th is just a couple of days after we return from holiday break, so make sure you add this date to your calendar.

Our Lecture/Luncheons have had great speakers and excellent attendance. (Remember, the only way we can make a reservation for you is to have your check in our hands.)

Thanks are due to these thoughtful members for contributing to our Scholarship and Library Fund: Mary Maslin and Anne Goodnow.

Wishing you all a Happy Holiday Season!

A COLLAGE OF MUSICAL THEATER

Students from the College of Music, under the direction of Dr. Dennis Jackson, who is head of the college's Opera Program, will entertain us Friday evening, January 17, 1992, with selections from musical comedy, operettas, and opera. The program will be followed by refreshments, and the evening is free of charge.

This wonderful, entertaining evening begins at 7:00 pm and will be held in the Music Theater of the Imig Music Building. Entrance to the theater, which is on the lower level of the building, is in the northeast corner, between the Music Building and the College of Environmental Design. (Most of us know it as the place where the Gilbert & Sullivan productions are held.)

The students will put on a 40-minute show, after which we will have an opportunity to meet them and Professor Jackson. Refreshments will be served on the stage of the theater.

RETURN ENGAGEMENT

Program Chair Eloise Pelton announces that we will have a return of three speakers of our lecture/luncheon series: Dr. Anne Costain, C.U. Professor of Political Science and Acting Assistant Vice-Chancellor for Research; Dr. Roberta Flexer, Associate Professor of Math. Education; and Dr. Marcia Westcott, Sociology Professor and Director of Women Studies. This dynamic trio will be featured at our March 10, 1992 luncheon in the UMC Aspen Room.

On February 11th, Dr. Dorothea El-Mallakh will discuss the status of women today in the countries of North Africa and the Middle East.

Both of these events will draw much interest, no doubt. There will be more information in our next issue of MSages.

MEET OUR SCHOLARSHIP WINNERS

Our scholarship winners for the 1991-92 academic year -- Johnna Tipton, Elizabeth Kellogg and Sharon Trompeter -- are in three different disciplines at the University of Colorado, and through information from our Scholarship Chair Caryl Kassoy, we are able to introduce them to you in more detail. The women each received a $500 scholarship.

JOHNNA TIPTON, who is enrolled in the College of Engineering and Applied Science, returned to C.U. to study for a second undergraduate degree. She received her first degree in 1988 from the College of Arts and Sciences, in Environmental Conservation (she is interested in a career in environmental preservation). Johnna enjoys her classes in Chemical Engineering and is continually reinforced in her resolve to pursue this second degree. Mountain climbing is a special interest and has given her the opportunity to visit remote areas in this country and abroad.

ELIZABETH KELLOGG has been in the work force for many years, but decided a few years ago that the occupations she had pursued were no longer satisfying. She had spent a great deal of time outdoors (when she was not in a professional library position), and had an underlying interest and love for nature. The biological sciences are a central focus of her interests and so, in 1988, she enrolled in EPO Biology. Her career goals are focused on research and teaching in molecular and cellular biology or biochemistry. Elizabeth wants the chance to be creative and innovative, and would like to make a lasting, visible contribution in her work.

SHARON TROMPETER, a single parent of two boys, has combined the challenge of mother, wage-earner, and student! Sharon, who loves academia, is pleased to be pursuing her lifelong dream of becoming a teacher, thus fulfilling her desire of many years to return to school and earn a degree. She is particularly enjoying her Spanish classes and wants to become a bilingual teacher (she volunteered in her children's classes and knows she enjoys working with children).

We wish all of these women much success and personal fulfillment in their studies at C.U.

By this time, you will have received your new directory. Editor Karen Diamond asks that you make the following corrections, and apologizes to those concerned:

February 1992

Dear Members:

Hope your winter recess was both re-energizing and fun! However, it's nice to be back on a schedule again.

I am delighted with the results of our Golden Gala Winter Party held December 20 in the Glenn Miller Ballroom. It was a beautiful evening (and I got to dance with two of my sons!)

On January 17, Professors Dennis Jackson and Richard Boldrey of the College of Music, and their talented students, outdid themselves in entertaining us. What exquisite music and glorious voices! Dr. Boldrey, by the way, was formerly with the Lyric Opera of Chicago.

The lecture-luncheon series resumes February 11 when we will hear Dr. Dorothea El-Mallukh speak on women in the Middle East, and the last luncheon of the year brings back Professors Anne Costain, Roberta Flexer and Marcia Westcott on March 10, "by popular demand."

The nominating committee has developed a slate of officers for 1993-94, who serve on next year's Board as officers-elect. Election of officers this year will be held at our March 10 luncheon, where nominations may be made from the floor. (See page 2)

Wishing you a WONDERFUL year,

*Claudine Garby,
UWC President*

LECTURE/LUNCHEON

Dr. Dorothea El-Mallukh, Director of the International Research Center for Energy and Economic Development, will be featured speaker at our next lecture-luncheon program. Dr. El-Mallukh's topic, "The Role of Women in the Middle East," is in keeping with what Program Chair Eloise Pelton has described (as our goal for the lectures this year) as "an examination of evolving roles of women in modern society."

Our February speaker has published extensively on the Middle East from where she recently has returned from one of her many trips to the area.

The lecture-luncheon will be held Tuesday, February 11, 1992 at 11:30 a.m. in the UMC Aspen Room. Reservations are necessary and must be made by February 7. Seating is limited to 48.

Fee for the luncheon has been increased to $7. Rhoda Nozik informs us UMC has found it necessary to raise the price of its services this year.

Make your $7 check payable to the University Women's Club and send to:

NOMINATING COMMITTEE REPORT

This year's nominating committee announces the following slate of officers for 1993-94:

President:	Rhoda Nozik
Treasurer:	Ellen Gille
Secretary:	Rachel Homer

Election of officers will be held at the final lecture-luncheon on March 10 in the UMC Aspen Room.

Nominating Committee members are:

*Karen Diamond, Chair
June Krantz
Penny Kisslinger
Caryl Kassoy

MUSIC EVENING

About 50 members and their guests braved cold weather for an entertaining evening of music January 17 in the intimate, recently remodeled Music Theater of the College of Music. Directed by Professors Dennis Jackson and Richard Boldrey, accompanist, award-winning music students presented a program of excerpts from operas and music theater. Dr. Jackson is Director and Dr. Boldrey, Associate Director of the Lyric Theater Program. (There's a promise of a repeat next January!)

A bonus was to hear about their wonderful upcoming programs: West Side Story, Dialogue of the Carmelites, H.M.S. Pinafore, and A Little Night Music.

A special thanks to members who baked for the event, to Eloise Pelton, Rhoda Nozik, Claudine Garby, Imelda Hermes and Norma Bowes, and to Michael Nash, the theater's technical director.

U. W. C. GETAWAY

The Places of Interest Group will go on a "Mountain Retreat" the weekend of February 28-29 and March 1, at the Rocky Mountain Y-Camp near Estes Park. Participants will meet at the Y-Camp Friday afternoon or evening, and stay until after breakfast on Sunday. They will be housed in cabins in groups of five to seven.

"This is a time to be away from our daily routines, a time for personal retreat," says Chair Marilee Dunn. Tentative plans include two formal sessions on "life as a subject" on Saturday morning and again on Saturday night.

Afternoons can be spent cross-country skiing (bring your own skis), swimming (in the heated pool), ice skating, roller skating, or just taking walks in the beautiful natural setting away from the "madding crowd!" (Be sure to bring warm clothing.)

Cost will be approximately $50 for the weekend (money will be refunded and event rescheduled should there be bad weather and road closures.) Also, you will be asked to contribute an item of food for either lunch or dinner Saturday. Carpools will be organized for the drive to the camp.

Call Marilee Dunn, 449-1055, by February 10 if you are interested in attending.

WINTER PARTY

This year's Winter Party, December 20, in the Glenn Miller Ballroom, with its theme of A Golden Gala, drew a crowd of 250 elegant party-goers, dancing to the big band music of the John Williams Orchestra. The decorations were wonderful, desserts and wines delicious, and we've already booked John Williams and his band for next year's party, according to Karen Diamond.

Co-chairs Karen Diamond and Bev Irons thank the planning committee: Brenda Geers, Ros Pfaff, Eloise Pelton, Edith Dell'Apa, Heather Southwick, and Marilyn Peltzer for keeping the finances in order. They are also grateful to the greeters and decorators and to the club for its continued support.

Dear UWC Friends,

Our last lecture-luncheon of the year will be held on March 10. Speakers will be Professors Anne Costain, Roberta Flexer and Marcia Westcott who spoke to us last Fall as part of our ongoing series of looking at the evolving roles of women in modern society. (Election of officers will be held at this time.) Dr. Dorothea El Mallakh, who spoke at our February luncheon, gave us an intriguing and perplexing profile of Middle Eastern women.

The Spring Fashion Show, chaired by Marilyn Peltzer and Roslyn Pfaff and featuring fashions by Ann Taylor, Eddie Bauer and Fashion Focus, is rapidly approaching. We are excited about this annual event, the purpose of which is to raise money for scholarships for women and to help the library. (See story, page 2.)

The annual Tri-Boards meeting for the outgoing Executive Board, the incoming 1992-93 Board and the '93-'94 Board-elect is scheduled for May. This year's Board members will provide a UWC Program overview, orientation, and evaluation for help in planning for next year.

On Thursday, May 7, from 1:30 to 3:30 pm, we will be honoring retirees, scholarship recipients, committee members and outgoing board members at an Honors Tea in the President's home, 3600 Caddo Parkway. We will also be installing our new officers. Should be a lovely way to end the year! Parking is limited, so please carpool as much as possible.

See you March 10th.

LECTURE-LUNCHEON

The first three speakers in our series on women's issues this year return to us for our last lecture-luncheon of the year, Tuesday, March 10, at 11:30 am in the UMC Aspen Room.

Dr. Anne Costain, Political Science Professor, Dr. Roberta Flexer, Associate Professor of Math. Education, and Dr. Marcia Westcott, Director, Women's Studies, will speak on "Women's Issues: Q & A". Dr. Costain is an expert on the political history of the women's movement; Dr. Flexer is an expert on equity issues at C.U.; and Dr. Westcott deals across the board with all issues affecting women.

Program Chair Eloise Pelton informs us the speakers will serve as a panel, moderated by Professor Westcott. Members of the club are invited to bring their own concerns and questions about women's issues (remember, a lot has been happening this past year!) that can be addressed by our speakers. The room has been reserved for extra time to give everyone an opportunity to participate. This will be a lively discussion and an event you won't want to miss!

Election of Officers for 1993-94 will be held at our closing Lecture-Luncheon on March 10th.

Our secretary, Marcia Ellwood, has generously donated a $20 gift certificate from Kinko's to UWC . . .

In appreciation to the College of Music for its free Music Evening on January 17, UWC made up the difference of $137.50 for expenses for the evening's program, to $150 ($300 was budgeted), and donated this amount to the Lyric Scholarship Fund of the College . . .

Projects' Chair Betty Bonde needs some help for the Meals on Wheels Program as follows:

- One batch of three dozen cookies in April
- Two batches of three dozen cookies in May

Call Betty at 443-1767 if you can help with this worthwhile project.

Remaining UWC Executive Board meetings for this year are as follows:

Tri-Board meeting is scheduled for May 26, place not yet definite.

Scholarship Fund Chair Caryl Kassoy and her committee will be reviewing applications for UWC scholarships as deadline for applicants is March 1. Support of our Spring Fashion Show on April 28 results in determining how much money is available for scholarships and how many can be given.

APRIL 1992

Dear UWC Friends,

Am I glad our last lecture-luncheon was March 10th, and not March 9th! Wasn't that a super snowstorm? And what a great lecture-luncheon series! Kudos to Eloise Pelton and Rhoda Nozik for arranging it.

At the March 10th luncheon, the following slate of officers were elected for 1993-94:

President: Rhoda Nozik
Secretary: Rachel Homer
Treasurer: Ellen Gille

Your executive board recently voted to develop an alliance with the Women Studies Program housed in Cottage #1 (Program Director is Marcia Westcott, one of our luncheon speakers). This will be a wonderful project for our club (see Page 2 for more information).

Fashion Show Chairs Ros Pfaff and Marilyn Peltzer and their committees are busily preparing this year's event April 28th. I hope you are inviting friends to attend with you.

Our last function of '91-'92 is the Honors Tea on May 7th at the home of President Albino. Don't forget to carpool as parking is limited. Can't believe how quickly the year is unfolding -- only one MSages after this!

See you at the Fashion Show.

Claudine Garby,
UWC President

SPRING FASHION SHOW

PASSPORT TO FASHION, our Spring Fashion Show, featuring Ann Taylor, Eddie Bauer, Inc. and Fashion Focus, will be held in the Glenn Miller Ballroom, Tuesday, April 28. Co-chairs are Ros Pfaff and Marilyn Peltzer, and proceeds will benefit the Scholarship Fund for Women.

Men's and women's fashions will be shown with emphasis on a travel wardrobe (you'll want to see what some of the University's BEST DRESSED MEN are wearing!) Door prizes amounting to over $2,000 will be given away and, in keeping with the show's theme, you may win a $100 gift certificate from the UMC Office of James Travel for travel on Continental Airlines.

Invite all your friends and make your reservations as soon as possible (deadline is APRIL 22nd). Tickets are $25 ($10 is tax deductible). Make checks out to University Women's Club and mail with reservations to:

Alice Doyle, 777 Gapter Road
Boulder, CO 80303

Those wishing to sit together should send their checks in one envelope designating whose table they are sharing. Tickets will be mailed to sender if a stamped, self-addressed envelope is enclosed. Otherwise, they may be picked up at a table outside the Glenn Miller Lounge the day of the show. Parking is available in the lot east of UMC.

A wine reception in the lounge precedes the show; doors to the ballroom open at 11:45 a.m. and lunch will be served at noon.

UNIVERSITY WOMEN'S CLUB FINDS A HOME

The UWC Board of Directors has approved a plan which affords the club the opportunity and privilege to assist the University in rescuing one of its original 19th Century buildings.

The Women's Cottage, circa 1884.

Cottage Number One, built in 1884 as a women's dormitory, is one of the most historically significant buildings in Boulder; yet, its future is in peril because of serious structural problems in the foundation. Now home of the Women Studies Program, the Cottage may yet have a long and useful life if rehabilitation plans can soon be underway.

Women Studies Director Marcia Westcott believes that our support and advice will not only give the C.U. Foundation's fundraising effort the extra boost that it needs in terms of exposure and access in the community, but can be the beginning of an ongoing advisory relationship with the Women Studies Program. It is Dr. Westcott's intent that the restored cottage be known as the Women's Building, and that its new Library/Commons be available for use by all UWC members.

The next time you are driving down Broadway south from University Boulevard, or walking on campus west of the Theater and Dance Building, notice the charming Victorian cottage with its character-defining carpenter style features still very much intact, and picture the possible future home of UWC!

We'll keep you informed as the project develops and our role becomes more clearly defined. The possibilities for us to make a real difference on our campus, to establish a valuable connection, and to reap wonderful long-term rewards are enormous. Questions that can't wait?? Call Eloise Pelton, 444-8085.

The May Issue of MSages will be the last for Academic Year '91-'92.

A & S CENTENNIAL

The College of Arts and Sciences Centennial will be observed next year with a variety of events. The Women Studies Program has an interesting idea in mind for its part in the celebration and has invited us to participate.

A & S women alums will be invited to campus to tell what it was like to be a student at C.U. at whatever period they attended. A model will be developed in the form of a concentric circle and participants will, as in a Greek play, act as both audience and performers. As Dr. Marcia Westcott of Women Studies ably puts it: We are the stories we tell.

Call the program office, 492-8923, if you are

Chairpersons of each Interest Group should turn in her report to General Interest Group Chair Doris Goodrich. Reports are also requested from chairs of special functions (e.g., Music Program, Fashion Show, Honors Tea) and from the Scholarship Fund and Student Loans. President Claudine Garby reminds us that these reports are not only needed by members filling Executive Board positions in the next and future years, but they are a part of the history of UWC.

Art Forum is a "look, listen, and talk" Interest Group whose members are endeavoring to promote communication with and about artists and their art. We've developed an alternating pattern of visits to the studios of individual artists and to museum or gallery exhibits. Sometimes a member will provide an "art enrichment" program that is the result of her individual research on a particular artist.

On Tuesday, April 21, the Art Forum Group will visit the Museum of Western Art in Denver. The museum features paintings and bronzes by Bierstadt, Russell, Remington, and others. Admission is $2.50. University Women's Club

MAY 1992

Dear Members of UWC,

The redbud and flowering almond are all abloom, signalling the end of another UWC year! Hard to believe -- it has flown by so quickly.

The last club meeting is our "Honors Tea", scheduled for Thursday, May 7, 1:30 to 3:00 pm, at President Judith Albino's home. Members who are retiring or whose husbands are retiring will be recognized. We wish them the best. In addition, we shall be acknowledging the work of the outgoing Executive Board members and all those wonderful behind-the-scenes people who served on committees and on Interest and Service groups this year. A wholehearted "thank you" from all of the UWC members and from me! We will also be welcoming the new Executive Board and we wish them a happy and fruitful year.

The planning and production of the Fashion Show is a horrendous task, one which starts many months before the actual date. We all benefit from the labor of many generous and hardworking people, but best of all, that labor helps a few young women continue their education. This year's Fashion Show was great! Special thanks go to the co-leaders of this enterprise: Marilyn Peltzer and Roslyn Pfaff. They were assisted by many willing helpers. Well done!

We are especially grateful to all the generous donors who furnished our many door prizes for the Fashion Show. Weren't the models wonderful?!!

This spring, the UWC Scholarship was awarded to Ann May, a sophomore in anthropology whose future plans include graduate school in ethnographic research. Our scholarship will be of help to her next year, when she participates in an exchange program in Africa. The Scholarship Committee, led by Caryl Kassoy, included Beverly Irons, Lavonne Casteel and Deborah Taylor. Thank you for your care in reviewing the many requests and making some hard but carefully considered choices. This was not an easy task. Good job!

With the help of many people, we more than met our objectives this year: to promote friendship among our members, to strengthen our bonds of common interests, to help our university, and to serve our community. UWC has a great future as it strives to help its members continue to explore their potential. The lecture-luncheon series is a catalyst which challenges us to do and be more than we envisioned. Our connection with the Women Studies Program will be a terrific resource for us as we continue our quest.

This has been a lovely year, one which I shall always cherish. Thank you all for being so supportive and encouraging!

Sincerely,

*Claudine Garby
UWC President
1991-92*

FASHION SHOW ANSWERS WHAT TO WEAR FOR TRAVEL DILEMMA

What to wear for travel always poses a troubling question, but this was fashionably answered at our spring show, PASSPORT TO FASHION, April 28, in the UMC Glenn Miller Ballroom. The stores -- Ann Taylor, Eddie Bauer, Inc. and Fashion Focus -- put together diverse offerings, suitable for travel, complete with accessories. We are grateful to them, and particularly to Dean Smith of Eddie Bauer, Inc., Mary Lou Carnegie of Ann Taylor, and Cheryl Hennig of Fashion Focus, for their time and energy in making this enjoyable event happen. Thanks, too, to Cheryl Kamas, Backstage Fashion Coordinator, who came to us highly recommended.

Kudos to our models for their wonderful performance: Sal Albino, Robert D. Culp, James A. Hansen, Charles Middleton, Stuart Takeuchi, James Williams, Karen Diamond, Marilee Dunn, Joan Lee Mikulas, Amy Bonde, Betty Culp, Ann Owen, Deanne Owen, Nancy Levitt, Nan-wie Su, Patricia Moore, Pat Orton, Maria Rogers, Judy Maiocco, Marta Williams and Hazel Marable.

A highlight of the show was the many varied and fun door prizes. Special thanks to Caryl Kassoy for tickets from the Colorado Music Festival; to Claudine Garby for the Waterford crystal (a gift from Lord & Taylor), to Heather Southwick and her able committee of Gertie Phelps, Maria Rogers and Susan Thomas for their door prize acquisitions, and to Cheryl Hennig of Fashion Focus and her business network for over $2,000 worth of additional prizes.

Accolades to Mitzi Baier and her committee of Marge Myers, Mary Kelso and Margaret Mason for the design concept and production of table decor, and to June Krantz for ballroom decorations. Last, but by no means least, our gratitude extends to the following Fashion Show Committee members: Alice Doyle, Marcia Elwood, Mame Irwin, Karen Diamond, Norma Bowes, Imelda Hermes, Vinita Sturgeon, Marilee Dunn, Edith Dell'Apa, Louise Grimes, Robin Warner, Dorothy Bundy, Fran Dickinson, Penny Kisslinger, Betty Bonde, Rosemary McBride and Doris Goodrich.

It should be noted that the Fashion Show each year enables the club to provide women's scholarships. This would not be possible without the active support of each member.

Our thanks to all,
Marilyn Peltzer, Ros Pfaff
Co-chairs

Retirees to be honored May 7:

Christine Goble, whose husband, George, is retiring from CEA Engineering, and Joan Knaub, a UWC past president, whose husband, Richard, is retiring from the Department of Theater and Dance.

MSages is a monthly publication of UWC.
The May issue is the final edition for 1991-92.

Edith Dell'Apa, Editor, thanks Imelda Hermes for mailing; Karen Diamond for providing labels; and Doris Goodrich for her help with Interest Groups' News.

STUDENT LOAN FUND

Each year, 10 to 15 students with emergency needs are given interest-free loans from the University Women's Club. These students are screened by Barbara Margolis in the Multi-cultural Center for Counseling and Community Development. Janet Nuzum writes the checks and manages the account as a service to the club.

This fund was started in the '30s by members of the Faculty Women's Club (now UWC) with donations of 50¢ and $1. The first three loans were $7, $13 and $17. Today, the maximum loan is $15.

Over the years, this fund has grown to around $4,000, and has been a great help to several hundred students in time of need.

MEET NEXT YEAR'S PRESIDENT...

Three short years ago, Eloise Pelton came to our annual Fall Membership Tea. Rosemary McBride, then co-president with Jennifer Miller, met and spoke to her briefly. Rosemary says she knew instantly that here's a talented person, with boundless energy, and above all, creativity at its best. Rosemary asked Eloise -- and Eloise accepted -- to chair one of our ambitious annual events: THE FASHION SHOW. Eloise could meet the challenge but knew only so few of us. We who worked with her were soon enveloped in a work force of -- again -- talent, energy, and (that word again) CREATIVITY. The Fashion Show plans took off and it was a great success.

Then, there was no art appreciation activity within the Interest Groups, and together with another talented member, Marilee Dunn, Eloise formed the Art Forum interest group which keeps drawing "outside members" from other groups because of their programs. The icing on the cake was her bringing to us a most interesting and provocative series of luncheon speakers last year as program chair. Now, just ahead, we look forward to her presidency for 1992-93. Simultaneously, she will continue as a member of the Colorado Chautauqua Association Board. (And, then, there's son, Alexander, at home -- a senior at Boulder High next fall.)

Eloise leads a rather sedate life here in our fair city as compared to what she left behind. She and husband, Joseph, came to Boulder in 1989 when he accepted the directorship of the Interdisciplinary Telecommunications Program. They had lived in the Washington, D.C. area 24 years. Eloise had to leave her position of Visual Arts Director of the Arlington County Cultural Affairs office; also, she was serving on the Arlington County and the Virginia State Arts and Humanities Commissions. She served on Advisory and Task Force Committees to the Arlington County School Board and was involved in arts education in Arlington schools.

Eloise received her undergraduate degree from the University of Tulsa in American Studies. She met her husband while she was editor of the year book and he was president of the Student Senate. They were married in Tulsa and moved to New York City where she became fashion writer for Seventeen magazine while he got his Master's degree from NYU. He chose Georgetown University for his doctorate and while she attended there part-time, she worked for the Library of Congress.

The Peltons will be attending daughter Emily's June 9th graduation from Princeton, with a Master's degree in International Affairs. Their younger daughter, Elaine, is finishing her freshman year at Emerson College in Boston, and plans to transfer to the College of Santa Fe next fall.

Eloise plans to involve her Board in an aggressive membership recruitment policy next year, as well as in active participation of the Women Studies Program restoration project.
