SEPTEMBER 1994

THE UNIVERSITY OF COLORADO AT BOULDER

Dear UWC Friends:

Where has all the time gone? I thought I would have all summer long to write and rewrite my first greeting to you, but the days have just flashed before my eyes! I hope you have had a glorious, fun-filled, lazy, what-ever-you wanted summer. I for one had a most unusual experience which taught me a very important lesson. You know the old saying: "it's never too late to learn?" Please allow me to indulge myself.

After moving to Boulder in 1986, my two sons and husband participated for three years in the Denver Post "Ride The Rockies" Bike Tour. For the past four years, they designed their own more grueling four-day tour with 35 or so other local crazies. This is their thing. I wish them a safe trip as I ponder my to do list; Item number one: close the door to the kitchen.

The tour itinerary is made months in advance and money is paid up front for the food, support van, motel accommodations, etc.. You can imagine the consternation in our family when, two days before departure, son Andrew announces that he cannot participate in the last two days of the trip because his summer research project commands his presence in the lab. "No refunds," the tour director says. "No problem," I say without thinking. "I'll go! I'll ride what I can ride and flag down the van when I've had enough." The arrangements are made. I am to meet the tour Thursday afternoon in Antonito, Colorado. Andrew will take my mountain bike out of the car, put in his streamline, light-as-a-feather touring bike and drive back to Denver the following morning.

Thursday a.m. I run to Performance Bike Shop to buy the required black girdle. I shall use Andrew's helmet and gloves. My Visha Sedlack walking shoes are perfect just in case I want to "walk" a little of the ride. I'm ready!

Friday a.m. Andrew's last minute tip as he's strapping my shoes into the pedals, "keep your back flat and remember one turn at a time!" What does that mean, I wonder as I suddenly realize I have started the 62 miles, 2 mountain pass tour to Chama, NM. (The longest ride I've ever taken was eight leisurely miles on the Boulder Creek bike path.)

You can guess the rest of the story. I finished day one and, believe it or not, (I still don't), I rode all of day two, a 100 mile century ride to Taos. After ten and a half mind numbing hours, I knew exactly what "one turn at a time meant". I also learned what it means to have the wind in your favor.

The lesson? You can guess that, too. You don't know what you are capable of until you try. Had I not made it, and I was certainly prepared not to, I still would have the satisfaction of knowing I was still game to try something new, to challenge myself. It was a real psychological journey!

I would like to ask you to take "the trip" this year. Become an involved member of the UWC. There are many facets of our organization which can challenge you physically and mentally. No, I'm not starting an interest group for biking, but I am inviting you to participate in one or more of the 23 interest groups, 10 service projects, four lecture/luncheon series. There is much to enjoy, many intelligent women with whom to share your ideas and many ways to serve our community. Your UWC Board and chairpersons are already working diligently to prepare a stimulating year. Read all about our activities in our monthly Messages. I'm looking forward to this exciting tour!

UNIVERSITY WOMEN'S CLUB

OCTOBER 1994

THE UNIVERSITY OF COLORADO AT BOULDER

Notes from the President:

The Fall Membership Luncheon was a smashing success and was enjoyed by over 135 women. Special thanks to Reba Pope, mother of President Judith Albino, for her eloquent greetings from the President; to Pat Holmberg and Sharon Cundiff for their delightful music; to Caryl Kassoy for her excellent job in planning this event; and to Ellen Gille and Marion Ramirez for organizing the Interest Groups.

We were honored to introduce Cathy Park, the wife of CU Boulder's newest chancellor, Roderic Park, to those attending the Membership Luncheon. Cathy is the latest addition to our list of Honorary Co-Presidents of UWC and is a member of the Executive Board. We welcome Cathy and her family to our community and hope that we provide her with intellectual and social stimulation and lasting friendships.

The UWC Scholarship Fund was established in 1982. The scholarships are funded by individual donations and money raised at our annual Spring Fashion Show and are awarded to women whose education had earlier been interrupted and now wish to complete their degrees. It is a pleasure to report that the UWC was able to award two scholarships in May, 1994. The first recipient was Inis Clubs, receiving $1,000 and the second recipient was Andrea Udomcharoensuk, receiving $500.

A reminder to send your dues to Marcia Elwood. We don't want to miss placing your name in our directory which will be published soon. The membership form is printed in this issue for your convenience.

I have a friend whose kitchen looks like the house described in My Brother's Keeper. The conversation with her goes like this: "Why haven't you been to any Club activities?" "Oh, I didn't know about them. I didn't get my Messages." "Are you sure it's not buried in one of those stacks?" I encourage you to peruse our newsletters as soon as they arrive. We try to keep them brief and to the point so they won't get added to a pile. We want you to enjoy all that we have to offer.

Karen Diamond
UWC President, 1994-95

Winter Party '94 - GAUDY NIGHT - Friday, November 18, 1994

"The worst sin - perhaps the only sin - passion can commit, is to be joyless."

Dorothy L. Sayers, Gaudy Night

Imagine that for just one evening our world of academe is far from the foothills of the Rocky Mountains. It's 1935, and we're gathered for an evening of camaraderie, music, fine food, and drinks in the Senior Common Room of the fictional Shrewsbury College at Oxford University. Lord Peter Wimsey and Harriet Vane are here too, of course - just in case anything strange or mysterious happens!

Writer Dorothy L. Sayers drew on her own experiences as a student in Oxford's first female college, Somerville, to create Gaudy Night, her masterpiece of classic British mystery. If you are a Sayers fan, then you are most certainly a fan of Lord Peter and Harriet, who with brains, wit and style are able to fathom solutions to the puzzles of many of Sayers' wonderful tales. They will join us for a very British dinner (can you solve the mystery of who the impersonators will be?), the dance music of the John Williams Orchestra, English desserts and, of course, the concluding fine port and sherry.

Note! Dinner is a new option this year. You may come at 7:00 p.m. for dinner or may choose instead to come for music and dessert only - from 8:00 p.m. to midnight. Invitations, with all the necessary details, will be in the mail by mid-October.

We are truly grateful to our campus administrators for their support of this UWC event. They want us to enjoy it, so make our very own wonderful party a part of your November plans! Questions? Call Eloise Pelton, 444-8085.

Notes from the President:

Our annual Lecture Luncheon Series founded five years ago by then President Marilee de Goede had a successful start on October 11th. The lunches just keep getting better and better and if you see me on the bike path, you'll know why! Many thanks yet again to Caryl Kassoy for her great efforts in organizing the distinguished panelists: Gordon Sanford representing the CU faculty, Christine Johnson from the Colorado Commission for Higher Education, State Representative Norma Anderson, Regent Kathy Arnold and moderator Richard Harpel, Assistant Vice President for Academic Affairs. The panel discussion on the topic, "An Inside View of CU" was certainly stimulating and informative. Our next guest for the November 8th Lecture Luncheon will be Ceal Barry, Head Coach of Women's Basketball. May I encourage you to come a few minutes before 11:30 so that we may enjoy an unhurried lunch and give adequate time to the speaker? Details of this event can be found in this issue.

A committee comprised of Rhoda Nozik, Claudine Garby and myself, met to review the UWC Constitution and By-Laws and made a report and recommendations to the Executive Board at the October meeting. The revisions as approved by the Board shall be presented to the membership in November for their review. In order to save on postage, the documents will be given to the various interest groups for further distribution. The membership will then vote on these revisions at the last Lecture Luncheon on March 14. If the proposed changes are accepted by a two-thirds vote of the members present, said changes will be incorporated into the Constitution and By-Laws in May. Should you have any concerns or questions, please give me a call.

On a much lighter note: Eloise Pelton and her committee are "out doing" themselves in planning the Winter Party and we are in store for a truly lovely evening November 18! Can you imagine the surprises Eloise is dreaming up? Check for details on this page and put your reservations in the mail. CU at the Gaudy Night!

UWC President, 1994-95

COACH CEAL BARRY
WOMEN'S BASKETBALL
11:30 a.m. to 1:00 p.m.

Coach Barry, the winningest coach in CU women's basketball history, has taken the Colorado Women's Basketball program into the national spotlight over her 11 year tenure in Boulder. For the seventh-straight season, the team has finished in the top three of the conference, ending the regular season at the top spot for the second-straight season with a 12-2 outing. Colorado advanced to the NCAA tournament for the fifth time under Barry's tutelage, returning to the Sweet 16 for the second consecutive year.

Her 1994 accomplishments, including a school record Number 7 national ranking, were recognized on the national level when she was named National Coach of the Year by the United States Basketball Writers Association and by Basketball America. These honors complemented her third Big Eight Coach of the Year award.

Notes from the President:

There are many members of UWC who work endlessly and tirelessly in order to make our organization and its special events run so successfully . . . their commitment is unfailing. I feel it is important to cite their names in Messages, not because they ask for thanks, but because I want these women to know how much their efforts are appreciated. The list is continuous so forgive me if I inadvertently omit someone here. I'll make it up in the next Messages.

Kudos and special thanks to:

Marcia Elwood for collecting dues, compiling membership records, generating labels for every mailing, publishing our directory and fine tuning computer programs that assist her in these tasks.

Carol Born, who on the 15th of every month, starts the process of compiling info, editing and publishing Messages.

Nanwei Su, who as Mailing Chair spends more time at the post office than a mail truck and counts labels at night instead of sheep.

President-Elect Caryl Kassoy, who plans the Membership Luncheon, the Honors Tea and the Lecture Luncheon Series. Thank you to all 38 of you who ventured out on that snowy November 8th to partake in the Thanksgiving feast and enjoy the relevant words of Coach Ceal Barry.

Brenda Geers, who as Hospitality Chair is forever behind the scenes coordinating the smallest details of each event as though it were going to take place in her own home.

Eloise Pelton and her committee: JoAnn Crandall, Marilee de Goede, Edith Dell'Apa, Brenda Geers, Ellen Gille, Ann Hayes, June Krantz and Mary Littman for the wonderful Winter Party. There were 150 reservations for this event, our largest gathering yet. The dinner was almost sold out which told us quite clearly this was an affair waiting to happen. What a grand idea, Eloise! Thank you to member Deborah Taylor and her husband, John, who were such good sports as Harriet Vane and Lord Peter Wimsey, the heroine and hero in Gaudy Night. A special thanks, too, to our many friends in the University and Boulder community who gave generously either with time or money to make the Winter Party a great success: to J.C. Ansell, Assistant Director of UMC, who has always been a great supporter of our activities; to Gerri Walters of UMC Catering; to Michael Nash, Technical Director of CU Lyric Theatre; to Chancellor Roderic Park and Vice-Chancellor Bruce Ekstrand for their financial support; to the Boulder Museum of History; and to Tim and Enid Schantz of the Rue Morgue Mystery Bookshop.

On October 27th, 19 of the 41 new UWC members attended a Newcomers Tea at my home and I think everyone had a lovely time! On behalf of the entire membership, I send greetings to all new members and invite you to become an active participant in our organization. We are trying to determine if there is a desire to start a Newcomers Interest Group with meetings perhaps two or three times a year. If you have such an interest, please call me at 939-8656 (leave a message should I not be home).

Best wishes to you and your families for a Happy and Healthy Holiday Season.

THE UNIVERSITY OF COLORADO AT BOULDER

Notes from the President:

HAPPY NEW YEAR!

The UWC promises an enjoyable and enlightening year starting with a special luncheon meeting on January 10th in the Aspen Room at the UMC to learn about the renovation of Cottage #1. We have invited Anne Marie Kemp, CU Foundation Development Officer; Diane Greenlee, Co-chair of the Cottage Renovation and Carroll Bowman, CU Foundation Major Gifts Officer to speak to us about this important service project and discuss how our involvement can benefit the renovation and eventually benefit UWC. May I encourage our membership to attend? Please look for details inside this Messages.

Rosa Cyrus-Goetz has resigned her position as Treasurer-Elect for 1995-96. Ellen Gille has accepted the nomination to be Treasurer-Elect for this term. A vote by our membership is required at our next general meeting which will be on January 10th. Additional nominations will be accepted from the floor.

UWC has a date with Professor Dennis Jackson and the wonderful CU Lyric Music students on February 3rd for an evening of song. This is the fourth year that Edith Dell'Apa has chaired this lovely event. Admission is free and light refreshments will be served. Please look for details inside Messages and contact Edith if you will help with refreshments or serving.

Don't forget to make your reservations by February 3rd for our next Lecture/Luncheon. Professor Patricia Limerick of the History Department will speak to us on February 14th.

The revised UWC Constitution and By-Laws have been given to the Interest Group chairs for distribution in January. You may also receive your copy at the luncheon on January 10th or the music program on February 3rd. The membership will vote on the revisions at the last Lecture/Luncheon on March 14th. If the proposed changes are accepted by a two-thirds vote of the members present, said changes will be incorporated into the Constitution and By-Laws in May. Should you have any concerns or questions, please give me a call.

I'm looking forward to being with you at our various events.

Karen Diamond
UWC President 1994-95

P.S. Special thanks to June Krantz for the fantastic banners she single-handedly made for the "Gaudy Night" Winter Party. They really added greatly to the ambiance of the Ballroom.

Our next newsletter will be a combined issue for the months of February and March. The deadline for this issue will be January 15, so plan ahead for any March announcements.

FEBRUARY/MARCH 1995

THE UNIVERSITY OF COLORADO AT BOULDER

Notes from the President:

I was most pleased with the attendance at the January 10th Women's Cottage #1 luncheon at the UMC. Please read Beverly Irons' comprehensive review in this Messages. The UWC Board will be discussing, in the month to come, our participation. We welcome your comments.

The Nominating Committee is developing a slate of officers for 1996-97. The committee members are Marcia Elwood, Chair, Claudine Garby, Marilyn Peltzer, Pat Roll, and Beverly Evans. Election of officers this year will be held at our March 14 luncheon, where nominations may be made from the floor.

Nominations are now being accepted for the UWC Honors Award. The award recognizes individual women who are good role models and exercise great initiative in their jobs, and, who, by the very nature of their exceptional accomplishments, bring honor to all women and the University. Nominations are invited from such diverse groups as the faculty, staff, students, alumni, and UWC members. The nomination deadline is March 6th. Award winners will be feted at a tea held at the CU President's home on May 2, 1995. To make a nomination or request further information, call members of the Honors Tea Committee: Caryl Kassoy, 494-9017, Chair, Brenda Geers, 939-8636, Beverly Irons, 449-6560, Claudine Garby, 499-4062 or Karen Diamond, 939-8656.

BIA - Boulder in Action! Keep our Spring Fashion Show theme in mind. Plans for the show, co-chaired by Joan Lee Mikulas and Rosa Cyrus-Goetz, are well under way. The date (which will not be changed), Tuesday, April 18th, is rapidly approaching. Details and invitations will be forthcoming, but in the meantime, mark your calendars. We are excited about this event, the purpose of which is to raise money for scholarships for women. Participating stores will be Banana Republic, Gart Brothers, Jila, J. J. Wells, Robert Schmidt, and Zippity-Do-Da.

UWC SCHOLARSHIP

One of the recipients of our scholarships, Andrea Udomcharoensuk, has written us this letter to inform us of her progress.

Dear Members of the UWC:

I hope you all enjoyed the Christmas holidays and are ready for a great new year. I am happy to report to the club that my fall semester grades are in and that I am continuing to maintain a 3.8 GPA. I had a busy, but productive semester and anticipate an even busier one this spring while I complete my student teaching. I am teaching at Aurora-7 in Boulder, in a second grade class. After being certified this coming May, I will continue on a Masters in Literacy which I began working on this fall.

I would like to thank the University Women's Club again for your generous support of my educational endeavors. Your scholarship has been of tremendous help to me. Best wishes to you all in 1995.

*Sincerely,
Andrea Udomcharoensuk*

In our next newsletter, we will hear about the other scholarship recipient, Inis Clubs. Our primary fund-raiser for our scholarships is the Spring Fashion Show. However, donations can be made at any time, either at the Lecture/Luncheon Series or by mailing a check to our treasurer, Marilyn Peltzer, 75 Ridge Road, Boulder 80303.

WOMEN'S COTTAGE #1 LUNCHEON

Maybe you haven't noticed the charming gingerbread trim and decorative ironwork of the little house on campus next to the Economics Building. You can't get a good look at it from your car buzzing by on Broadway. But if you walk along that particular section of sidewalk, you will discover one of the unpolished gems of the CU Boulder campus.

Women's Cottage #1 was built in two phases, in 1884 and 1885, to house women students. Cottage #1 is the last of the four original women's dormitories on campus. The dining hall could seat 100 people when the building was first occupied. In 1910, Cottage #1 was the home of two student organizations, the YWCA and Women's League. The Home Economics Department occupied the second floor in 1920. Currently, the building is the home of the Women's Studies Program and provides classroom and office space for the English Department. This building has a rich history, and the CU Foundation has a plan to save it from deterioration and restore it as a historic landmark on the Boulder campus. Twenty-five club members and other interested women met for lunch on January 10th to discuss the funding of the renovation of Women's Cottage #1. A representative of the CU Foundation, Diane Greenlee, told the history of the building, described the necessary work, and explained the progress of the project. Research on the renovation of Cottage #1 began in 1989. Subsequently, a plan was approved by the CU Board of Regents and the appropriate Legislative committees. Foundation Officer, Carroll Bowman, distributed copies of the proposed conceptual floor plan for the building. The renovation will result in a beautiful historic structure that satisfies the needs of modern educators and meets the state guidelines for campus buildings. Plans include excavation of the basement for additional storage, repair of a deteriorating and inadequate foundation, and landscaping to correct a drainage problem. The building will be renovated to satisfy current building codes and provide access to the handicapped. Original woodwork, fireplaces, and the beautiful curved balustrade will be preserved. The interior of the building will be returned as closely to 1885 conditions as funds allow.

Projected cost for the renovation of Women's Cottage #1 is $1,000,000, explained Foundation Development Officer, Anne Marie Kemp. A fund raising steering committee first met in March, 1993, and began the process of securing the money necessary for the preservation of this important building. They are currently negotiating large gifts which will total $800,000. In addition, the committee has secured a $100,000 matching grant from the Colorado Historical Society. They have contacted a number of organizations in an effort to come up with the money to match that grant. As an incentive, donations of various amounts in excess of $10,000 bring the opportunity to name a part of the building to honor an individual or group of the donor's choice.

Ms. Greenlee thanked us for the opportunity to present this project to the UWC, a group with a long history of dedication and service to the University. She said, historically, women have not seen themselves as donors, particularly not to a project of this type. The Foundation representatives emphasized the natural connection between CU women's history and our Club, which has been a part of the University community for 75 years. She encouraged us to discuss the role the UWC might play in raising funds to preserve Women's Cottage #1. Club President, Karen Diamond, agreed that we would explore the possibilities. President-elect, Caryl Kassoy, reminded us that the UWC Board voted to support this project two years ago.

Thanks to the efforts of the Foundation, Women's Cottage #1 will be restored. The CU Boulder campus building will once again sparkle and shine. What are your thoughts on the project? How do you feel about the possibility of the UWC "polishing" our campus gem? Club members who wish to make a donation or have ideas, suggestions or comments on this project, should contact President Karen Diamond or Board member Jane Butcher.

THE UNIVERSITY OF COLORADO AT BOULDER

Dear UWC Friends:

Our last lecture luncheon, March 14th, with Chancellor Roderic Park addressing 52 UWC members, was a terrific conclusion to a very successful series! Chancellor Park's lecture was entitled: Buffalo Futures: Are we buying long or selling short? Those who attended were not disappointed with Chancellor Park's most optimistic, informative and forthright message. We all learned that the Chancellor is by no means a man who minces his words. Kudos to President-Elect Caryl Kassoy for her great job arranging the series.

At the March 14th luncheon, the following slate of officers were elected for the 1996-97 academic year:

President-elect:	Toni Smokler
Treasurer-elect:	Imelda Hermes
Secretary-elect:	JoAnn Crandall

Congratulations to Toni, Imelda and JoAnn and best wishes for an outstanding term.

Our last function for this academic year is the Annual Honors Tea on May 2nd at the home of President Judith Albino. Invitations with all the details will be mailed shortly. We shall be honoring UWC retirees and recognizing the recipients of the UWC President's Award and our Annual Women's Award, The Margaret Willard Award.

The University Women's Club, originally named the Faculty Women's Club, was formed in 1919. Margaret Love Wheeler Willard was the organization's first president. After reviewing the extensive research report presented by member Beverly Irons, it became quite clear to the Board that our award should be named after Margaret Willard. She possessed every attribute our award seeks to honor: a superb intellect, a good role model, an ability to exercise great initiative, and, by virtue of her exceptional accomplishments, a capacity to bring honor to UCB women and the University of Colorado. Because this Messages could not accommodate Beverly's report, a complete copy will be printed in May.

The annual Tri-Boards meeting for the outgoing Executive Board, the incoming 1995-96 Executive Board and the 1996-97 Board-elect is scheduled for 11:00 A.M. on May 9th at my home. Following a pot-luck luncheon, this year's Board members will present year-end reports and assist incoming Board members in planning for next year.

Board members Jane Butcher and Eloise Pelton currently are developing a plan that will give our members the opportunity and privilege to assist the University in renovating Women's Cottage Number One. A detailed fund raising proposal will be presented in our May Messages. (Please refer to our February/March issue for a review of the Cottage project.)

BIA is ready for take-off on April 18th! Special thanks to Ann Hayes for donating long hours, artistic talent and computer skills and for producing a simply wonderful invitation. And thanks, also, to the CU Publications Office for donating the photographs used in the invitation. I hope to see you all at this marvelous event!

"The founding women of the Faculty Women's Club met informally from 1919 to 1924. The first meeting was held December 12, 1919, at the home of Mrs. George Norlin, wife of the fifth president of the University of Colorado. The first president of the club was Mrs. James Willard. By 1926, the membership included one hundred eighty-five in Boulder and one hundred forty-five in Denver. During these years the exchange of educational programs, such as Child Welfare Research, and social events with members of the School of Medicine Faculty Women's Club, was established as a tradition of this organization."

LYRIC MUSIC PROGRAM

With an attendance of about 150, and some twenty members contributing to refreshments, the Lyric Music Program on Friday evening, February 3, in the Imig Music Theater, was the most successful in its four-year history. Two former Lyric Theater Singers rejoined the group at the last minute when two regular members became ill and they entertained us with excerpts from their two spring productions: Hansel and Gretel and Street Scene. Accompanists were Dr. Robert Spillman, head of the piano faculty, and Dr. Mutsumi Moteki of Japan, a new faculty member this year.

Ashraf Sweilan, the Egyptian music student who played the lead role in Italian Girl in Algiers last fall, acted as lighting director. Michael Nash, the Lyric Theater Program's Technical Director, set up two refreshments' areas on either side of the stage which worked well to accommodate our audience. Members' response to providing a variety of baked goods, six gallons of apple cider, and paper cups and napkins was most gratifying. The Telephone Tree and Mailing Chair were also part of the planning committee.

Two years ago, the Lyric Theater Singers went on tour to the Orient, and, this summer, they will participate in a Chautauqua-like program that targets several small towns along the Front Range.

Again, so as not to conflict with the Boulder Bach Festival in late January, Dr. Dennis Jackson, Director of the Lyric Theater Program, and Chair Edith Dell'Apa, have set the next Music Program date for Friday evening, February 2, 1996.

UNIVERSITY WOMEN'S CLUB

MAY 1995

THE UNIVERSITY OF COLORADO AT BOULDER

Dear UWC Friends:

My "tour" is coming to an end and I can honestly tell you that the two days I spent biking the Colorado Rockies in the summer of '94 seem like an eternity compared to this year as president. It has been a fleeting year, one that I have enjoyed immensely and one that I will remember fondly. This "ride" was a downhill, wind-in-my-favor, experience! I had so much help "pedaling" from many talented and supportive women! Thank you to the 1994-95 Board, to the Interest Group chairs and to all the wonderful members of the UWC who, each in her own special way, has contributed to the growth and success of our organization.

Congratulations to Rosa Cyrus-Goetz and Joan Lee Mikulas for producing a "simplee maahvalous" Fashion Show! This event has become a truly spectacular production, showcasing the breadth of our members' unique capabilities year after year. Many thanks also to the energetic committee: Sylvia Campbell, Edith Dell'Apa, Nada Djuric, Doris Goodrich, Rosie Hauge, Anne Hayes, Imelda Hermes, Mame Irwin, Boyce Sher, Inge Peate, and to the members of the Garden Club who made all of the table arrangements for this year's show.

The UWC Scholarship was awarded to Ramona Gonzales, an honors student who has an eager eye on veterinary medicine school. The Scholarship Committee, led by Mame Irwin, included Jolene Quigley and Deborah Taylor. As always, there were many deserving students and we thank the committee members for the extreme care they took in identifying the one who was most worthy. And sincere thanks to the many women who gave generously to the Scholarship Fund.

I hope everyone will make your plans to attend the Annual Honors Tea on May 2nd at the home of President Judith Albino. We will be honoring the recipients of the Margaret Willard Award: Susan Avery, Ceal Barry, Karen Raforth, and Betty Walters and the recipient of the UWC President's Award: Claudine Garby. Please come help us celebrate the accomplishments of these outstanding women. We also will recognize UWC retirees and acknowledge the role each of them has played in serving the University. Reservations can be made by calling Brenda Geers or Rhoda Nozik.

Enclosed in this newsletter is a flyer that describes how each of us can have the honor and privilege of assisting in the renovation of Women's Cottage Number One. This is the only approach we will use to raise money for this exciting project - there will be no other fundraising events. Please review the flyer carefully and give this request your most sincere consideration. What a magnificent feather in the cap of the UWC if we could have 100% participation by our membership.

I wish you all a glorious summer, filled with all good things. My heartfelt thanks for a great year.

Fondly,
Karen Diamond
UWC President, 1994-95

YEARBOOKS

Yearbooks will be on sale at the Spring Fashion

This rendering of Cottage No. 1 by UWC member, artist Lillian Kennedy, is used by the CU Foundation in furthering the renovation project.

Since its construction in 1884, Cottage No. 1 has served as a gathering place for women. During the pioneer days of the University, the Cottage provided sleeping rooms for twelve women students, a bath, and an office for the chaperone. In 1902, Mary Elwell (later Mrs. Fred Folsom) described her life in the dormitory: "We had to furnish our own rooms. The only thing in them was a small stove for heat and to give us hot water. The University furnished a boy to carry wood and coal to the doors of our rooms . . . There was only one entertaining room, and it was very small. We used to fight to see who would get the room for the evening." At that time, the Women's League and the YWCA also used the Cottage and were soon joined by the Dean of Women who both worked and resided there. In 1924, the Cottage was renovated and became known as the Women's Building. It continued to serve as the only dormitory for women until the completion in 1934 of a larger women's residence hall. Since the 1930's, the Cottage has served as a center for various academic and administrative activities and is today the home of the Women Studies Program.

UWC has been supporting the efforts to renovate the Cottage since the announcement in 1992 that funds would have to be raised for serious corrective construction to insure a future for the building. Recently, a major contribution to the project was made by Commander James A. Woodruff, Jr., and that generous gift in honor of his deceased wife has resulted in the decision to name the cottage, "The Hazel Gates Woodruff Cottage for Women Studies".

Cottage No. 1, with its beautiful Victorian detailing, is certainly one of the most historically significant structures on the Boulder campus and is an important reminder to us all of the more than a century-long presence of women at the University of Colorado.

COTTAGE NUMBER ONE RENOVATION PROJECT

During its 76-year history, the University Women's Club has supported the University during many times of urgent need. Macky Auditorium, the CU Libraries, Wardenburg, the Alumni Center, as well as our own scholarships and loans, are programs that have benefited from UWC financial support. Since 1992, the UWC has participated in plans to rescue and preserve the 1884 site of the first women's dormitory. The CU Foundation must succeed in securing gifts and pledges of one million dollars by the end of 1995 to ensure that the project goes forward.

In February, 1995, the UWC Board voted to offer our membership the opportunity to participate in raising a targeted amount of $25,000 toward that goal. By reaching this target, we expect to be able to name some portion of the building. We ask each UWC member to make a gift or pledge. A $100 gift per family would allow us to meet our goal, but we welcome contributions in any amount. The CU Foundation will keep track of Club members' contributions and will mail acknowledgements to each contributor. If you have questions, please call Anne Marie Kemp at the Foundation Office (492-7889).

To ensure proper crediting of your TAX DEDUCTIBLE gift, please return this form to Cottage Renovation Fund, Arts and Sciences Development Office, P.O. Box 1140, Boulder, CO 80306.

MARGARET LOVE WHEELER WILLARD

The University Women's Club, originally named the Faculty Women's Club, was formed in 1919. Margaret Love Wheeler Willard was the first President of the Faculty Women's Club.

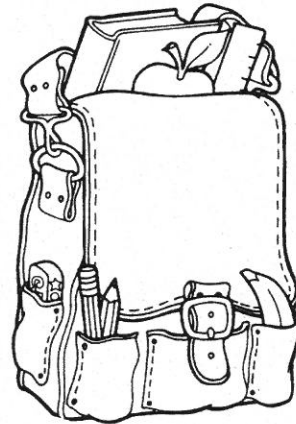

Margaret Love Wheeler was a native of Fort Smith, Arkansas, and a graduate of Wellesley College, class of 1898. She moved to Boulder with her family in 1906. In 1908, she earned a master's degree at the University of Colorado where she became an instructor in the English Department. Margaret Wheeler was "one of the most prominent in Boulder's social set." She was a member of the Fortnightly Club and Delta Gamma sorority.

In January, 1912, Margaret Wheeler, "a cultured and charming lady", married CU Professor James F. Willard, "the last bachelor at the University." After several recent weddings, James Willard was the remaining unmarried man on the CU faculty. The couple's romance was well known; they had been engaged for six months. It was even noted in a local newspaper's wedding announcement that there was speculation they were already secretly married. James Willard had been a member of the History Department faculty since 1906, and was appointed chairman in 1907. He was one of the most popular professors on campus.

In August, 1912, the Willards left for Europe on the first of several sabbatical trips to England. James Willard was a scholar of international reputation. One of his specialties was English medieval history. Margaret Willard assisted her husband in his research and conducted her own research on these trips. During one of their visits to England, Margaret Willard collected material for a book which she edited, entitled, Letters on the American Revolution of 1774-1776, published in 1925. Professor James Willard died in 1935. After his death, Margaret Willard assisted in the completion of his unfinished book, The English Government at Work 1327-1336. She was also credited with assistance in his research on the Pikes Peak gold rush and Willard's work on the Dictionary in America.

Margaret W. Willard was active in many civic and University organizations. From 1932-1936, she served as chairman of the Boulder County Child Welfare Association, an institution dedicated to aiding, "the mental, physical, and moral development of the children of Boulder." Among her collection of recipes was one entitled, "Creamed Chipped Beef for 40 Children". Mrs. Willard served as President of the Faculty Women's Club and was a sponsor of the student organization. Mrs. Willard was also advisor to the CU chapter of Delta Gamma sorority from about 1930 to 1945. She was noted for her leadership during the World War II years in a letter written to her in 1942. "In these days, it is not a simple matter to find women who feel that they have the time to devote to sorority matters . . .". Margaret Willard was a member of the Episcopal church and maintained her membership in the Fortnightly Club until her death in 1955.

Written by Beverly Irons, researched from the Archives, University of Colorado, Boulder Libraries (Willard Collection).

We mourn the recent death of our dear friend, Helen Carpenter. Helen was a member of the UWC since 1924. She worked at the University for forty-six years, including positions as the Director of the Department of Student Personnel and the Director of the Placement Office. In 1965, she received the Robert Stearns Award.
